ADDRESS OF THE MOST ILLUSTRIOS GRAND MASTER
LANCE C. ANTHONY
2000 - 2001

To the Officers, Companions, and Guests of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

It is my distinct pleasure and privilege to welcome you to the 163rd Annual Assembly of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama. I want to express my personal appreciation to our Grand Officers, Past Grand Masters and Companions all for taking time to attend, assist and participate in the decision making of this Grand Assembly.

It is a special pleasure to welcome our Companions from our Sister Jurisdictions who have accorded me every courtesy when I visited many of them during this past year. Thank you for coming and affording us the opportunity to extend Alabama Southern Hospitality to you. Please enjoy your visit and permit us to extend the hospitality that only the "Deep South" can provide. I look forward to our pleasant association for many years to come.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

I cannot discount the loss of membership that we continue to experience not only in Alabama, but also in other jurisdictions. York Rite "work" is special, instructive and the Companions share a special bond that only they can understand. This bond takes time to develop and cannot be accomplished overnight, in a month or even a year, but must be nurtured over a long period of time. Quality, not quantity must be our watchword. When totally established, camaraderie and dedication engendered by brotherly love and affection cannot be diminished or severed by time or circumstances. I challenge each of you to exemplify the virtues of Freemasonry in your everyday lives and by so doing, you will earn the respect and admiration of others outside our fraternity and inspire them to join our ranks.

NECROLOGY

Our Father in heaven was very gracious in permitting our Grand Line to remain without a loss during the past year. Our Grand Chaplain will give an accounting of our companions in the various councils in his report.

AUDIT

On December 7, 2000, I authorized our Grand Secretary-Recorder, Companion Arthur C. Harding, to secure the services of William M. Tate, Certified Public Accountant of Birmingham, Alabama to review the books of the Grand Council for the year 2000.

CONCLUSION

Companions, I am grateful for the opportunity and privilege of serving this past year as your Grand Master. Although it was a year of excitement and fraternal comradeship, it was also a year of tremendous tragedy and heartache. Permit me a personal privilege. I will forever be grateful for the love and support my Mother rendered me both in my personal life and Masonic career. She was extremely proud of my being a Mason and the effect it had on my life. It began when she told me in late 1963, that I had a petition going in that night to become a member of the Columbus Chapter, Order of DeMolay and it ended on that Monday night, August 14, 2000, when she died. But the intrinsic and indelible print will be with me the rest of my life. I want you to know how much I appreciate your Love, support and encouragement during this difficult period. I regret that the enormity of this prevented me from accomplishing some of the things that I wanted to do. But I know you understand.

To our Past Grand Masters and to Art and Charlotte Harding, Fred McCluskey, our other Grand Officers and Grand Committee Members, I appreciate the support and fine work you have done this year. To our Grand High Priest, J. C. Brady and Grand Commander, Jesse W. Locke and his Lady Irma, I appreciate your friendship and I have enjoyed working with you this year. To Sam and Sarah Garrett, Bob and Wanda Moseson, and Rich Wright I appreciate your Love, support and dedication.

It was a singular pleasure and privilege as a Senior DeMolay to be honored by the International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay by being invested with the Active Legion of Honor at the Alabama DeMolay Association Conclave in Montgomery on July 15, 2000. I will forever treasure the occasion and the recognition by Grand Master James C. McGee. I value the friendship of Jim and his "other half," as well as Reid Morgan.

Finally, my companions, SPREAD THE WORD that York Rite Masonry is fun and the lasting friendships it bestows are immeasurable.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lance C. Anthony
Grand Master

I have reviewed the accompanying statement of financial position - cash basis of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama (a non-profit organization) as of December 31, 2000, and the related statement of activities - cash basis for the year then ended, in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the representation of the management of the Council.

A review consists principally of inquiries of personnel and analytical procedures applied to financial data. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with the cash basis of accounting , as described in Note A.

My review was made for the purpose of expressing limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with the cash basis of accounting, as described in Note A. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2000

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

A. Basis of Accounting

The organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the cash basis of accounting. Under this method certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not purport to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost determined by the first-in, first-out method, or market.

C. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and were depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Depreciation was computed on the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes.

NOTE 2 - TAX STATUS:

The Council is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c), and from state income taxes under Alabama Code Section 40-18-32.

NOTE 3 - TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS:

Temporarily restricted net assets are reserved to cover expenses for specified officers to attend the Triennial Meeting. During the year an additional $525.00 was designated as a transfer from unrestricted net assets to temporarily restricted assets.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

The Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We your committee on the youth beg to make the following report. The committee has been very busy this year attending the various events of the Alabama Grand Assembly of the Rainbow for girls and the Alabama DeMolay. We specifically attended the Grand Assembly annual meeting and Alabama DeMolay Conclave in June. We were very pleased to witness the conferral of the DeMolay Legion of Honor on Grand Master Anthony this year. Both youth groups have made progress this year in membership and program planning. The Rainbow girls started a new assembly in Killen and the DeMolay reactivated the Birmingham Chapter. Both organizations sincerely appreciate the funding made possible by the Grand York Rite bodies. The Rainbow Girls use the donation to offset the cost of their insurance, the DeMolay use the funds for the trophies at their annual conclave and to pay for background checks on the adult workers. The Rainbow Girls and the DeMolay in Alabama have made progress this year but a lot remains to be done. I would like to encourage every companion to visit one meeting of each organization this next year. If you are having any function that the Rainbow or DeMolay may assist with please give your local Assembly or Chapter a call. I know they would love to help out.

Fraternally submitted,

James C. McGee, Chairman
L. Patrick Wetzel

'Adopted'.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JURISPRUDENCE

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

Nothing has been referred to your Committee during the recent York Rite Year with the exception of a memorandum concerning the request for a dual membership of a present member of the Chapter and Council of Maryland and a former member of a Chapter and Council in Alabama who in 1990 signed and agreement to not place his demit with any York Rite body in Alabama.

I am attaching a copy of the agreement concerned. (Note: This agreement should not be published in the proceedings.)

We make no recommendation concerning this matter and leave it up to the Companions in the Chapter and Council of Alabama that he is petitioning to make a decision for the good of Masonry and their immediate body.

We move the adoption of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

Fred W. Vaughan, Chairman
Clarence F. Rhea
William M. Newsome, Jr.

Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CRYPTIC MASON
MEDICAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

To the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

I HAVE RECEIVED FROM Brundidge Council #69, Anniston, Alabama, a donation of $250.00 to the Medical Research Foundation this year. They were the first to make a nonation for the year also from Decatur Council #81 a check for $1.00 per member in the amount of $165.00 and from Birmingham-Metro #43 a check in the amount of $250.00 and I thank them for sending it to me. I hope more have been made. I would ask all bodies to notify your Chairman of this committee when contributions are made so that he would be able to keep up with it.

I thank the Most Illustrious Grand Master for allowing me to serve on this committee.

Fraternally submitted,

Phillip Sherman
Chairman

Adopted.

FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

Of the 56 Alabama Grand Council Representatives, two reports have been formally submitted this past year: one from Companion Phillip Sherman, the other by Companion Tom Craig. I am quite sure that there was verbal or written communication or visitations between Representatives from this Council and other Councils throughout the world that have not been submitted. It is true that we do not neeed notoriety of specific correspondence, but we sincerely hope that many of our Comapnions have and do correspond with their counterparts. I paraphrase the comment made by Companion Brent Haller in his 1999 report to the Grand Council; the use of e-mail is a very easy way to keep in touch, and each of us should attempt to use that method.

Respectfully submitted

William J. Loerch
Chairman

REPORT ON NECROLOGY

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

This report is given in Honor to the momory of the Mother of our Most Illustrious Grand Master, Ms. Mable Anthony, who this past year has also gone on before us to be with the Lord.

During this past Cryptic year, 97 of our Companions have laid down the working tools of life, never to pick them up again.

Companions! Take a minute to think about those who are no longer among the living, but whose influence remains a vital, and integral part of this Grand Council. Where would this Grand Council be if it were not for their labors, and zeal? Regardless of what titles they may have had, every one of these Companions made a contribution in our lives, and experience.

All of us have been influenced in our Masonic careers by someone who has been summoned from our midst by the Grand Architect of the Universe.

I read a poem; it goes like this:

There is a destiny that makes us brothers,
None goes this way alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own.
I care not what his temples or his creeds,
One thing holds firm, and fast;
That, into this fateful heap of days, and deeds
The soul of a man is cast.

Let your thoughts take you back to the past; let your mind, and heart reflect on the memories of those no longer among us. Let us dedicate ourselves to the future of our fellowship, and our fraternity as we live, and labor in the cause of brotherhood.

Let us pray:

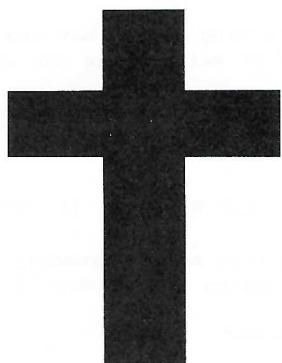

Father God; we call upon Thee as we gather in this annual assembly to remember, and recall those of our Companions who have laid down the working tools of life, and have been summoned to their eternal reward with that welcome plaudit, "Well done, good, and faithful servant...enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Make us responsible and faithful workers in the quarries, so that when we are summoned to have our work judged; we too may be greeted, and acknowledged among the select, and worthy.

Bless our efforts, and enable us to keep faith with Thee, and with all who have labored here before us. For this we ask in Thy Most Holy Name. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert D. Moseson, Chairman
Richard M. Wright

GRAND COUNCIL OF R. & S. M. ASSEMBLY - 2002

It was moved that the next Annual Assembly of the Alabama Grand Council be held in Birmingham on February 24, 25, and 26, 2002.

Motion seconded and carried.

ALABAMA GRAND YORK RITE HOLDING COMPANY

To the Grand Officers and Members of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Alabama:

The Holding Company met at the Birmingham York Rite Temple on Saturday, March 11, 2000, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year which resulted in the following:

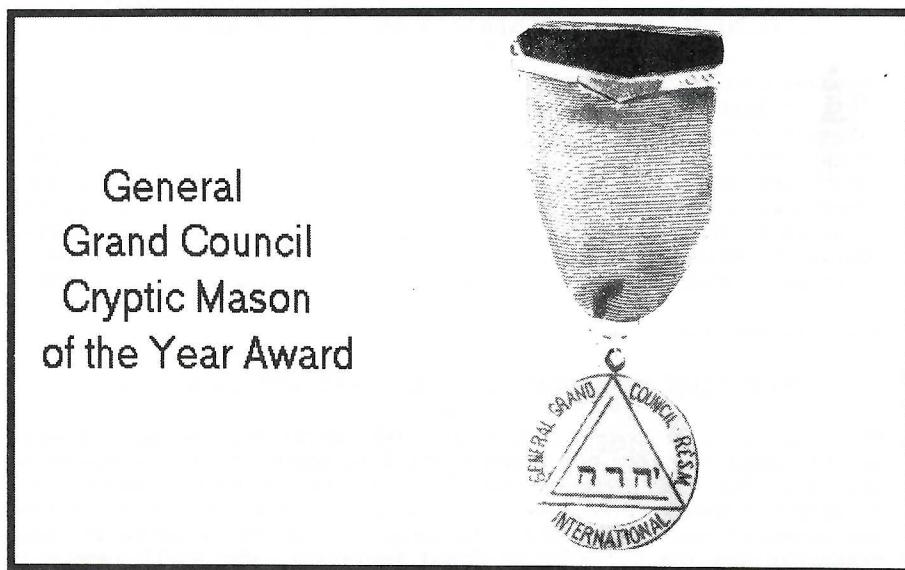

Emory J. Ferguson.....President
Charles R. Pate.....Vice-President
Erskine K. Smith.....Vice-President
Fred W. McCluskey.....Treasurer
Arthur C. Harding.....Secretary

Although the Grand York Rite Bodies still continue to rent and occupy the offices owned by the Birmingham Metro York Rite Bodies without a written lease or agreement there appears to be no difficulty in the present arrangement as the Holding Company has received no complaints from the Grand Secretary/Recorders office nor from any officer or member of the Birmingham Metro York Rite Bodies. Because of this peaceful existance the duties of the Holding Company have been very light this past year.

Respectfully submitted,

Emory J. Ferguson, President
Charles R. Pate, Vice-President
Erskine K. Smith, Vice-President
Fred W. McCluskey, Jr., Treasurer
Arthur C. Harding, Secretary
