Address of the Most Illustrious Grand Master
Maurice C. Himes
1993 - 1994

To the Officers, Past Illustrious Grand Masters, Companions, and Distinguished Visitors to the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama.

Welcome to our 156th Annual Assembly. We are justly proud of our State, the City of Dothan, and the Wiregrass Area. So if there is anything that we can do to make your visit more interesting, rewarding, or enjoyable, please do not hesitate to contact me or one of my officers for any assistance.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

I am both happy and very sad to make this final address to you, my brethren of the Grand Council of Alabama. Happy that I was given the opportunity to make the acquaintance of York Rite Masons all over this country and to represent this Grand Council to them in, hopefully, a manner that reflected favorably on the York Rite in Alabama and that would meet with your approval. I shall be eternally grateful to you for setting my feet on this path five years ago by electing me to this Grand Council.

I am sad to be leaving this office because there was just not enough time to accomplish in one short year as many things as I wanted to get done.

We continue to be plagued by loss of membership, as is nearly everyone else in the states I visited, and I am as much at a loss as to the solution as everyone else with whom I discussed it. However, there were several things I noticed in states where the York Rite was strong and thriving. Most notable was that they invariably had a close and strong working relationship with the Grand Lodge.

I feel that we must return to the many and varied aspects of Freemasonry that have made this great fraternity endure for so many decades. We seem to have lost our standing in the community and business world, and no longer are an organization to which many men aspire to become a member. We tell ourselves and our prospective members that we are the oldest fraternal organization in the world, and then, too often, show this same new member that his standing and worth will be judged by his proficiency in the ritual. If he has neither the time nor inclination to become active in ritual work, he soon realizes that this is nearly the only social and fraternal opportunity we offer him. Ultimately, the only enduring and truly valuable reward of Masonry, aside from the charity we support, is the respect and friendships you make among your local companions, those throughout the state, and even those in other states throughout this country. To this end, I recommend to every officer in this Grand Council line to begin your travel to as many other jurisdictions as you can, as early as you can, so that when you visit as a presiding officer, you are known and respected as a longtime friend rather than as a stranger.

NECROLOGY

The Supreme Architect has gratefully stayed the hand of the Grim Reaper from our Grand Officers during this year. The Grand Chaplain will have account of those Companions of our jurisdiction who have been called before the Great White Throne.

CONCLUSION

I still remain optimistic about the future of the York Rite in Alabama, because we have endured and survived many crises in the past and emerged stronger and wiser. There will always be those who seek the title and shirk the responsibility that accompanies it, those who criticize and find fault, but offer no solution for that which they find so wrong. Some will be lazy, indifferent, and some incompetent. But at the same time there will always be those who seek the responsibility and welcome the hard work that goes with it and ask no reward (and all too often receive none). There will be those who have ideas and the conviction to defend them and see them through. These latter will, as they always have in the past, see that we survive this crisis and the next.

I would truly be remiss if I did not express my love and thanks to my wife, Glenda, for her support and patience during this past year. She has been my navigator, both along the highway and in gently pointing me in the right direction in many of the situations attendant on this position.

Respectfully submitted,

Maurice C. Himes
Grand Master

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1993

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

A. Basis of Accounting

The organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. Under this method certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not purport to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost determined by the first-in, first-out method, or market.

C. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Depreciation was computed on the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes.

NOTE 2 - TAX STATUS:

The Council is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c), and from state income taxes under Alabama Code Section 40-18-32. An informational tax return is filed each year on IRS Form 990.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RITUALISTIC WORK

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master, Grand Officers, and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We, the Committee of the Grand Council on Ritualistic Work make the following report:

We have no requests for clarification or assistance from any council this year. We feel that these degrees should be presented in such a manner that the candidates may see their importance in the York Rite of Freemasonry as the true story of Symbolic Masonry as it unfolds and a story half told is finished to the satisfaction of the newly made Companions.

Respectfully submitted,

Erskine K. Smith, MIPGM, Chairman
Charles R. Pate, MIPGM
Anthony L. Deming

Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MOST ILLUSTRIOUS GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

The Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We your Committee on Youth submit the following report:

As we average the age of the members of our Masonic Fraternity, we need to realize the need to add youth to our organization. We are not allowed to ask people to join our Masonic Brotherhood, but there are many other ways we can create interest in our Fraternity. An example is to assist our Youth Organizations by helping them to increase their membership. If we work hard with our Youth Organizations and show them that we have a genuine interest in them, we can create interest which will grow into desire to join our Masonic Fraternity. Companions, we need to be more open about who we are and what we stand for as Masons. For too long we have held meetings and returned home without thinking about our Fraternity until the next meeting. If we exhibit the true ideas of Christianity and the Masonic Fraternity in our every day lives and we come in contact with the young men and young women, we should be able to expand our members by our simple actions. I hope that this year this Committee can report an increase in membership of our Youth Groups, instead the continued decline which we have been experiencing over the past years will continue. Companions, I charge you try to look at each young man and each young woman that you come in contact with as a future Master Mason or a future member of the Eastern Star. We can increase our members by seeing that the young men and young women in our community increase theirs.

Respectfully submitted,

James F. Vaughan
Chairman

Adopted.

REPORT ON NECROLOGY

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We are reminded in God's Word as Paul, the Apostle, in writing to the Hebrews that it is appointed to man that once to die. That after this, the Judgment. Death is a thing not likely to be discussed by us who are subject to its power. The young may die, the old must die. It is the Will of God, none of us can alter his Holy Will. Since we last met 103 of our Companions, were called from this earthly abode by the Supreme Grand Master. The Grand Line has not been broken this year. We thank our Heavenly Father for this blessing. We offer our sincere condolences to the memory of our Sister Jurisdictions.

Let us for a few moments turn our thoughts to the great book of nature in Revelations. While in this Epistle to Titus reminds us that the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, sound in charity, and sound in patience. In all things showing thyself a pattern of good work, sound speech that cannot be condemned. In his epistle to the Apostle Timothy, he further reminds us to be an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith and in purity. So Companions, by following these teachings as a rule and guide to our faith and practice, let us labor to do good as we travel this earthly journey that succeeding generations may see and respect the marks we leave behind. Let us Pray.

Holy Father, as we vouchsafe thine aid to live an exemplary life, let it be for the Glory of the Supreme Architect of the Universe. As we finish thy work, then let us be laid to rest in Peace and with the assured hope that we will hear those coveted words "Enter thou into the Joy of thy Lord. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

Roger A. Simmons
Grand Chaplain
