INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Mr. R. Sim Hamilton
Most Illustrious Grand Master
Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama
Birmingham, Alabama

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balance - cash basis of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama (a non-profit organization) as of December 31, 1992, and the related statements of revenue and expenses - cash basis and of changes in fund balance - cash basis for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Council's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the Council prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements except that the statements include an inventory of supplies held for resale, a provision for depreciation of property and equipment, and an accrual for the Triennial Reserve. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and fund balance of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama as of December 31, 1992, and its revenue and expenses and the changes in its fund balance for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1992

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

A. Basis of Accounting

The organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. Under this method certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not purport to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost determined by the first-in, first-out method, or market.

C. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Depreciation was computed on the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes.

NOTE 2 - TAX STATUS:

The Council is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c), and from state income taxes under Alabama Code Section 40-18-32. An informational tax return is filed each year on IRS Form 990.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

The Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

Companions, I will begin this report with a few questions. Do we intend to allow our DeMolay Chapters and Rainbow Assemblies to close for a lack of support both physically and financially as they have been now for several years: Are we going to help restore those that are inactive and form new ones where needed:

When our youth come to us for help will we continue to tell them we are too busy to be an advisor or assist them in securing new members for their various groups: We continue to moan and groan about the declining membership, yet we do not do enough to encourage the youth who soon will be the leaders of our country by indoctrinating them with high ideals they will be subject to in our youth orders.

I close this report with a quotation from Edmund Burge. "All that is necessary for evil to triumph is for good me to do nothing."

Respectfully submitted,

Fred W. Vaughan, MIPGM
Chairman

Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JURISPRUDENCE

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

The committee on Cryptic Jurisprudence submit the following report for your consideration.

We find that portion of the Most Illustrious Grand Master's address pertaining to Dispensations to receive and ballot on petitions out of statutory time to be in order. We recommend the approval of that portion of the report.

Due to the resignation of Patrick B. Bleakley, Grand Conductor of the Council, Illustrious Grand Master, Richard Sim Hamilton, appointed Richard D. Tapscott to Pro Tem this station during this Grand Council Session. We recommend approval of this action.

We had a resolution to change Article, 10 Section 10 of the By-Laws last year which was received at that time. At this time we will make final disposition on it. We find this Resolution to be in order. Companion Emory J. Ferguson, who submitted this Resolution, withdrew the Resolution.

We received correspondence from the Grand Council of Florida concerning concurrent jurisdiction.

We recommend approval of the Grand Representatives Appointed.

We move the adoption of this report in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael L. Jones, Chairman
Joseph D. Brackin
Emory J. Ferguson

REPORT ON NECROLOGY

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

It is my solemn duty to report to you that since our last assembly, we have seen 124 of our Companions take the final journey to be with our Lord. We will all miss them and feel the loss, but thank our Heavenly Father for the friendship we enjoyed with these Companions.

We sympathize with their families and may God in his loving kindness be very near to them, and help them to endure their great loss. May we all strive to live better lives and not forget to minister to their families.

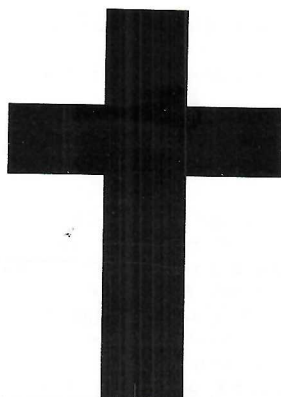

And now as Friends and Companions stand for a moment of silence in Honor to them and in memory of them:

Our Heavenly Father, You are the Wisest of all, and we know You have a time to call on all of us to take this final journey to be with You. We ask Your blessings upon the families and friends of our departed Companions, and we ask that You keep us in Your ever loving Grace.....Amen

ALABAMA GRAND YORK RITE HOLDING COMPANY

To the Grand Officers and Members of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Alabama:

The Alabama Grand York Rite Holding Company submits the following report:

There has been no action on behalf of the Holding Company this year except for the selection of officers at a meeting held on Saturday, March 14, 1992 at the East Lake Masonic Temple in Birmingham. Emory J. Ferguson was re-elected President, Fred W. McCluskey, Jr. was elected Treasurer and Arthur C. Harding was elected Secretary.

There remains on the lease of the office space occupied by the Grand Bodies one year and ten months. Even though R. R. Simmons has been an excellent landlord and very easy to do business with the Grand York Rite Holding Company should consider looking for a more suitable location for the safety of its staff and members that frequent these offices. Though the rent at the present location is low and even though we probably will be unable to find another location as cheap, still it is not worth putting our people at risk to save a few dollars. Because of the risk in the neighborhood it has come to the point that our Grand Secretary-Recorder feels that he must carry a side arm for protection, the building has to be checked out to make certain that no one is in hiding, and it is necessary for one to announce himself before the elevator is sent down for entry into the building. If it is unsafe for the men in the neighborhood it is certainly unsafe for the ladies.

The recommendation of the Holding Company is that a concerted effort be extended over the next twenty-two months to find a suitable, affordable and safe location for our Grand York Rite offices.

Respectfully submitted,

Emory J. Ferguson, President
Fred W. McCluskey, Treasurer
Arthur C. Harding, Secretary
Charles R. Pate
Ray Rutledge
