ADDRESS OF MOST ILLUSTRIOUS GRAND MASTER
TEDDY R. GROGAN, SR.
1986-1987

To the Officers, Companions, and Distinguished Guests of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

It is indeed a great pleasure to extend to each of you a Warm, Friendly, and Fraternal greeting to this our One Hundred and Forty-Ninth Annual Assembly of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama.

To our Distinguished and Honored Guests from other Grand Jurisdictions and other Subordinate Bodies, we extend to each of you the warm hospitality and fraternal greetings of this Grand Council. We hope your visit with us will be both pleasant and enjoyable, as my visits have been with your Grand Assemblies throughout the past year. How true it is that Masonry conciliates true friendship among those who might otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance.

My wife, Agnes, and I are truly grateful for the warm friendship and hospitality extended to us by each of you, and I hope your visit with us will be equally rewarding.

I am most happy to welcome all General Grand Council Officers or their Representatives who are present. We are pleased you have honored us with your presence.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

I was not able to visit every subordinate council in the state this year, but I did manage a pretty good cross section of the state, and have been able to meet and talk with most of you. I have found a good interest and high proficiency in some, but I am sorry to say, a lack of interest and participation in others. We feel this is because of lack of leadership in some local bodies. We wish we could offer a solution to this problem, but without local leadership, there is no solution. We congratulate Councils who have worked hard and conferred the degrees on good classes, both Spring and Fall. Maybe this will help to offset our loss of membership this year.

NECROLOGY

Almighty God in his infinite wisdom has blessed our Grand Council line with good health this year, and our ranks remain intact. It is my sad duty to report the loss of Most Illustrious Past Grand Master, Charles Deverne Miller, (1970-1971), who died March 17, 1986. The death angel has also removed from this life 118 of our Companions this past year. Our prayers and deepest sympathy are extended to their families. Our Illustrious Grand Chaplain, J. Paul Gray, will have more fitting remarks in his report.

Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama
Birmingham, Alabama

We have examined the balance sheet of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama, Birmingham, Alabama, as of December 31, 1986 and the related statements of revenue, expenses and changes in fund balance for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The organization's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the assets, liabilities and fund balance arising from cash transactions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama as of December 31, 1986, and the revenue collected and expenses paid during the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described above, which basis has been applied in a matter consistent with that of preceding years.

To the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We, your Committee on Ritualistic Work, report that there have been no requests for clarification of the work this past year. We did have one request for assistance, and that was answered successfully by the Anniston York Rite Bodies.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

We, your Committee on Youth, submit the following report:

All of the Grand York Rite presiding officers along with our Grand Secretary-Recorder and their wives attended the DeMolay State Association banquet, and we appreciate their interest.

There were a number of awards given to the young men of our jurisdiction, some of which were provided by funds furnished by our Grand York Rite Bodies. There were also some educational programs and information provided the young people of our jurisdiction through some funds furnished by these Bodies.

The young people were told these things came to them from these Bodies. Due to the rising cost of providing for our young people, we request that consideration be given to increasing funds given for them. We must keep in mind that some of these young people could and will be taking some of our places in the years to come.

When have you done something that would make a young person want to ask for a petition to a Blue Lodge, or a Blue Lodge member ask for a York Rite petition? Think about it, my Companions.
