This year's recipient of the General Grand Chapter Medal of Honor Award was announced to be Companion Robert F. Elkin of Eunomia Chapter No. 5 in Huntsville, Alabama. Due to his absence, it will be presented at a later date. The Grand Chapter of Alabama is honored to add Companion Elkin's name to the distinguished list of former recipients.

The banquet was concluded with prayer by Sir Knight James M. Ward, Southeast Department Commander.

A hospitality room was open on Monday and Tuesday where the ladies met to enjoy the elaborate array of refreshments, furnished by the Ladies of the Alabama Grand York Rite, and arranged by Mrs. Ray R. (Peggy) Morgan, Mrs. Clarence F. (Marie) Rhea, and Mrs. Richard Sim (Dorothy) Hamilton.

At noon on Monday, the ladies were treated to a delicious luncheon in the "Yesterday's Lounge" at the Ramada Inn-Airport. They were given lovely table favors by the three hostesses, and many prizes were given those holding the lucky numbers. Beautiful slides of numerous Alabama Attractions were shown by Mr. Ralph Burgess of Anniston, Alabama.

On Monday evening in the "Vaudeville" room, the ladies were entertained with a Magic Show presented by Mr. Jessie C. Shinn, a member of the Gadsden York Rite Bodies.

ADDRESS OF MOST ILLUSTRIOUS GRAND MASTER
CLARENCE F. RHEA
1984-1985

To the Distinguished Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama assembled in Birmingham, Alabama, this 25th day of February, 1985:

It is my pleasure to welcome each Companion to this One Hundred Forty-Seventh Annual Assembly of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters.

It has been my honor to represent you these past twelve months as the Grand Master of this Grand Council.

From the installation date when I became your Grand Master on the 28th day of February, 1984, until the 25th day of February, 1985, when I give up the title, there have been many occasions where our hearts have been warmed by your kindness, and our pride justified by your examples of Masonic proficiency.

It has been said that it is from our lives and not from our words, that our influence can be measured. As I visited with you and heard from you and spoke to many of you by phone and fellowshipped throughout the year, my appreciation for our fraternity and for you increased immeasurably.

My own Gadsden Council No. 56 gave me great support, and I attended many of their meetings during the year. There I found such Companions available for guidance as past MIGM Clifford Turner, Past MIGM Fred Vaughan, Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Ray Morgan, my Grand Marshal, Turner, and my Grand Sentinel, J. D. Taylor, in the Gadsden Council.

Our Grand Chaplain, John Palmer from Anniston and Teddy R. Grogan, our Illustrious Grand Principal conductor of the Work, traveled from Piedmont and Anniston respectively. We were joined by the RIDGM Joe Brackin of Dothan, Illustrious Grand Captain of the Guard, William Ealy of Huntsville, and Brent R. Haller, Illustrious Grand Conductor of the Council, from Mobile, at several of our visits.

VISITS WERE MADE:

State DeMolay Association - Montgomery	June 9, 1984
Masonic Headquarters - Montgomery	June 17, 1984
Montgomery Council No. 3	June 23, 1984
Phenix City Council No. 82	July 7, 1984
Mobile Council No. 12	July 14, 1984
Gadsden Council No. 56
Charles A. Long No. 94

Masonic meetings were attended on several occasions at the Scottish Rite Temple in Birmingham. The KYCH meeting at East Lake was in July.

In January, 1985, the South East Regional meeting at Cypress Gardens, Florida, afforded an opportunity to renew acquaintances, make new friends, and be inspired by a further awareness of the universality of Masonry.

Marie and I have both been beneficiaries of a most cordial and supportive relationship during the year from

Right Eminent Grand Commander, Richard Sim Hamilton, and his lovely lady, Dot, and

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Ray R. Morgan, and his lovely wife, Peggy.

The three top officers in your York Rite Bodies have made a special effort this year to work with the Finance Committee, and with the extensive information the Illustrious Grand Recorder, Thomas W. Mann, furnished to formulate a budget and budgetary process that can be helpful, we could be responsible stewards of your money.

Several of the Councils made special efforts to advance Cryptic Masons International commitment to arteriosclerosis research.

The loss of membership is always disturbing. The Companions may be reassured that the new members we are receiving are high quality. The leadership exhibited by the older members is very reassuring. I have a positive feeling for our great fraternity as we enter 1985.

Phenix City York Rite Bodies developed and exemplified full dress installation ceremonies in keeping with the finest traditions of concern for the integrity of all Masonic procedures. It was my pleasure to be present for this stimulating and colorful ceremony. Our Illustrious Grand Steward, Sam L. Garrett, and the Companions of Phenix City Council No. 82 are to be congratulated.

This year we in York Rite have felt the benefits from the outstanding leadership given to all Masons by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alabama, the Honorable Jack Smith.

Companions, I am pleased to report to you I find strong ties and bonds that cement all Masonic Bodies, including York Rite and Scottish Rite. This is a healthy situation, and you can all be proud of this fraternal relationship.

NECROLOGY

It is my sad duty to report the loss of our Most Illustrious Past Grand Master, Walter F. Estes, (1945-1946). Since it was impossible for me to attend the funeral, I authorized Companion Thomas W. We are also saddened by the loss of 98 of our Companions who were called by the Supreme Architect to their eternal home. We extend our prayers and deepest sympathy to their families. Our Grand Chaplain, Companion John Palmer, will accord appropriate tribute to our departed Companions in his report.

Mr. Clarence F. Rhea
Most Illustrious Grand Master
Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama
Birmingham, Alabama

Dear Mr. Rhea:

I have examined the Balance Sheet of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama at December 31, 1984, and the related statements of revenue and expense for the Calendar Year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards which I considered applicable in the circumstances.

My report consists of exhibits and schedules listed on the Table of Contents, next attached, and the following comments which are a part of this report.

The accounting records of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama are maintained on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, adjusted to give effect to changes in inventory of supplies for resale, as in the previous years.

In my opinion the accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama at December 31, 1984, and the results of its financial transactions for accounting principles applied on a cash receipts and disbursements basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Very truly yours,

John E. Evans
Certified Public Accountant

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON YOUTH

To the Most Illustrious Grand Master, Grand Officers, and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

The Committee wishes to express its appreciation to Illustrious Companion, A. J. Tullos, Deputy Grand Master, International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay, for his attendance at this Grand Council Assembly.

This report gets harder to write because our young people's organizations are like our Grand Council, declining in membership. The decline could be stopped if the craft would take more interest in our fraternity. We let too many things interfere with our physical support of our youth.

They need what we have to offer, but far too many are never afforded the opportunity, because no one would take the time.

We appreciate the Grand Council's financial support. Without it we would not have many of the awards that our young people earn at the State Meetings. We request and urge the continuation of this support.

Respectfully submitted,
Ray R. Morgan, Jr., Chairman
Fred W. Vaughan, M.I.P.G.M.

Adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RITUALISTIC WORK

RESOLUTION

This Resolution received in the Grand Recorder's Office December 31, 1984. To the Most Illustrious Grand Master and Companions of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Alabama:

Companion Joseph D. Brackin, moved that the Grand York Rite Perpetual Life Membership be amended and adopted as follows:

1. To remove it from the hands of the Grand Bodies and move it into the hands of the local Bodies.
2. To dissolve the Board of Trustees of the Perpetual Life Membership Fund.
3. To include that all proceeds received by a York Rite Body to the Perpetual Life Membership Fund, as adopted by that Body, should they so desire to adopt it, would be retained into an interest bearing account, and that only the interest be used for operating funds, and the principal shall be retained.
4. If a Perpetual Life Member of a York Rite Body transfers from that York Rite Body within the State to another York Rite Body, the Secretary-Recorder of that York Rite Body, from which he is transferring, upon completion of transfer, shall remit the funds of the Perpetual Life Membership, less the interest, to the York Rite Body to which he is transferring, at which time those funds will be put on deposit, and only the interest may be used.

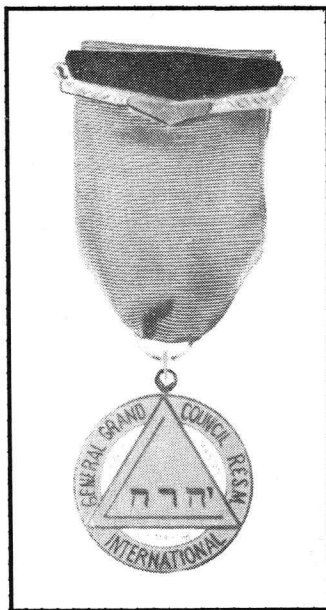

After some discussion, the ammendment was seconded, and passed unanimously.

It was moved and passed that the Grand York Rite be directed to refund to Dothan York Rite Bodies the money remaining in the one Perpetual Life Membership account after two years of per capita tax has been deducted.

RESOLUTION

The Resolution concerning raffling was withdrawn due to the ruling by the Jurisprudence Committee that it was out of order.
