ADDRESS OF MOST EXCELLENT GRAND HIGH PRIEST
W. MALCOLM KILLINGSWORTH
1994-1995

To the Officers, Past Grand High Priests, Companions, and Distinguished Guests of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama:

The 168th Annual Convocation of The Grand Royal Arch Chapter should be opened no other way than to welcome the wonderful friends from other Grand Jurisdictions, the "Work Horses" of the Grand Chapter of Alabama and subordinate chapters of the great state of Alabama and those of other categories if there be any present. If there is any way your visit can be made more pleasant, you have but to ask.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

I regret I have not been enabled to function as I thought I should have as your Grand High Priest this year. In the past I have been critical of some of the Companions and Sir Knights in my own mind, if not aloud. There are not many instances when any kind of Freemasonry would not have absolute preference with me, but I have had a few to occur. In general, when I have had the pleasure and opportunity to be in Lodges there has been the usual amount of agreement and unison I have observed in all my visits this year. I am very pleased with the progress and good reports I have received from Monroeville #170. They have set a pattern that we could all do well to emulate.

I am concerned, as all are, with the loss of membership but I have no answer. It should be constantly borne in mind that the respectability and usefulness of a lodge does not consist in the number, but in the character of its members. We, and only we, are the patterns and blueprints or prototypes, that our future masons have to draw from, or we are the mold for the future of Freemasonry.

NECROLOGY

As of the compilation of this report, our Supreme Grand Master of Heaven and Earth has allowed our Grand Chapter Line to remain intact, with the exception of the magnanimous loss of Past Grand High Priest David Shelby Vaughn on April 23, 1994 and Past Grand High Priest Guss Harris Gadd on December 23, 1994. Our loss is Heavens gain.

REVIEW OF BOOKS

On December 9th, I authorized the Grand Secretary to secure the services of Potter, Bryant, and Tate, Certified Public Accountants of Birmingham, Alabama, for a review the Grand Chapter Books.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama take appropriate action at this Grand Convocation to complete the new apron purchase and include the aprons for anyone who does not now have one and that new apron cases be purchased to keep them in. The cases are in such deplorable condition that the aprons will suffer abuse by having been kept in them.
2. That all Past Grand High Priests who have not done so, join the Gold Card Club.

COMMENDATIONS

1. I am personally grateful to every member of Monroeville Chapter #170 for the dedication and endeavor they showed and especially to Companion MacArthur Davis for his dedication in the recent events that lead to the fine class they had.
2. I extend my thanks to Companion William J. Sirmon for his efforts in completing the task on the General Grand Chapter's History of Royal Arch Masonry.
3. I extend my thanks to the Right Eminent Grand Commander, Sir Knight Robert L. Byars, Jr. for representing The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Alabama in the merger of Sylacauga #104 with Birmingham Metro #76 when I could not be there.
4. I am personally grateful to Louie Patrick Wetzel for the exemplary manner in which he has led the Order of DeMolay in the State of Alabama for the time we were fortunate to have him.

CONCLUSION

I am grateful to the Companions of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama for having permitted me to serve in the capacities I have for the last several years. It has been an enjoyable time for me and I will never forget some of the experiences I have had. They are too numerous to recall and like recognition's and commendations, after you have finished, you probably have omitted some of the most important ones. I am most grateful to my wife, Helen, for her love and affection to an old aggravating joker like me for the past 44 years and for all the help she has been to me. My thanks are extended to Right Eminent Grand Commander Robert L. Byars, Jr. and his wife, Joyce, and Most Illustrious Grand Master Jesse W. Locke and his wife, Irma, for the help and friendship they have given to me and my wife through the years. A hearty thanks is extended to Past Grand Commander and Grand Secretary-Recorder, Arthur C. Harding, and his patient wife, Charlotte, for their help and understanding through trying times. Companion Fred W.

McCluskey and Miss Dot have been kind to us so long it is impossible to think of them in any other way. Thank you, Grand Chapter Officers and wives for your help and support. THANK YOU MOST OF ALL, GOD, FOR YOUR GUIDANCE. In my humble ignorance I have tried to do your bidding. May God Bless all of you.

Respectfully submitted,

W. Malcolm Killingsworth
Grand High Priest

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1994

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

A. Basis of Accounting

The organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. Under this method certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not purport to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost determined by the first-in, first-out method, or market.

C. Property and Equipment

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

To The Most Excellent Grand High Priest and Companions of the Grand Chapter of Alabama.

Your committee on DeMolay submits the following report:

The youth of Alabama is apparently not seeking membership in our youth organizations, Order of Rainbow for Girls and Order of DeMolay. Those of you who are present and have sons, daughters, grandsons or granddaughters who are of an age to become members of these organizations should encourage them to submit petitions. It is also necessary that we, as Masons, should become involved ourselves as the success of these organizations depends to a great extent upon our participation. These organizations need our adult leadership.

Fraternally submitted,

James F. Vaughan
Committee on DeMolay

Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE FOR RESEARCH ASSISTANCE

To the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Grand Officers, and Companions of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Alabama:

On going over my records for the past several years I find that many of our Chapters have contributed little or nothing at all to the Royal Arch Research assistance. In fact, I suspect that there are some, and possibly many, Chapters in this state that have never contributed a cent to this very worthwhile endeavor. This frightens me because those Chapters and any Lodge, Council, Commandery or any other appendant or concordant body of Freemasonry that does not contribute in some way to charity puts our whole fraternity at risk with the Internal Revenue Service. You must remember, Companions, that we are tax exempt because we are a charitable organization! When we cease to be charitable organizations we will cease to be tax exempt and I honestly think that it is less expensive on us to

To those Chapters that make regular donations to the R.A.R.A. I thank you very much. To those Chapters that contribute at least $1.00 per member, which is all the General Grand Chapter asks for them to issue a 100% certivicate to a Chapter, I am very grateful. To those Chapters that have not made a contribution this year, I urge you to do so very soon.

To date I have received donations from Montgomery Chapter No. 22 in the sum of $100.00 and two donations have been received from Companion Maurice C. Himes in the sum of $200.00 toward his membership in the General Grand High Priest Keystone Club.

Respectfully submitted,

Emory J. Ferguson, Chairman

Adopted.

REPORT ON NECROLOGY

To the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Alabama, Most Excellent Grand High Priest, and esteemed Brethren:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest Killingsworth, thank you for deeming me deserving to serve you and this Grand Chapter as Grand Chaplain.

It is with a sense of sadness and profound loss that I must report that since our last convocation; Most Excellent Past Grand High Priest David Shelby Vaughn, Most Excellant Past Grand High Priest Guss Harris Gadd and 150 of our beloved Companions have entered into the portals of bliss where the Supreme Grand High Priest gives them rest from their labors and eternal joy in His presence.

We cherish their memories and may the good deeds they have exemplified while here with us inspire us to strive to improve in our daily walk with God and mankind.

We extend to their families our deepest condolences and promise to uphold them in our prayers to the One who loves them above all measure.

May we pray!

Most loving and merciful Lord God; we beseech thee to hear now, our prayer for the loved ones of our departed Companions and render them Your all encompassing compassion and comfort. We also pray Thee, to give us a greater determination to seek Your divine plan for our moral and spiritual duty.

All this, we most humbly ask in the Name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

William D. Barr
Grand Chaplain
