OPENED.

The Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter was opened in due form, by the Right Excellent Deputy Grand High Priest, with prayer, as follows, by the Right Excellent and Reverend Grand Chaplain.

Almighty and Everlasting Father, Creator and Preserver of all things, both in Heaven and in earth, Who setteth the stars and planets in their courses and upholdest the pillars of the universe, Who didst create us, Thy unworthy children, in Thine Own Blessed Image; give us grace to do Thy will, grace to grow more and more, day by day, into Thy glorious likeness, and so prove ourselves fit to enter upon our eternal heritage in Thy Beatific Presence forever more, fit to behold Thee, in Thy wondrous Majesty, the Ancient of Days, crowned with glory and honor, seated upon the Great White Throne in the midst of the sapphire sea.

And, "O God, the Strength and Protector of all those who put their trust in Thee, without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us Thy mercy, that Thou being our Ruler and Guide we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal." Give us grace to cast off the works of darkness. Put upon us the armor of light. Drive away all error, pride, and prejudice. Grant that these consultations upon which we are about to enter may redound to our welfare, but more especially to the promotion of peace and happiness, truth and justice, and to the building up among us of these virtues for the good of our Country and for the well being of our brethren always and everywhere. Amen. So mote it be.

The Right Excellent Deputy Grand High Priest then ordered the Right Excellent Grand Captain of the Host and the Excellent Grand Principal Sojourner to proceed to the office of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest and inform him that the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama was now open and awaits his pleasure.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Companion John Philip Melvin, accompanied by the Right Excellent Grand Captain of the Host and the Excellent Grand Principal Sojourner, was escorted into the Grand Chapter. DISPENSATION TO RESUME WORK.

The Charter of Monroeville Chapter No. 122 having been forfeited by failure to render returns and pay dues for two successive years, and they having sent in the returns and paid to the Grand Secretary the amounts due, on April 24, 1920, I issued them a dispensation permitting them to resume work until this convocation of the Grand Chapter.

Ellis to be the King and John E. Dunaway to be the Scribe.

DISPENSATIONS TO ELECT OFFICERS.

They having failed to elect officers at the constitutional time, I granted dispensations to the following Chapters, allowing them to elect officers:

January 10, 1920.—James E. Cobb, Chapter No. 129 to elect all officers.

July 1, 1920.—Union Chapter No. 26 to elect all officers.

DISPENSATIONS TO BALLOT OUT OF STATUTORY TIME.

For good and sufficient reasons I have issued a few dispensations to ballot out of statutory time. In a few cases where applications had been made the request was not granted, the reasons given in my mind not being sufficient, some applications stating that the applicant were anxious to rush through in order to be in readiness for the next meeting of the Shrine.

While I am a member of the Shrine and enjoy to the fullest extent the association of the Nobles, yet I feel that one should take Masonry more seriously and reflect more on what Masonry really means than a desire to rush through, for it is too often the case that a young Mason in rushing through too fast does not take the interest that perhaps he would have taken had he studied the beauties of the other degrees and had he not had the Shrine as his goal.

NEW CHARTER.

By Order of the Grand Chapter, on January 12, 1920, I issued a new Charter to Camden Chapter No. 40, their old Charter having been lost or destroyed.

VISITATIONS.

It was my good pleasure during the year to visit the York Rite Reunions at Tuscaloosa and Bessemer. These reunions have become an established custom in these two cities, they having held them for a number of years. Much good has resulted thereby and I am sorry to note that more have not been held in the different cities throughout the state.

On January 21st, I instituted East Lake Chapter No. 154, at East Lake, Birmingham, Alabama.

On April 12th, I instituted Avondale Chapter No. 156, at Avondale, Birmingham, Alabama.

On April 21st, I instituted Wahouma Chapter No. 157, at Wahouma, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 9th, accompanied by Grand Secretary George A. Beauchamp, I instituted Charles Wheelock Chapter No. 158, at Birmingham, Alabama.

On September 14th, accompanied by Grand Secretary George A. Beauchamp, I instituted Fairfield Chapter No. 159, at Fairfield, Alabama.

I have had quite a few invitations to visit a number of the subordinate chapters and while it was not my good fortune to do so I trust that from time to time I may be able to visit them in the future. From reports coming to me the chapters are better prepared and do confer the degrees in a most creditable manner.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE APPOINTED.

On April 12, 1920, I appointed Companion Henry P. Glindeman of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, as the Grand Representative of the Grand Chapter of Alabama near the Grand Chapter of Idaho, vice Companion J. M. Aldrich, Commission revoked.

OUR FRATERNAL DEAD.

Since we last met in Annual Convocation the soul of Past Grand High Priest Basil M. Hill was called to its last reward, and on July 1st, I issued the following official announcement of his death:

GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER OF THE STATE OF ALABAMA.
OFFICE OF THE GRAND HIGH PRIEST.

Tuscaloosa, Alabama, July 1, 1920.

To the Officers and Members of the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama, and to all the Members of the Chapters in its Jurisdiction, and to all the Grand Chapters in Fraternal Correspondence:

COMPANIONS: I regret that I must officially communicate to you the death of

COMPANION BASIL M. HILL
PAST GRAND HIGH PRIEST

which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Martin, in Ragland, Alabama, May 16, 1920.

Basil M. Hill was born in the town of Benton, Lowndes County, Alabama, July 22, 1850; removed to Springville, St. Clair County, Alabama, in 1872, where he resided up to the time of his death.

Companion Hill had held many positions of trust, both in fraternal and civic life. For many years he held the responsible position of Tax Assessor of St. Clair County, Alabama.

He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church of Springville, Alabama, and had served as Sunday School Superintendent, Sunday School Teacher, Church Trustee, and Steward for almost forty years.

His Masonic record is as follows:

He was initiated April 18, 1873; passed February 16, 1874, and raised June 20, 1874, in Springville Lodge No. 280, and served as Master of said Lodge from 1886 to 1888 inclusive, and again from 1893 to 1895 inclusive.

He was exalted August 16, 1890, in Springville Chapter No. 88, and was High Priest thereof from 1893 to 1898 inclusive, and again in 1902 and 1903.

He received the Order of High Priesthood on December 4, 1893; was elected Recorder of the Council of Anointed High Priests of the State of Alabama on December 3, 1895 and served as such continuously up to his death.

He was received and greeted November 23, 1891, in Gadsden Council No. 56.

He was appointed Senior Grand Deacon of the M. W. Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M. of Alabama in 1893.

He was appointed Grand Master of the 2d Veil of the M.·. E.·. Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama in 1895, Grand Royal Arch Captain in 1896 and 1897, and was elected Grand Captain of the Host in 1898 and 1899, Grand Scribe in 1900, Grand King in 1901, Deputy Grand High Priest in 1902 and 1903, and Grand High Priest in 1904.

He was buried in the Springville Cemetery, of Springville, Alabama, on May 17th, 1920, the church service being conducted by Rev F. E. Maples, pastor of the Methodist Church of Ragland, Alabama, assisted by Rev. O. L. Millican, pastor of the Methodist Church of Springville, Alabama.

At the conclusion of the church service, the remains were taken in charge by Springville Lodge No. 280, of which he had been a member for forty-six years, and tenderly laid in their last resting place with all Masonic honors.

Our Most Excellent Companion was an earnest worker, performing his duty with commendable zeal and with credit to the Craft, which it was his chief delight to support and honor. He was a genial companion, and none knew him but to love him. He was kind-hearted, charitably disposed, loving and forgiving, and could justly claim the noble name of "Mason."

As a tribute to our departed Companion, it is my order that this memorial be read in open Chapter at the first regular Convocation after its reception; that it be spread upon the Chapter book of records, and that the altar and jewels be draped in mourning for sixty days thereafter.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Grand Chapter this 1st day of July, A. D., 1920, A. I. 2450.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN PHILIP MELVIN,
Grand High Priest.

ALABAMA MASONIC HOME.

On June 1st I issued the following letter in reference to the Alabama Masonic Home and am glad to state that the response was generous.

Companion George H. Thigpen, Superintendent of the Home, reports that the donations received by him from the Royal Arch Chapters amounted to $1,121.33.

JURISDICTION OF THE
GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER OF ALABAMA
JOHN PHILIP MELVIN, GRAND HIGH PRIEST.

Tuscaloosa, Alabama, June 1, 1920.

To the High Priests, Kings, Scribes and Companions of the Subordinate Chapters of Alabama:

COMPANIONS: At this time when the Chapters of our jurisdiction are in the most prosperous condition in their history and good fortune is smiling upon our Order, our members increasing and treasury swelling, we are apt to think only of our prosperous condition and to be forgetful of those upon whom adversity has fallen.

To help the weak, comfort their sorrow and lend our aid to their misfortunes, is a duty we are taught in all our degrees.

In our Masonic Home are worthy brethren for whom the burdens of life have been too heavy and with their loved ones have fallen under their weighty loads. There are widows whose husbands, and little children whose fathers, were our brothers and now alone and helpless they look to us for comfort and support.

The Home needs your assistance. The demands upon it are increasing and they must be met. I ask that this be read at your Annual Convocation, that you remember your obligations and think of the weak and feeble brethren, the lonely and destitute widows, the many helpless little children for whom we are caring; and then every Companion contribute as much as he can to this most worthy cause.

Send all contributions to Companion George H. Thigpen, Superintendent of the Masonic Home, Box 475, Montgomery, Alabama.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN PHILIP MELVIN,
Grand High Priest.

MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

On May 28th at the Masonic Temple in the City of Montgomery, I attended a meeting of the Gulf Division of the Masonic Service Association at which were present M.·. W.·. Brother George L. Schoonover of Amamosa, Iowa, the President of the Association, and Representatives from Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia and Alabama.

The purposes of this Association as I understand it are similar to that expressed in a resolution introduced at our last annual convocation by Past Grand High Priest John H. McCormick, when in accordance with said resolution, a committee was appointed of which he is the Chairman and I would suggest that this committee work in conjunction with the committee to be appointed by the M.·. W.·. Grand Master, Percy B. Dixon, of the Grand Lodge.

GEORGE WASHINGTON NATIONAL MASONIC MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

February 23rd and 24th I attended the annual meeting of George Washington National Masonic Memorial Association at Alexandria, Virginia, at which were present Grand Secretary George A. Beauchamp and Past Grand Master Robert S. Teague, representing the Grand Lodge, Grand Commander John V. Falck, representing the Grand Commandery and Past Grand High Priest Lawrence H. Lee, the Secretary of the Association.

Nearly all of the Grand Jurisdictions were represented and much interest is being manifested in this great and glorious undertaking. Reports show that a considerable amount of money has already been received by the Treasurer and at this meeting steps were taken by quite a number of jurisdictions represented for the organizations of committees for the purpose of raising funds that in the very near future the building may be started and when finished, will serve as archives for the priceless Washington relics and I doubt not that some future time will become a great National Masonic headquarters.

We were entertained by the Brethren of Alexandria in characteristic Virginia style, nothing being left undone for the comfort and entertainment of the visitors, and I consider it one of the greatest privileges to have attended and had the pleasure of representing this Grand Chapter.

FRATERNAL COURTESIES.

Requests were made by several Chapters to have the Chapter degrees conferred as a courtesy by subordinate Chapters in sister Grand Jurisdictions upon candidates who had been elected in their respective Chapters but were unable to do so on account of their removal to other states. The official request was made through the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priests of the several jurisdictions where the sojourning brother was located and in each instance the request was promptly and cordially granted and for which I hereby tender our fraternal thanks for these courtesies. The requests were as follows:

May 4, 1920. From Mineral City Chapter No. 101, Birmingham, for Brother John B. Bethea, Jr., by Union Chapter No. 7, New London, Conn.

May 19, 1920. From Anniston Chapter No. 105, Anniston, for Brother Christopher Bell, by a Chapter at Bremerton, Washington.

July 8, 1920. From Dothan Chapter No. 113, Dothan, for Brother Leo Russ, by Walton Chapter No. 37, Defuniak Springs, Florida.

August 17, 1920. From Tuscaloosa Chapter No. 1, Tuscaloosa, for Brother Swan J. Burnett, Jr., by Norfolk United Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, Norfolk, Virginia.

August 27, 1920. From Dothan Chapter No. 113, Dothan, for Brother Claude R. Hilliard, by Albany Chapter No. 15, Albany, Georgia.

September 7, 1920. From Ensley Chapter No. 120, for Brother Russell L. Jenkins, by a Chapter in Atlanta, Georgia.

September 22, 1920. From Lineville Chapter No. 150, for Brother Thomas Baron Gibson, by King Solomon Chapter, Louisville, Ky.

September 23, 1920. From James Penn Chapter No. 144, Jacksonville, for Brother E. H. Posey, by Norfolk United Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, Norfolk, Virginia.

November 12, 1920. From Mineral City Chapter No. 101, Birmingham, for Brother Graves D. Hudson, by Fresno Chapter No. 69, Fresno, California.

November 13, 1920. From Charles Wheelock Chapter No. 158, Birmingham, for Brother John O. Hamilton, by Long Beach Chapter No. 84, Long Beach, California.

I received the following requests from other Grand Jurisdictions for our subordinate Chapters to confer degrees for them upon brethren who were at the present time sojourning in this jurisdiction, which requests were promptly and willingly granted.

February 19, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Indiana, that Mineral City Chapter No. 101 confer degrees upon Brother John Duncan Wright, Jr., for LaFayette Chapter No. 3, LaFayette, Ind.

March 12, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Florida, that Mobile Chapter No. 21 confer degrees upon Brother George J. Gerhardt, for Jacksonville Chapter No. 12, Jacksonville, Fla.

March 20, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of New York, that Mobile Chapter No. 21 confer degrees upon Brother Duncan A. Stewart, for Americus Chapter No. 215, Brooklyn, N. Y.

May 26, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Georgia, that Eunomia Chapter No. 5 confer degrees upon Brother J. W. Denney, for Mt. Horeb Chapter No. 155, Atlanta, Ga.

July 31, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Georgia, that Cyrus Chapter No. 6 confer degrees upon Brother P. A. Partee, for Rome Chapter No. 26, Rome, Ga.

October 5, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Ohio, that Mineral City Chapter No. 101 confer degrees upon Brother Harry J. Douce, for Warren Chapter No. 6, Newark, Ohio.

November 26, 1920, from the Grand Chapter of Georgia, that Montgomery Chapter No. 22 confer degrees upon Brother H. J. Greene, for A. M. Wolihin Chapter No. 104, Macon, Ga.

DECISIONS.

There have been but few questions presented to me, all of which have been easily adjusted by referring to the constitution, by-laws, edicts and decisions found in the Grand Chapter manual.

GRAND SENTINEL.

Our Grand Sentinel, Excellent Companion William H. Cooper, having had his business headquarters moved from Montgomery, Alabama, to Atlanta, Georgia, and being prevented thereby from attending the Grand Chapter, I have appointed Excellent Companion Archibald L. R. Thompson to serve as Grand Sentinel during this Convocation of the Grand Chapter.

CONCLUSION.

In looking back through the list of illustrious companions who have occupied this high office I realize my feebleness in comparison with them, but that this record year in our history is due to the desire for more light on the part of the Brethren and the zeal and fidelity of the officers and Companions of the subordinate chapters.

And now as I retire from the highest office in the gift of the Grand Chapter I want to assure you of my appreciation of the honor conferred upon me and that I will be found ready and willing at all times to promote the interests of Capitular Masonry.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN PHILIP MELVIN,
Grand High Priest.

REPORT OF COMMITTEEE ON GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S ADDRESS.

Most Excellent Companion Charles R. Bricken, Chairman of the Committee on the Grand High Priest's Address, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

Your committee to whom was referred the annual address of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. To our Most Excellent Companion John Philip Melvin, M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest, we desire to acclaim for and on behalf of the entire Grand Jurisdiction: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

This merited encomium is manifest by the splendid condition of Capitular Masonry in this jurisdiction. Your committee feels assured that the most gratifying status of the fraternity, and its unprecedented growth during the past capitular year, is largely due to the untiring efforts and unselfish service of this Most Excellent Companion and his co-workers; and it affords us pleasure to add that his every official act has met with the unqualified and cordial approval of this committee.

2. Under the authority vested in this committee, we hereby refer to the following committees portions of the address as follows:

(a) To the Committee on Dispensations; those portions of the address relating to dispensations generally, including the dispensations for new chapters and for the reorganization of old chapters.

(b) To the Committee on Necrology, so much of the report as relates to our fraternal dead.

(c) To the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence, that portion of the address relating to decisions.

(d) We commend most highly the action of the M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest in issuing the appeal in behalf of the Masonic Home. It is needless to say, that this institution is the pride of every Mason and is the admiration of the entire State, and every effort in behalf thereof is considered and properly deemed a labor of love upon the part of all of us.

(e) The portion of the address relating to the "Masonic Service Association" is referred to the Committee on Finance. This reference is deemed advisable, due to the fact that it involves the expenditure of the funds of this Grand Chapter.

All of which is fraternally submitted,

CHARLES R. BRICKEN,
JOSEPH DIXON MATLOCK,
ROBERT S. TEAGUE,
Committee.

NEAR EAST RELIEF.

Most Excellent Companion Charles R. Bricken offered the following preamble and resolutions, and, on motion, the preamble was adopted and the resolutions concurred in, with the exception of paragraph five of latter, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Whereas: A most desperate and deplorable condition exists today in Asia Minor, due to the cruelties and persecutions of the Christian peoples of that region on the part of the Turks, the chief sufferers being the Armenians, who have been most frightfully decimated as a result of the oppression of their enemies:

Whereas: The rescue of the people of Armenia from complete extinction is being accomplished in a large measure by the relief in various forms which has been extended to them by the people of America through the service of the Near East Relief, an organization incorporated by an act of Congress, which is feeding the starving, sheltering the homeless, caring for the sick, the widows and the orphans, stimulating the industries and agriculture, and in many other ways is assisting in the repatriation, rehabilitation and re-establishment of the suffering dependent people of the Near East;

Whereas: It is estimated that between fifty and sixty per cent of the women and children now in the Turkish harems, held there against their own will, are the wives, daughters and sisters of Masons;

Resolved: therefore, by the Royal Arch Masons, Grand Chapter at Montgomery, Alabama, November 30, 1920.

1. That we express our deepest and truest sympathy with the people of Armenia in their sufferings and sorrows;

2. That we protest most emphatically and solemnly against the evident purpose of the Turks to annihilate the Armenian nation, and express the hope that our own government will urge and insist that the Republic of Armenia be given a square and fair chance for its life;

3. That we endorse most heartily the work of the Near East Relief and pledge it our active co-operation and generous support in its efforts to succor and sustain the Armenian people until they are able to accomplish economic self-support and national independence;

4. That we commend this worthy cause as represented by the Near East Relief to the liberality of our own people and to that of the American public generally.

5. That this Grand Chapter hereby appropriate one hundred dollars to this cause.

MASONRY AND AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP.

Most Excellent Companion John H. McCormick, Chairman of the Committee appointed at the last Annual Convocation to present a plan of procedure whereby the principles of Masonry and of American citizenship shall be more thoroughly and efficiently translated into national life, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

Your Committee appointed at the last Annual Convocation, charged with the duty of presenting to this Grand Chapter a plan of procedure whereby the principles of Masonry and of American citizenship shall be more thoroughly and efficiently translated into National life in order to promote the welfare and safety and perpetuity of our Republic, beg leave to report:

If these principles shall have the effect above set forth, they themselves must be preceded by something else without which they are of little or no force. Observe, we are men before we are Masons or Americans, and the kind of Masons or Americans we become, depends upon the kind of men we are, and the kind of men we are depends, humanly speaking, upon two things—self-control and self-government. First, we must hold in subjection, through force of will and strength of mind, our natural appetites and passions lest they get the dominion over us and we be swept away into moral ruin. Next, we must govern ourselves in the gratification of these appetites and passions, which are neither wrong in themselves, nor hurtful, unless unlawfully indulged in, or carried to excess. We are to consider the principles of Masonry and American citizenship—yes, but remember, however sublime these principles may be, they are utterly valueless unless they are translated into our life, conduct and character. They are not self-moved, self-operative. We must lay hold upon them and deal with them earnestly, diligently and wisely if they are to help us at all. Their possession simply is of no value whatever. They must be active and alive, and manifest themselves in the shape of deeds, which means service for others, as well as our own self development—must be incorporated into National life, if they are to contribute to the welfare and perpetuity of our Republic.

The Committee urges upon each Mason his duty, earnestly and constantly to strive to exemplify in his life the principles taught him at our sacred altar, bidding him let his light shine, and be loyal, industrious and upright, while striving to promote every movement which tends to the upbuilding of good order, liberty and sobriety. In so doing, he is building up Americanism, as well as Masonry. It has been truly said "The truth for us to remember at all times, and especially in these times is the truth that the hope of a nation is not in its form of government, nor in the wisdom and equity of its executive, nor in the justice and purity of its administration, so much as in the elevation and redemption of individual character among its people." Let us understand that the principles of Masonry and Americanism will contribute little toward the safety and perpetuity of our country save as we apply them in the spirit of earnestness, in the spirit of consecration, in the spirit of patriotism, to our country's need. Further, we may well apply to ourselves, lest we be destroyed by self-confidence and indifference, the words of warning addressed by Disraeli to England, "Though we were greater than Venice, or than Tyre, if we are not faithful to our ideal as a nation, our glory shall fade like the Tyrean dies and crumble like the Venetian palaces."

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that each Chapter in the State resolve itself into groups to consist of from five to twelve members, as may be determined by the Chapter, the group to be appointed by the High Priest, and charged with the following duties:

Group 1.—This group shall make a careful scrutiny of, and call attention to, any false ideals, or un-American teachings contained in any text book used in the Public Schools within the jurisdiction of that Chapter and report the same to the High Priest.

Group 2.—It shall be the duty of group 2 to endeavor to see that efficient teachers only are employed in our schools; to encourage the payment of adequate salaries to such teachers; to strive to have the teachers instruct our children concerning the genius of American institutions, teaching them loyalty to country and to God.

Group 3.—It shall be the duty of group 3 to ascertain what children in the community are out of school and why, and if because of the need of books or proper clothing, to bring this matter to the attention of their Lodges and Chapters that it may be remedied as far as possible, and each child given an equal opportunity.

It shall be the duty of all the groups to ascertain who are Americans and who are not; to encourage men to return to the Church of their faith and to relight the fires upon the home altars, that we may again gather about the common shrine of an American home.

The above is a suggestion as to the work to be done, and the local Chapters may create other groups for purposes not herein mentioned.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN H. MCCORMICK,
STEWART MCQUEEN,
JOSEPH DIXON MATLOCK,
LAWRENCE H. LEE,
JAMES EDWARD SEARCY,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY.

Right Excellent Companion Stewart McQueen, Chairman of the Committee on Necrology, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

It is, indeed a commendable quality in man to think kindly and tenderly of the dead and to cherish their memory. Our former companions who have gone hence and are no more seen, once worked with us in behalf of Capitular Masonry. While here on earth, they, with us, aspired to the higher and nobler things in life and to draw nearer to the Source of all life. They, with us, sought to make the world a little better for having lived in it. Let us trust that they practiced, as faithfully as weak human nature would allow, the virtues of charity and brotherly love. Their labors have now ended. They have entered, in the other world, into that place which they made for themselves by the lives they lived in this world. We rejoice for all that was good and praiseworthy in their lives.

In the midst of life we are ever in the presence of death, the rustle of the wings of the Angel of Death is constantly heard as he bears away one after another of our Companions from our mortal sight; therefore, it behooves us to face the stern reality of death as we move hither and thither amidst our daily affairs, and prepare for that dread hour when we shall give account for the deeds done in the flesh.

But, we face the inevitable not with feelings of gloom or of cringing fear. We know that to those who love God, the truth that He does all things well, comes as a sustaining force amid the trials of life.

In paying this tribute to the dead we recall those true words:

"Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle-day is past;
Now upon the further shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servants sleeping."

"Earth to earth and dust to dust,
Calmly now the words we say,
Left behind we wait in trust
For the resurrection day.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servants sleeping."

Fraternally submitted,

STEWART MCQUEEN,
LEONIDAS W. KOLB,
HORACE J. SALTER,

"Can storied urn or animated bust
Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath?
Can honor's voice provoke the silent dust,
Or flattery soothe the dull cold ear of death?"

a May, 1823.

b January, 1824. Regular annual convocation, and at the same time henceforward until otherwise noted.

c June; there being no convocation in January, the Grand Chapter being declared irregular by the General Grand Chapter, it was therefore re-organized in June, 1827, and a new constitution adopted.

d December. At this time annual convocations were changed to July.

e July; in accordance with previous order, and at the same time henceforward until otherwise noted.

f No election, the Grand Chapter having "adjourned" on the evening of July 14th, until the next evening; but it did not convene again, the members having dispersed.

g There had been no convocation of the Grand Chapter for upwards of seven years, in consequence, perhaps, of the Morgan excitement. In December, 1837, a few companions assembled in Tuscaloosa and reorganized by the adoption of a constitution, and the election of Grand Officers. The constitution of 1827 was adopted, and the annual convocations fixed for December.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

BY

LAWRENCE H. LEE

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

Herewith I submit for your consideration the annual review of the doings of other Grand Jurisdictions, as set forth below.

Many things interesting to a student of Masonry, in the sense of instituting comparisons as to procedure, have tempted the writer, but expense of publication, and the want of time, have caused their omission.

On the whole it must be said that Royal Arch Masonry is pretty well abreast of the times, and is giving to men that something that the experiences of the past five years has caused them to seek. In no other way can the great accessions to its ranks be rationally accounted for.

I have had the pleasure of reading and reviewing the following proceedings:

Alberta	1920	Illinois	1919
Arizona	1920	Indiana	1919
Arkansas	1919	Iowa	1919
British Columbia	1919-20	Kansas	1920
California	1920	Kentucky	1919
Canada	1920	Louisiana	1920
Colorado	1920	Maine	1920
Connecticutt	1920	Maryland	1919
Delaware	1920	Massachusetts	1919
District of Columbia	1920	Michigan	1919
England	1919-20	Minnesota	1919
Florida	1920	Mississippi	1920
Georgia	1920	Missouri	1920
Idaho	1919	Nebraska	1919

Nevada	1920	Pennsylvania	1919
New Brunswick	1919	Quebec	1920
New Hampshire	1920	Rhode Island	1919
New Jersey	1920	South Dakota	1920
New Mexico	1920	Tennessee	1920

ALBERTA, 1920.

SIXTH ANNUAL, CALGARY, MARCH 10TH-11TH, 1920.

Chapters, 21; membership, 2,577; net gain, 333.

Aside from the twenty-one chartered chapters, there were three working U. D., all of which were represented except No. 6. All the Grand Officers were present, three Grand Representatives and four Past Grand First Principals. What about Second Principals?

The Grand Z was a year ahead of the Grand Scribe E, and welcomed all to the Seventh Annual Convocation. He did it nicely and submitted an interesting report of the year's work.

He constituted one chapter, consecrating and constituting another. He made many visitations in his own Grand Jurisdiction, and two to foreign jurisdictions; issued eighteen dispensations to install out of time, instituted three chapters U. D. and made no decisions that are reported.

While visiting the Grand Jurisdiction of Montana he was inducted into the Order of High Priesthood, and we note that it bore fruit, for we find him as M.·. E.·. President of the Council, in its first Annual Convention, at which time thirty-seven excellent companions were anointed, consecrated and set apart in due form.

Grand Z. recommended recognition of the new Grand Chapters of British Columbia and Queensland, but the former only was extended recognition, the Committee desiring further information as to Queensland.

New districts, as recommended, were created, and a committee appointed to fix upon some definite object to be undertaken by Grand Chapter, as recommended.

The report on correspondence is after what is known as the "topical plan," and good work of Past Grand Z., S. Y. Taylor.

Many things of interest and information are set forth. He especially stresses our willingness to admit wooden heads, but our unwillingness to admit wooden legs. He does not approve and ventures the advice that we depart from this ancient custom. Alabama has done so.

M.·. E.·. Norman T. Macleod, Grand Z.

R.·. E.·. John E. Johnson, Grand Scribe E.

ARIZONA, 1920.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL, PHOENIX, FEBRUARY 11TH, 1920

Chapters, 10; membership, 1,013; net gain, 99.

Four of the minor Grand Officers were supplied, and Grand Chapter opened in Ample Form by Grand High Priest Frederick Peter Cruise. Eleven Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand King, one Past Grand Scribe, the representatives and Past High Priests of the ten chapters, together with twenty-six Grand Representatives, made up Grand Chapter. Alabama was not represented.

The address of the Grand High Priest was short and business-like, dealing with the matters of his office. He advises additional time for the work of Grand Chapter.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was accorded recognition.

Grand Chapter voted a life membership in the George Washington National Memorial Association.

Grand Chapter changed its meeting time to Wednesday noon, following the meeting of the Grand Lodge and in the same city.

Other matters transacted were routine.

Seven companions were found to be entitled to receive the Order of High Priesthood, and were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart thereto.

No report on correspondence.

M.·. E.·. Edwin Alvin Hughes, G. H. P.

R.·. E.·. George J. Roskruge, Grand Secretary.

ARKANSAS, 1919.

SEVENTIETH ANNUAL, LITTLE ROCK, NOVEMBER 20TH, 1919.

Chapters, 85; membership, 5,426; net gain, 334.

Excellent Companion Fielding W. Harris did the honors for Alabama. Fifty-two other Grand Jurisdictions were represented also. The record so far as this writer has observed.

All the Grand Officers, ten Past Grand Officers and the representatives of fifty-eight chapters were present, and constituted the Grand Chapter.

The address of the Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. David I. Mills, was a lengthy one, reporting the business of his office, and making many valuable comments on Capitular Masonry in Arkansas, as well as generally.

Four charters were arrested, and he truly says:

"A dormant Chapter in a community is a greater detriment to R. A. Masonry than its absence would be; and the sooner it is put to work, or its charter arrested, the better for all concerned."

The pruning knife ought to be used more frequently than it is, here and elsewhere.

M.·. E.·. Fay Hempstead started the ball to rolling by introducing M.·. E.·. Companion Charles N. Rix, General Grand King, and he returned the compliment by introducing M.·. E.·. Companion Fay Hempstead twice—once as Deputy Grand Master of the General Grand Council and also as Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Arkansas. The Grand Master of Masons was also introduced.

These Companions were accorded the honors due their distinguished positions, and given the glad hand for their personal worth.

Grand Chapter declined to adopt the constitution and rituals of the General Grand Chapter.

Three applications to institute as many Chapters U. D. were referred to committee and we find no further mention of them.

The Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer, each submitted interesting reports. From them we gather the information that things are looking up in a Capitular way in Arkansas.

If there is any report of the Council of High Priests this writer could not find it, although he looked long and intimately.

The report on correspondence is by Companion John Q. Wolf, his first one, and judging from the list of committees, his last one. It is an interesting document, and argues well for the future, if permitted, or he desired, to continue. Alabama has fraternal consideration, along with fifty other Grand Jurisdictions.

M.·. E.·. Edgar A. McCulloch, G. H. Priest.

R.·. E.·. John C. Bone, Grand Secretary.

BRITISH COLUMBIA, 1919-1920.

Second Annual, Vancouver, June 3rd, 1920.

Chapters, 17; membership, 1,742.

The first issue of the proceedings of this new Grand Chapter read like there are old heads and hands at the helm.

Judging from the record given of the Grand First Principal, M.·. E.·. Comp. Harry H. Watson, he is well fitted to conduct affairs, and this is fortified fully by a review of his work for the year—the first year of Grand Chapter.

In his address he gives us a succinct history of the formation of the Grand Body. He proceeded according to the views this writer expressed in the matter of the recognition of Alberta, when it was first requested. He went to the Grand Chapter to which the subordinate chapters owed allegiance, and petitioned for permission and authority to form and organize the Grand Royal Arch

Chapter of British Columbia, which was not only readily granted, but was accompanied with a substantial donation and official recognition.

Thus all reason for withholding recognition by other Grand Chapters was removed.

A miracle was wrought in getting Victoria Chapter No. 1 to sever allegiance with Scotland, from which it had its charter, and join in the formation of the new Grand Chapter. General Grand Chapter might make a note of this and engage the services of M.·. E.·. Comp. Watson in bringing about a settlement of a dispute of long standing.

Victoria demanded a price and got it, and the debt was fully met, so all is serene.

The work of Grand Chapter, aside from the historical, was routine. Comp. Watson warned against a constitution that attempts to interfere with the supreme government of the Craft by the Grand Z. between meetings.

The reports of the Grand Superintendents of Districts indicate a very healthful condition of affairs in the various subordinate chapters.

Financially and numerically Grand Chapter has nothing of which to complain. The Grand Scribe E. seems eminently fitted to attend to the secretarial department.

A constitution was adopted, but does not appear in the proceedings.

The report on Correspondence is by Grand Scribe E., R.·. E.·. Comp. J. W. Prescott, and does credit to his head and heart. He writes as if quite accustomed to the work of reviewing, and we welcome him cordially to our exchange table.

His review of Alabama, 1919, is pleasing and careful, as is his review about ten other Grand Bodies. He gives us an excerpt of Canada's action in recognizing and assisting British Columbia.

We will watch with interest his entry into the lists of the knights of the pencil, or typewriter.

M.·. E.·. E. B. Paul, Grand Z.

R.·. E.·. J. W. Prestcott, Grand Scribe E.

CALIFORNIA, 1920.

SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL, SAN FRANCISCO, APRIL 20TH AND 21ST, 1920

Chapters, 109; membership, 15,214; net gain, 1,001.

The recapitulation of the Committee on Credentials is as follows:

Present: All of the Grand Officers, nine Past Grand High Priests, thirty-two Grand Representatives of other Grand Chapters near the Grand Chapter of California, ten survivors of the earthquake and fire of April 18th, 1906, who were in attendance at Grand Chapter and present on the morning session of that date, the Representatives of ninety-five chartered Chapters, delegates from Exeter and Healdsburg Chapters under dispensation, and eighty-two Past High Priests not otherwise accounted for.

If a suggestion is permissible, will the committee, if it has the time, please try to account for the loose Past High Priests next time. It gives one an uncomfortable feeling to think of eighty-two Past High Priests unaccounted for in the many-sided city of San Francisco.

Alabama was present at court in the presence of a son of a native son of Alabama, Past Grand High Priest, Thomas Ochtreigh Heydenfeldt.

The R.·. E.·. Grand King of the Grand Holy Royal Arch Chapter of Pennsylvania was present, and was received with due honor, only the Grand High Priest neglected to give the full name of his Grand Chapter. Or perhaps the Grand Secretary believes in conservation of paper and printer's ink.

For the fourteenth time the survivors of the earthquake and fire of 1906 were called to the altar, and given the Grand Honors.

On May 10th, 1919, Past Grand High Priest William M. Petrie passed from the body to the spirit kingdom and loving tribute was paid to his memory.

Grand High Priest Elmer H. McGowan adopted a very pleasing departure from the usual form of address. He gives his views of things, his decisions (four in number), his statistical review and his concluding remarks; and all the tedious details of routine he submits as addenda, which may or may not be read, as one chooses.

Eleven amendments to by-laws were submitted to him for his approval; nine dispensations were granted for various purposes, but none to confer degrees out of time. He also reports interstate and intrastate courtesies.

The Grand Lecturer submitted an excellent report. He appears to have the appointment of the District Deputies, and the writer is not so sure that this is not the best plan. He is certainly in a position to know who are best qualified for these positions.

California seems to be having the same trouble that afflicts some of the Alabama chapters. Note this from the Grand Lecturer:

> I am under the necessity of again admonishing the officers and especially the High Priests of Chapters, that none other than the prescribed work of the several degrees can be tolerated, and that the work must be rendered as laid down in the ritual under which we are now operating. We cannot permit "horse-play" nor allow our candidates to be made the butt for jokes. Our ritualistic ceremonies are aimed to, and should be educating, elevating and uplifting—not degrading or humiliating, nor used as a means of creating hilarity for the members; they are designed to teach sublime moral truths, and in the practice thereof the utmost decorum must be maintained at all times.

The two chapters U. D. were granted charters. Two chapters were consolidated, taking the name and number of the older chapter.

The Sixty-first Annual Grand Convention of the Anointed High Priests was opened in solemn form, and its business conducted, after which forty-seven Companions were found qualified, and were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy office.

The report on correspondence is submitted by E.·. Companion Hugh K. McKevitt, the chairman. It follows the topical form, and consists largely of excerpts upon certain subjects of interest to the reviewer, and while interesting and instructive enough, does not lend itself readily to review.

It is easy to clip and paste a head line over it, but if it suits California, this writer is content.

M.·. E.·. Harry Maundrell, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Thomas A. Davies, Grand Secretary.

CANADA, 1920.

SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL, TORONTO, FEBRUARY 25TH, 1920.

Chapters, 151; membership, 20,624; net gain, 220.

Notwithstanding the loss of 14 chapters and more than 1,400 members to the new Grand Chapter of British Columbia, Canada Grand Chapter shows a net gain in membership.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized in a fraternal and material way, the Grand Chapter of Canada donating the sum of One Thousand Dollars to assist it in setting up housekeeping.

The representatives of ninety-two chapters were present and participating. Alabama was represented in the person of R.·. E.·. Comp. William Rea, and twenty-six other Grand Jurisdictions participated in the receptions tendered their Grand Representatives. There are always a large number of Grand officers in all Grand Chapters, following the English and Scotch custom. This is clearly demonstrated when it appears that sixteen Grand officers occupied their several stations, and that the stations of fifteen were occupied by "pro tems."

Grand Superintendents to the number of ten were in attendance.

The Grand Z., M.·. E.·. Comp. W. N. Pouton delivered an able address, full of good things for the craft in Canada, and worthy of reproduction for the craft everywhere. This passage deserves repetition everywhere:

> It is the Mission and Ministry of Capitular Masonry—first to maintain harmony and cohesion in the household of the faithful—with benevolence—the practical good will of friendship—adding its fine flavour thereto—but also and beyond that circumference and horizon—yet working from the same centre—to serve humanity—and especially our own blessed British Country to which we owe allegiance, to make and keep her a land of settled Government, to restore and straighten the paths to dwell in—to efface the scars of the ruthless war—to build bridges over which confidence may return, and to link up in the ties of brotherhood and conciliate elements which appear discordant and selfish, by preaching, teaching and exemplifying the great altruistic maxim of man's interdependence—"all for each and each for all," in our human intercourse and relationships.

He believes that where we have a friend tried and true, we should induce him to come on up from the Blue Lodge to the summit of our Royal Art.

He rendered no decisions that he deemed necessary to record, and granted some dispensations that he felt were justified by the circumstances—none, however, to hurry up candidates.

The reports of the Grand Superintendents of the various districts make most interesting reading. It is remarkable to note that 94% of the officers of the subordinate chapters are able to confer all of the degrees. No wonder Canada holds her own, and more, and gives to the Capitular world a new Grand Chapter now and then.

The sum of $2,030.00 was expended in benevolence by Grand Chapter during the year. The benevolences by subordinate chapters amounted to $6,319.00.

M.·. E.·. Comp. Donald Frazer Macwatt, Past Grand Z., passed on during the year. He was a Scotchman without guile, and as the writer recalls his administration as Grand Z., a fighter for what he thought was right. Peace to his ashes.

Many matters of routine were transacted, but are not here mentioned.

Companion Edward B. Brown submits his fifth annnual review of the Grand Chapters, reviewing exhaustively fifty-eight. His reviews are always entertaining and instructive.

Alabama gets an extensive review, and one to greatly please the members of the Craft. He is especially kind to the administration of M.·. E.·. Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese.

Speaking of the Home he is disappointed that no greater sum was given. That matter has been remedied by a per capita gift of 25c, amounting this year to something over $2,400.00.

Thanks for the kind words anent ye scribe.

M.·. E.·. W. N. Ponton, Grand Z.

R.·. E.·. Henry T. Smith, Grand Scribe E.

COLORADO, 1920.

FORTY-SIXTH ANNUAL, DENVER, SEPTEMBER 23RD, 1920.

Chapters, 48; membership, 7,192; net gain, 593.

In addition to the constituent chapters noted above, two were working U. D. and their membership is included in the total.

The report of the Committee on Credentials shows the presence of all the Grand Officers, except the Grand Treasurer, seventeen Past Grand High Priests, one Past Deputy Grand High Priest, representatives from all the constituent, and the Grand Representatives of thirty-seven Grand Jurisdictions. Alabama was present in the person of M.·. E.·. Comp. Tyler D. Heiskell.

"Old Glory" was received and given the Grand Honors.

With very little of introduction and less of conclusions, the Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. Marshall H. Van Fleet, jumps into the matters passing through his office and having his official sanction. Comp. Foster will have to impress upon him that he was "'padding."

He properly opposes the revision of the work as suggested by General Grand Chapter, and also opposes the proposed change in its constitution. Grand Chapter agreed with him in each instance.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was extended recognition and an exchange of Fraternal Representatives.

Other matters of interest to the craft in Colorado were transacted, but being of a purely local nature, are not here recorded.

The Grand Council Order of High Priesthood was held at the same place and time. Thirty-one companions were deemed worthy and well qualified, and were set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, together with one who had been previously elected. Acting President Zwetow delivered an address very much out of the ordinary. His conclusion is that story of and arguments on creation are unsatisfactory, and that each must read the prophets and decide for himself.

On the whole the address appears more materialistic than spiritual, although the writer has no quarrel with some of the propositions stated.

The review is the same excellent work of the veteran M.·. E.·. Comp. Foster. It is his thirty-third, and instead of being, as he suggests, stale, it is refreshing and instructive.

His review of Alabama, 1919, is complete and fraternal.

He reviews in the same way all others coming under his ken.

May he live to prepare as many more.

M.·. E.·. Mark B. Gill, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Charles H. Jacobson, Grand Secretary.

CONNECTICUT, 1920.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL, HARTFORD, MAY 11, 1920.

Chapters, 40; membership 11,593; net gain, 778.

All the Grand Officers, except Grand Chaplain R.·. E.·. I. Newton Phillips, and Grand Master of 1st Veil, E.·. J. J. Barthel, who had passed beyond the veils of our earthly tabernacle during the year, were present when Grand Chapter convened.

Thirteen Past Grand High Priests, the members of the Standing and Special Committees, together with the representatives of thirty-eight subordinate chapters, made up the personnel of the Grand Body.

Twenty-nine Grand Jurisdictions were present by Grand Representatives, Alabama being represented in the person of M.·. E.·. Eugene A. Hall.

The annual address of Grand High Priest E. F. Sweeney is devoted entirely to matters of an official nature, being largely composed of reports of visitations to his own and other Grand Jurisdictions, Masonic courtesies received and extended, and dispensations, other than those to ballot out of time and confer degrees. These were requested but refused.

He held that the loss of a leg rendered one ineligible to the Chapter degrees, although such person was equipped with an artificial limb. He says the substitution of an artificial limb does not "heal" the defect, and points to the law of the "Symbolic Degrees". Here was his chance to get away from the foolish "physical defect" rule, not availed of.

His other decisions are in accordance with Capitular law, although the enforcement of the first decision, that each team of three must be put through the veils separately, and separately exalted, is more often "honored in its breach," than in its observance in this Grand Jurisdiction. Relative to the Masonic Home, he says: "Every branch of Masonry is interested in its welfare, and should consider it a pleasure rather than a duty to contribute to its support."

The Deputy Grand High Priest, the Grand King and Grand Scribe rendered reports of their visits to the Chapters assigned to them, and from these reports we judge the chapters are doing good work. The highest percentage of attendance reported is 50% and the lowest .07%, the average being about 15%. The chapter given the highest average has 885 members.

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia received recognition.

Other matters of a routine nature were transacted.

The annual convention of Anointed High Priests was held at the same place as the Grand Chapter and on the same days.

Twenty companions were certified to possess the requisite qualifications, and were duly elected, and anointed and set apart to the "Holy Order."

It was voted to purchase and forward to each a copy of the "Book of the Law." Companion Beauchamp has this on hand always for each companion before his consecration.

Past Grand High Priest and present Grand Secretary, our friend George A. Kies, submits his twelfth report on Correspondence.

His vanity (we did not know he possessed such) is flattered by his failure to be discharged from this service. Well, we rather suspect that the discharging and appointing power knows a thing or two, and one of those things may be that he knows a good correspondent when he sees one.

Alabama 1919—Grand High Priest J. D. Matlock—has kindly courteous review, as does all the other Grand Jurisdictions, except Scotland, that reached his table.

He is violently opposed to the change in the constitution of General Grand Chapter, and wants every one to keep their weather eye open to the dangers.

This scribe is of the same mind. The recovery was ample, and complete, but we thank you for the kind wish just the same.

M.·. E.·. Henry R. Tisdale, Grand High Priest.

M .·.E.·. George A Kies, Grand Secretary.

DELAWARE, 1920.

FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL, WILMINGTON, JANUARY 21ST, 1920.

Chapters, 4; membership, 1,760; net gain, 230.

In comparison to number of members and chapters the Grand Chapter of Delaware has more past Grand Officers than any other Grand Chapter. The report of the Committee on Credentials, under head of permanent members, shows 20 Past Grand High Priests, 6 Past Deputy Grand High Priests, 13 Past Grand Kings, 14 Past Grand Scribes, 6 Past Grand Treasurers, and 4 Past Grand Chaplains. A considerable number of these permanent members were present, together with the representatives and Past High Priests of the four subordinate chapters, and all the Grand Officers, when Grand Chapter was opened.

Distinguished visitors from Pennsylvania and New Jersey were presented and received with the Grand Honors.

Grand High Priest W. Frank Sharp submitted his annual report, dealing exclusively with the matters coming to him officially.

He notes with sorrow the passing of Past Grand King John B. Fisher, Past Grand Chaplain W. Steward Allmond, Past Grand Treasurer John B. Book, and twenty-four companions of the Grand Jurisdiction. He also submits a list of the dead in other Grand Jurisdictions.

No decisions were asked for, notwithstanding the great volume of work done in the subordinate chapters.

The other matters noted were courtesy work, dispensations, courtesies received, and visits to subordinate chapters and other Grand Jurisdictions.

He says the dream of several Grand High Priests have been realized in the establishment of a chapter in Dover, the capital of the State.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was accorded recognition and an exchange of Grand Representatives.

Thirty-five Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions were in attendance, Alabama being present in the person of R.·. E.·. J. Grant Wilkins.

The Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood met and consecrated, anointed and set apart five competent companions to the Holy Order.

Routine business was also transacted. R.·. E.·. Companion Thomas J. Day submitted his fourth annual report on correspondence, reviewing in a most acceptable manner, forty-seven Grand Jurisdictions, some for two years.

Alabama receives cordial and fraternal review. Of our method (recent) of opening Grand Chapter he says naively: "Which is quite different from our practice."

M.·. E.·. George L. Dickerson, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Stuart J. Horn, Grand Secretary.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, 1920.

FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL, WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 11TH, 1920.

Chapters, 13; membership, 4,456; net gain, 659.

For the first time in several years, each subordinate showed a net gain in membership. The total net gain was greater than ever before recorded. To celebrate this achievement the Past High Priest's Association of the District had a "Royal Arch Celebration" and degrees were conferred for the various Chapters having candidates, at which 50 candidates received the M. M. degree, 74 the P. M., 75 the M. E. M. and 135 the R. A. Degree. At that they sat down to dinner at 6 o'clock and afterwards staged an entertainment at the Auditorium. Either the degrees were given wholesale, or the ritual is very much shortened in the District.

The Roster of Grand Officers shows all present, but the proceedings give an account of the excuse the Grand King rendered for his failure to attend.

All the subordinate chapters were numerously represented. Nine Past Grand High Priests were present, as were the representatives of twenty-nine Grand Jurisdictions. E.·. Comp. Abram S. McCoy was present for Alabama.

The portrait of the Grand High Priest, M .·.E.·. E. M. Carter is that of a handsome man in the very prime of life.

His address treats of the affairs of his office, with particular stress upon the "Masonic and Eastern Star Home" and the Washington Masonic National Memorial Association."

Being within the small circle of the District the Grand High Priest was enabled to visit all his chapters, some several times.

The Committee to which his address was referred say that "they consider it a privilege to have had the opportunity to review this concise and business-like report, and to extend to him sincere and hearty congratulations on behalf of Grand Chapter.

The constituent chapters, through the High Priests Association, presented the Grand High Priest with a chest of silver, and R.·. E.·. Comp. Johnston gravely remarks "which was accepted by the latter."

A Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held February 14, at which time routine business was transacted, and thirteen candidates were elected to receive the Order.

A convention for conferring the Order was called for March 19, at which time six were consecrated, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

Roe Fulkerson, having arrived in the Grand Council, proceeds to write his tenth and last report on correspondence. But as he tells it much better than any one else could, we quote his opening and concluding remarks.

Here is the beginning:

> For the tenth time we pick up Alabama knowing we cannot stop this side of Wyoming. We are looking forward to a lot of war talk and reconstruction speculation. We are old enough to recall when a member of the G. A. R. was a heroic figure, then when he was considered a "blamed old nuisance," and later when he became the white-haired symbol of patriotism. We expect to read a lot of honor rolls and later expect to see the A. E. F. also become an annoyance to politicians and office-seekers, but unfortunately will not be here when these husky boys come back into their own as white-haired heroes after having been chastened by the characteristic ingratitude of all republics.

It has always been our disposition to sit before work and speculate, but the years have taught us that speculation butters no parsnips and that one task done is better than the finest resolution to be industrious.

And this is the finale:

Lend us your ear, lean close and listen, for here singeth the swan song of Roe Fulkerson, correspondence reporter. Here he drops the editorial "we" and says a long farewell to all his greatness.

Once in my callow youth I was invited to meet a girl who said to the boy friend who was to bring me that she understood I "absolutely scintillated." He took me and repeated the remark en route, then at every opportunity during the evening he would says sotto voce, "Scintillate, damn you! Scintillate!" It was the saddest evening of my life. A day or two ago one of you companions at the Round Table called me a "humorist." I'm through!

For ten years I have gone the rounds of the capitular world and I am all in. It is getting to be work. Sheridan said that "easy writing is damned hard reading," but I insist that he was wrong. Hard writing is hard reading and I feel that I would better quit while the quitting is good.

Regretting to get out of the game, losing the society and friendship of the other players at the Round Table, I am cashing in. I have lost my whole stack of ideas and this fellow here beside me is Most Excellent Companion William W. Jermane, a Past Grand Master, a Past Grand High Priest, a newspaper man of wide experience and a blamed good fellow; give him a stack and let him sit in in my place.

Companions, Billy Jermane; Billy, the knights of the goose quill and sitters at the Round Table! Time!

ROE FULKERSON.

And in between he reviews most entertainingly forty-eight Grand Jurisdictions, six for two years. He is kind, but facetious in his review of Alabama.

Well, of course we will give Billy a stack and a cordial welcome to sit in, but always with the hope that when Roe has wearied of his honors, he may be persuaded to sit back with the old stack.

M.·. E.·. Frank F. Majors, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Arvine W. Johnston, Grand Secretary.

ENGLAND, 1919-1920.

It is not possible from the quarterly pamphlets issued, to get any information as to the number of chapters, membership and gains. The Committee of General Purposes handles most of the affairs of Grand Chapter and their reports and motions constitute the bulk of the business transacted.

Judging from these reports the Grand Chapter, and its constituent chapters, are moving forward in a dignified, orderly way to the accomplishment of their purposes. Educational and charity work seem to be the principle efforts, and they are systematically carried forward in war as well as in peace.

The system is so very different from the American form that it excites much interest in the mind of the writer, but it is difficult to follow in a review.

The Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons, with its attached Royal Ark Mariner Lodges, is of equal interest, but as difficult to properly review. They also do constructive educational and charity work, going about it in a gravely systematic way. We were curious to note that an honor award was made as to the boys being educated, but the committee said they made no recommendation as to the girls. It is usually the other way round, the girls outstripping the boys in matters of that nature.

FLORIDA, 1920.

Chapters, 41; membership, 4,499; net gain, 1,139.

The Grand Secretary might have made it 4,500, even, but possibly he is like our Grand Secretary—can no more lie than can figures.

The Grand Chaplain was called out of the State upon the "Kings Business," otherwise the roster of Grand Officers was complete. Thirty-three constituted chapters and two U. D. were represented. Fifteen Past Grand High Priests were present to add dignity and wisdom to the Convocation.

Alabama was most creditably represented by Grand Scribe R. J. Kishpaugh, while thirty-four other Grand Jurisdictions had their representatives present.

The Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction A. & A. S. R. was in session at Colorado Springs, Colo., at the same time as the Grand Chapter, and a telegram of good wishes for a harmonious and constructive convocation was received, signed by members of the Supreme Council who are Past Grand High Priests. The signers were Olin S. Wright, George Fleming Moore, Samuel F. Cochran and A. L. Fitzgerald—the first Past Grand High Priest of Florida, the next of Alabama, the next of Texas and the last of Nevada.

The passing of Past Grand High Priest James W. Boyd is noted with sorrow.

The Grand High Priest, W. V. Carter, submitted a report of the doings of his office.

Under the head of "Work by Courtesy" he notes the signing of warrants Nos. 1 to 31 inclusive, amounting to $3,010.75.

Four chapters were instituted U. D. and each received a charter from Grand Chapter. It is noted that the Committee, in recommending charters, also named the first three officers for the year. Our rule is to issue the charter to those appearing upon the dispensation, and then the chartered chapter, as soon thereafter as may be, elects its own officers, who hold office as such until the next annual meeting of the Chapter and until their successors are elected and installed. Probably the same rule applies in Florida, and the writer does not catch the meaning of the committee.

The committee also declined to name a chapter for a person then in being. This is a very wise rule.

A life membership in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association was taken.

The Masonic Home received in cash and bonds the sum of $1,000.00.

Grand Chapter unanimously declined to adopt the Revised Ritual of General Grand Chapter, and instructed its representatives to vote against the proposed amendments to General Grand Chapter constitution.

A special convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held in the City of Key West, November 17, 1919, and one companion was consecrated and set apart to the Holy Office. Another was held at Plant City, February 9, 1920, and four companions were consecrated to the Holy Office. The Annual Convention met at same time and place as Grand Chapter, and transacted routine business. Eleven companions were found qualified, and were duly anointed as High Priests.

Companion Hubbell submitted his fourth report on Correspondence, which, together with his "Comments" make entertaining and instructive reading. His review of Alabama 1919 is especially pleasing and full.

GEORGIA, 1920.

NINETY-EIGHTH ANNUAL, MACON, APRIL 28TH, 1920.

Chapters, 156; membership, 15,122; net gain, 3,225.

The volume is smaller than usual but contains much of interest and pleasure to peruse.

The year in Georgia, as elsewhere, has been a busy one, marking unusual gains in membership and forward steps in light and knowledge.

The address of the Grand High Priest, M .·.E.·. Comp. Andrew S. Harvey, after a full account of his official acts, closes with a splendid and timely exhortation to the Craft to carry into the active service of their community, state, nation and church the great principles of liberty, equality and fraternity. Although space is precious, and but few of the Companions read the report of the reviewers, the writer is tempted to reproduce in full his concluding remarks.

He made many visitations and assisted in the degree work; rendered five decisions, which met the approval of the Grand Chapter; issued an unusual number of dispensations to hurry up candidates; constituted three chapters and started others U. D. He recommended a stenographer (all time) for the Grand Secretary, a more adequate inspection of Chapters, the adoption of Grand Chapter ritual, the celebration of Grand Chapter Centenary. He speaks eloquently for the Masonic Home, and the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.

The committees were harmonious and so far as can be ascertained from the proceedings, there arose no occasion for a verbal scrap, in which our Companions of Georgia were wont to delight in.

The absence of Past Grand High Priest Henry Banks was noted with regret. Since that time the illness that then detained him, has claimed his earthly body, while the best of him has gone to refreshment and joy upon the higher spiritual planes. Joe Greenfield has also surrendered the gavel here, and gone on to higher things. Truly Georgia has been called upon to surrender two of her distinguished and much beloved Masonic characters and splendid citizens.

Thirty-five petitions for the Order of High Priesthood were received and favorably acted upon, and the Companions were separately introduced, and anointed and set apart to the Holy Office.

Grand Master Charles L. Bass wrote his usual fine and instructive report on Correspondence. He reviews forty-three Grand Jurisdictions, some for two years.

He is most generous to Alabama 1918, quoting liberally from the address of Grand High Priest Henry Reese. He especially approves his stand upon profanity, as must all right-thinking men, especially if they be Masons.

His kind words anent the writer are greatly appreciated.

The Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer were both absent, and it was found necessary to supply their places with pro tempore officers.

The other Grand Officers were in their stations, two Past Grand High Priests, the Representatives of seventeen subordinate chapters, and some unattached Past High Priests constituted the Grand Convocation. The roll of Grand Representatives was called, but those present are not noted.

M.·. E.·. Albert A. Jessup, Grand High Priest, submitted his message in good form. The introduction was the longest part of it, the business of the office not having been very heavy. Because of the prevalence of the "flu," it was necessary to issue several "emergency dispensations" to elect and install officers.

Two questions were answered in the matter of decisions; one chapter was started U. D., and a few other matters of purely local interest were reported.

The Grand Secretary reporting on his visit to General Grand Chapter, takes occasion to hand Conover a few bouquets, and incidentally to explain his absence from Grand Chapter.

The Grand Lecturer had no call for his services during the year, and so he also makes his report a resume of his visit to General Grand Chapter.

This volume contains the very shortest report on Necrology this writer has ever seen. Am inclined to think there is much virtue in its brevity.

Hereafter the Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions near Idaho must send a short report to the Grand Jurisdictions they represent, as well as file a copy of it with the Grand Secretary of Idaho. Not a bad idea, at all.

When the time for closing came there was something of a love feast and talk fest about a Masonic Charities Fund, and the matter went to a committee to report at next Annual.

The Correspondence Report is the excellent work of E.·. Comp. Edward L. Gauger. He begins by taking a fall out of Past Grand High Priest Frank E. Bullard, for saying that Royal Arch Masonry exercises no good in the world. This occurred in his report on Correspondence, and so the reply is put in the same place. It makes good reading, and the writer hopes that Comp. Bullard comes back, for no doubt everybody will get information from the scrap.

His review of Alabama 1918, is cordial, and complimentary to Grand High Priest Reese.

M.·. E.·. William Wallin, Grand High Priest.

ILLINOIS, 1919

SEVENTIETH ANNUAL, CHICAGO, OCTOBER 30TH, 1919.

Chapters, 217; membership, 52,463; net gain, 4,071.

The Deputy Grand High Priest was the only Grand Officer absent when Grand Chapter convened in the Grand Ball Room of the LaSalle Hotel. Seventeen Past Grand High Priests were in attendance. Just how many Chapters were represented does not appear. The Grand Representatives of thirty-four Grand Chapters were present and cordially received and welcomed. Alabama was fittingly present in the person of E.·. Comp. Adolph G. Voss. Twenty-seven District Inspectors were also present.

"Distinguished guests" in the person of their own Charles C. Davis, General Grand Royal Arch Captain of the General Grand Chapter was received with honors due his exalted station.

The address of the Grand High Priest William C. Sommer doubtless sounded fine to the Companions of Illinois. Beginning with the Mexican war, he reviews all the wars since that date and including the World War that the Grand Chapter of Illinois has witnessed, as a young giant, but without telling us just what part the giant played, and then states that it is the foremost Grand Chapter in the world. We hope so, but as we have neither the figures nor Capitular history of the personnel of several other Grand Chapters before us, we can neither affirm nor deny. Like Companion Foster, of Colorado, we feel that there may be others.

After all we have no objection to Illinois having the largest numbers of members, or a great personnel, or the purest ritual, or the most perfect work, if it will not hide its light in the Grand Ball Room, but will carry it to its more pagan neighbors, or the neophite within its own borders.

He pays proper tribute to the memory of Past Grand High Priests Monroe C. Crawford and William L. Milligan, who had "carried on" during the year. He attended two receptions given in his honor; constituted one chapter and installed officers; attended four schools of instruction (five were held); granted and received many interchanges of courtesy relative to degree work; commissioned two new Grand Lecturers, appointed several District Inspectors and several Grand Representatives, and calls it a busy year.

The District Inspectors filed reports showing a fine spirit and good work in the subordinate chapters in their Districts.

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia was accorded Fraternal Recognition and an exchange of representatives.

The Grand Examiners furnished a detailed report of the schools of instruction and the attendance of Chapter and Grand Officers, which was smaller than in past years.

The Grand Chaplain delivered the oration. The Grand Secretary says: "Comp. Rogers spoke as follows:" From this we do not know whether the speech was furnished written or whether it was taken down by short hand. In any event, it was liberally punctured by parentheses (applause) (great applause) and the like. We are not surprised, for it reads more like a political speech, or a camp meeting sermon, than a Royal Arch address. There was an official stenographer present, for a resolution of earnest thanks was at once dictated.

The M.·. E.·. President of the Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood delivered his annual address to the sixty-fifth Annual Convention, whereupon he asked to be excused from further service, and his request was granted.

Fifty-five companions were found to possess the requisite qualifications and all, except two absentees, were received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Office.

We miss Companion Warvelle's wise and spicy remarks, but have read with pleasure and profit the effort of Past Grand High Priest E. R. Turnbull. His methods and mentality are different from what we have been accustomed to have from Illinois, but both are good, and he will receive a cordial welcome to our ranks.

He reviews all the chapter proceedings reaching his desk, and notes those not received.

Alabama 1919 has careful and fraternal notice.

M.·. E.·. Frank Spencer, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. J. E. Jeffers, Grand Secretary.

INDIANA, 1919.

SEVENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL, INDIANAPOLIS, OCTOBER 22ND, 1919.

Chapters, 124; membership, 22,550; net gain, 872.

All the Grand Officers, except the Grand Masters of Veils, are recorded as present, together with seventeen Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of one hundred and sixteen of the subordinate, and thirty-four Grand Representatives.

Alabama was ably present in the person of M.·. E.·. Comp. Alvin G. Tillotson. Their own Leon Leach, General Grand Master of the 3rd Veil was there, and it took four of Grand Chapter's best to present him to the Grand Body. A Past Grand High Priest of New York and General Grand Master of the General Grand Council of U. S., was present in the person of George A. Newell. He was under the escort of Henry W. Mordhurst, and was received with due honor.

Grand High Priest William W. Ross devoted himself, in his annual address, largely to the matters of an official nature. The "flu" had interfered considerably with the work of the year, and had taken a full toll from the Chapter ranks. Two Past Grand High Priests are recorded as having "carried on" during the year. They were M.·. E.·. Companions Manuel M. Fisher and William H. Hamelle. Appropriate and eloquent memorials were spread upon the records. Quite a number of Grand Representatives were commissioned and recommended for commissions. Alabama's Grand Representatives to and from the Grand Jurisdiction of Indiana were recommissioned. Very few special or other dispensations were issued; many by-laws of subordinate chapters were approved, and two chapters constituted by proxy. The jewel of the Grand King was stolen and replaced by Grand Chapter. Four lines are devoted to the Washington Memorial Association and eight to their Masonic Home, while eight are given to the honor conferred upon the Grand High Priest in being commissioned to constitute a Blue Lodge. Grand High Priest speaks of the celebration of the Centenary celebration of Madison Chapter No. 1, and the Grand Secretary prints further on an historical address on the occasion of the celebration of its seventy-fifth anniversary. Either the Grand High Priest is premature, or the printing of the address very much delayed. The date given is July 14, 1919, so the address is behind, but there was some question of its legality, and it was dormant for thirteen years during the anti-Masonic crusade of the early part of the century. It was constituted by the Grand Chapter of Indiana, Dec. 25, 1845. So both are right.

Grand Chapter has $15,392.00 in its strong box, notwithstanding it entertained General Grand Chapter a few years back, memories of which still linger delightfully with the writer.

Grand Secretary Prather submitted his usually interesting and accurate report.

Grand Inspector made an extended report covering nearly every subordinate Chapter. It appears that the subordinate chapter officers have heretofore been styled "Most Excellent," and finding no authority for the same, he recommends that the ritual be changed to "Excellent". He gives number stated and special convocations during the year; number present at each; dues, membership, number of recorded marks, and condition of equipment and records. Some funny situations are disclosed, reminding one the Masonic human nature is very much alike in the various Grand Jurisdictions. The degrees fee was raised from twenty to thirty dollars, as a minimum.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was extended recognition, and exchange of Grand Representatives.

Other matters of routine were transacted.

The Honor Roll covers 32 pages double column, showing that Grand Chapter did its full duty to its country in time of stress.

M.·. E.·. President John J. Glendenning, of the Council of Anointed High Priests delivered an interesting address at the opening, covering the history of the Order; and then set apart to the Holy Order forty-five Companions found to possess the requisite qualifications.

Past Grand Master Robert Archer Wood submitted his ninth annual Capitular review, in his usual clear and vigorous style.

He omits all references to receptions of representatives, jewel presentations, distinguished guests, and dissertations on war and peace.

Alabama 1918, administration of Past Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, has courteous treatment, and its salient features are briefly stated, with occasional criticism of too much railroading, or hippodroming of candidates. One must of necessity agree that he is right, but the practice seems to have come to stay. The only remedy apparent is to change constitutions to legalize the habit of practice.

M.·. E.·. Fred H. Pocock, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Calvin W. Prather, Grand Secretary.

IOWA, 1919.

Sixty-Sixth Annual, Cedar Falls, October 9th, 1919.

Chapters, 126; membership, 16,813; net gain, 525.

Eighty-six chapters were represented. All Grand Officers and Eleven Past Grand High Priests were present. The Custodians and Assistant Custodians of the work and the Grand Representatives of forty Grand Jurisdictions were also in attendance. Alabama was not represented.

The Honor Roll is printed in the fore part of the proceedings and covers nine and a half closely printed pages.

Distinguished visitors were present and were received and welcomed cum laude.

Grand High Priest Eugene Shaffter delivered a rather lengthy address, as addresses go, but a very good one. His opening remarks had to do with the war and conditions following the great conflict. He takes the proper view of Masonry's duties in the reconstruction period. The death of Past Grand High Priests Homer H. Hemenway and Isaac T. Forbes was announced, and eloquent tribute paid to the works and worth as men and Masons.

Influenza interfered seriously with the meetings of the subordinate Chapters, and caused quite a number of requests for dispensations for the election and installation of officers, all of which were granted, and are set forth in extenso in the address. Commissions to Grand Representatives were issued and requested.

Many requests for Masonic courtesies were asked and received, but it does not appear whether they were granted.

The Ritual of General Grand Chapter, when adopted by General Grand, becomes ipso facto the Ritual of Iowa. Therefore, there was general distribution of the new ritual and it was exemplified by Grand Chapter.

Quite a number of decisions were rendered, all of which received the O. K. of Jurisprudence Committee and Grand Chapter, except No. 2. To our mind the Grand High Priest made the more equitable disposition of the matter.

Application was made for dimit that ought to have been acted upon by the Chapter at its regular December Convocation. The meeting was interdicted because of the "flu" and the chaplain at its January meeting granted dimit as of its December meeting. He held this proper, and that the Companion applying for the dimit did not have to pay the 1919 dues. Jurisprudence committee disagreed, and required the chapter to collect 1919 dues before granting dimit.

It is noted that a person with an artificial left hand is not eligible because not capable of complying strictly with the ritual.

In its great progress in other directions, it is regrettable that Iowa should still be willing to admit wooden heads, but not cork hands.

He made several visits to Chapters and attended several meetings of the Custodians while holding schools of instruction. He questioned the advisability of making donation to the Y. M. C. A. for war work, but finally did so. In this connection he brings up the criticisms aimed at the war work of this Association.

It seems patent that this criticism was the result of consistent and persistent propaganda of the Knights of Columbus, carried on through means of the money furnished them by protestant America, and to call attention to their great organization, and to the "Glory of Mother Church."

Possibly if he had read the denunciation of the Y. M. C. A. recently uttered by the Pope, he would have turned at once to the root of the complaints lodged against the Y. M. C. A. The propaganda is still going on, and is being extended to gaining control of the Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls, and the placing in the Public Schools of the country Catholic teachers, whose whole duty is to break down in the mind of the child reverence for American institutions and American ideals.

Other matters transacted were of purely local interest.

The Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held at the same time, and thirty-two Companions, petitioned for, were found qualified and were duly set apart to the Holy Office. The Excellent President submitted another of his interesting and instructing addresses.

Past Grand High Priest Edward M. Willard, gives us a very interesting introduction, and careful and courteous review of fifty-two Grand Jurisdictions.

Alabama 1917 and 1918, the administrations of Past Grand High Priests McCormick and Reese has extended and careful consideration at his hands. He quotes from the address of each.

M.·. E.·. Charles C. Hunt, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Orvis F. Graves, Grand Secretary.

KANSAS, 1920.

Fifty-Fifth Annual, Topeka, March 16th, 1920.

Chapters, 91; membership, 13,460; net gain, 1,301.

The Committee on Credentials report the presence of all the Grand Officers, fourteen Past Grand High Priests, seventy-two Past High Priests (not otherwise accounted for), one hundred and thirty Chapter Representatives from seventy-two Chapters, leaving nineteen unrepresented.

Thirty-eight Grand Jurisdictions had Grand Representatives present, Alabama not being among the number. As usual there were distinguished visitors present. Kansas keeps them on hand.

M.·. E.·. Companion John A. Ferrell, Grand High Priest, delivered an interesting, and as to arrangement, rather unusual address. This scribe likes his methods very much.

The death of Past Grand High Priest George C. Kenyon is recorded and tribute paid to his life and conduct.

Among the dispensations issued by him was one to ballot out of time and confer degrees. For this he required a fee totalling $32.00. This would prove a deterrant to some of our Chapters which make a habit of conferring many degrees at one convocation, and its adoption in this Grand Jurisdiction might help to encourage proper methods.

Under the title of "Domestic Relations" he treats of all acts performed relative to subordinate Chapters, and the complaints that have arisen. He made several visitations, and came to the conclusion, embodied in his report, that closer supervision was needed. Not when called for, but when not called for; not for a day, but for several days. He therefore recommends a Grand Lecturer, who is an expert ritualist, and familiar with Capitular law, custom and usage.

It does not appear what, if anything, was done with this suggestion.

Among other recommendations that received approval, was the one that the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence be paid $250.00 per annum, instead of $75.00. Additional appropriation for the Grand Secretary's clerical force was also advised and granted.

The question of "pilgrimages" for the purpose of conferring the preliminary Chapter degrees was left to the sound discretion of the Grand High Priest, after proper application made and on condition that the work be done in a Masonic Hall. Other matters of interest to the Companions of Kansas transpired, and seem to have had careful consideration and proper action.

The new Ritual of General Grand Chapter failed of adoption, as seems also to have been the fate of the report of the Committee on the revision of the Kansas ritual.

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia was given recognition, but further time was requested as to Queensland. Kansas does not have a "Grand Principal Sojourner," or at least fails to mention such an officer. Possibly there are none blind in Kansas.

Forty-one Companions were found worthy and well qualified to receive the Holy Order of High Priesthood, and were duly set apart thereto at the annual meeting of the "Most Excellent Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood of Kansas." The Grand High Priest is also M.·. E.·. President of the Council.

The Correspondence report is the work of R.·. E.·. Albert K. Wilson, also Grand Secretary. His review is brief, but comprehensive, and usually without comment.

Alabama 1918, administration of Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, receives cordial notice.

KENTUCKY, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED AND SECOND ANNUAL, LOUISVILLE, OCTOBER 21ST, 1919

Chapters, 106; membership, 11,726; net gain, 1,335.

All the Grand Officers, seventeen Past Grand High Priests, a number of Past High Priests, the representatives of one hundred chartered Chapters, and three U. D. composed the Grand Body.

No mention is made of Grand Representatives present.

M.·. E.·. Companion S. S. Pinney, Grand High Priest, had an interesting report to make to the Companions assembled, but of purely local interest.

His first official act was to install the Grand Secretary. Next he issued his inspection appointments and statement, according to Congressional Districts.

He refers to Grand Chapter ritual without recommendation. Grand Chapter did not adopt it, but appointed a Committee to consider it and report later. He revived one Chapter and organized three under dispensation, all of which Grand Chapter chartered.

He made several rulings that met the approval of the Jurisprudence Committee and of Grand Chapter. The other matters treated by him were peculiar to Kentucky, and are not noted.

Grand High Priest was absent from the State for a period and the Deputy Grand High Priest submitted a short report of his acts in the mean time.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized.

The report of the Educational Committee was of interest. Good constructive work is being done with the educational fund of Grand Chapter.

The Jurisprudence Committee advised that Grand Chapter could not create permanent life members, but could create honorary members. Thus the Assistant Grand Secretary could not be made a permanent member of Grand Chapter.

No mention is made of the Order of High Priesthood.

Past Grand High Priest W. W. Clarke gives a very short review of the "doings of" twenty-nine Grand Chapters. He begins with California and concludes with the observation that "The proceedings present nothing requiring comment here, except the proposed new constitution of General Grand Chapter, which can wait."

We cordially return your salute, and hope to read a more extended review at your hands another time.

M.·. E.·. Sam K. Veach, Grand High Priest.

LOUISIANA, 1920.

SEVENTY-THIRD ANNUAL, NEW ORLEANS, FEBRUARY 3RD, 1920.

47 Chapters; membership, 5,020; net gain, 461.

The proceedings are short, and of purely local interest.

Grand Body was composed of a full quota of Grand Officers, nine Past Grand High Priests, a number of Past High Priests and the representatives of thirty-five chapters.

Twenty-eight Grand Representatives were present, but Alabama was not among the number.

Grand High Priest, W. M. Washburn made most of his visits by proxy, but from reports received, he is sure that the Craft is in good condition and harmonious.

He records the passing of Past Grand High Priest Gus D. Levy, recounting the tragic event and paying fitting tribute to a great soul.

He recommends the adoption of General Grand Chapter ritual and the amendments to General Grand Chapter Constitution. The Committee on Work agreed with him as to the ritual, but the matter of the Constitution went over to the 1921 Annual.

Two Chapters were granted dispensation, and later chartered by Grand Chapter.

Grand Chapter agreed to assist Grand Commandery to entertain the Grand Encampment, and made an annual appropriation therefor.

The Grand Secretary repeats on the second day the names of those attending as on the first day.

The M.·. E.·. Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its convention on February 3 and transacted the business and then elected, anointed and set apart to the Holy Office ten qualified Companioins.

The further Past Grand High Priest Herman C. Duncan, Grand Correspondent, goes, the shorter his reports grow. He submits his twenty-fifth report, and covers not less than three Grand Jurisdictions to the page. Alabama 1918, Alberta, Arizona, Arkansas and California take up the first half and full page. Some of them have but two or three lines. Hope he does not get too much confused as to the next Alabama proceeding he reviews. All officers, whether Grand or subordinate were made elective, my dear Companion.

He notes that we ask him to identify Alabama's Grand Representative. The reason is that we note him recorded among the representatives as M.·. E.·. and have not noted his presence. Another reason is that the scribe was a college mate of a "King" of New Iberia and the initials sound familiar. But never mind.

M.·. E.·. John W. Armstrong, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. John A. Davilla, Grand Secretary.

MAINE, 1920.

Ninety-Fifth Annual, Portland, May 4th, 1920.

Chapters, 65; membership, 12,660; net gain, 1,214.

The credentials report discloses the presence of all the Grand Officers, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, two Past Deputy Grand High Priests, three Past Grand Kings, eight Past Grand Scribes and the representatives of fifty-seven subordinate Chapters. Forty-two Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama being conspicuous by the absence of its representative, E.·. Comp. Charles E. Sleeper.

The passing of Past Grand High Priest Manly G. Trask, Past Deputy Grand High Priest Judson E. Dunbar, Past Grand King Herbert Harris, and Past Grand Scribes, James H. Witherell and Geo. W. McClain, also of Past Grand High Priest Clifford J. Patten, the Junior Past Grand High Priest. Memorials were separately presented by their Companions of Grand Chapter, as well as by the Committee on Necrology.

Grand High Priest, Samuel B. Furbish, notes with satisfaction the success numerically and otherwise of the subordinate Chapters during the year.

Several dispensations were granted Chapters to make pilgrimages to lodge rooms within their respective jurisdictions, to confer the preliminary degrees, and others to elect and install officers. Several to railroad candidates were refused. He made two decisions, each of which seemed good Capitular law, and had the approval of Grand Chapter.

He inspected officially the Chapters he assigned to himself, and had reports from the members of the Grand Council and the District Deputy Grand High Priests showing that all the Chapters, with but few exceptions, had been inspected.

From the report of the Grand Lecturer we note that it is not his duty to speak of the work done by any Lodge or Chapter outside of a Lodge of instruction. However, he was pleased to testify to the excellency of same as shown by some "Fram."

Thirty-seven applied for the Order of High Priesthood, and thirty-eight were received, and anointed. Other matters of a routine nature transpired.

Past Grand High Priest Thomas H. Bodge, after officiating in several other capacities in Grand Chapter, submitted the report on Correspondence. As is usual it makes instructive reading. Alabama is placed last in the review, because it came just prior to the closing. The proceedings reviewed are those of the year 1919. Grand High Priest Matlock is quoted approvingly. Of course a Chapter Mason may petition for affiliation anywhere and any time, but questions of that character will be asked and must be answered.

The trouble with us has been that Chapters versed in the ritual, but having seen "stunts" in other organizations, will some times, for the gratification of those who appreciate a little fun more than they do symbolism, try to improve upon the ritual by introducing "stunts." We are trying to cut out the stunts.

MARYLAND, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL, BALTIMORE, NOV. 20, 1919

Chapters, 24; membership, 5,590; net gain, 823.

The Maryland Masons are a distinguished looking lot of Companions, and are shown on good paper, with excellent likenesses. This volume contains two such pictures, that of out-going Grand High Priest Oliver C. Warehime, and incoming Grand High Priest Charles C. Homer, Jr. The latter we know to be as fine and distinguished as he looks, and the non-rebuttable presumption is that the former is also. His address proves it. He is most earnest in his views and efforts to promote the welfare of the Craft. He suggests many things for consideration, some of which met approval of Grand Chapter, and others were not approved.

A resolution was passed authorizing collective balloting, and in case of a negative vote, separation of the ballot. This has been the custom in Alabama for some time past, and has proven reasonably satisfactory.

In a nice way, Grand Chapter turned down the General Grand Chapter revised ritual, determining to stand by the ritual so long in use in Maryland. This seems well enough, as it is not generally wise to allow too much tampering with the ritual, and this writer seriously questions the ability of the Ritual Committee of General Grand to make improvements, unless in the narrative of the P. S.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized, and an exchange of Grand Representatives authorized. There was only one pro tem Grand Officer, the Grand Master of 3rd Veil, Seven Past Grand High Priests were present. Twenty-three Chapters were represented, and many Past Grand High Priests, not Grand or Past Grand Officers, were listed. Alabama was present in the personage of Past Grand High Priest, now Grand Secretary, Gustav A. Eitel. Twenty-four other Grand Jurisdictions were represented.

The death toll was heavy, claiming Grand Secretary John H. Miller, and Past Grand High Priests William H. Martin, James F. Allen and Edward R. Trippe.

R.·. E.·. Comp. Charles P. Morningstar was appointed Grand Secretary, and then elected, but had to decline because of press of personal business.

Maryland also suffered a great loss in the resignation of R.·. E.·. Comp. Warren Seipp as Grand Lecturer. His services had been of exceptional value, and his personality and efficiency rendered him a great power for good to the Craft. The writer can testify fully to his ability, winning personality and devotion to all things Masonic.

The ninety-fifth Annual Convocation of the "Council of M.·. E.·. High Priests of Maryland" was held Nov. 20th, 1919, at Baltimore.

Fourteen elected High Priests were anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, which being certified to Grand Chapter, they were duly installed.

Rev. Henry Branch, D. D., for the Committee, submits the report on Correspondence. His is a brief and concise review of the matters seeming to him to be of general interest.

Alabama 1918, administration of Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, was under review, and has courteous and fraternal treatment. If Masonry may not do educational work, and pave the way for its wider promulgation, what else is in its purview?

M.·. E.·. Charles C. Homer, Jr., Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Gustav A. Eitel, Grand Secretary.

MASSACHUSETTS, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL, BOSTON, DECEMBER 9, 1919.

Chapters, 83; membership, 28,037; net gain, 1,212.

The Quarterly Convocations leave little for consideration of the Annual Convocation, so it seems necessary, in order to present a comprehensive review, to mention the matters of interest transpiring at the quarterly convocations.

The first Quarterly was held March 11th, 1919, with a fine attendance of Grand Officers and permanent members. Forty-eight Chapters were represented, installation of officers not present at the last Annual was had, after the adoption of the minutes as printed. The other matters considered were reports of Committees, the Committee on Grand High Priest's Address holding the boards, principally.

The General Grand Chapter Constitutional Amendments were referred to Committee to carefully consider and report to Grand Chapter.

In the absence of sufficient revenue for expenses of Grand Chapter, it was found necessary to add a per capita tax of .10.

The next Quarterly convened June 10, 1919, with about the same representation present. A charter was granted Mt. Wallaston Chapter.

The third Quarterly was held September 9th, 1919, with a good attendance of Grand Officers, permanent members and representatives of Chapters. A charter was granted Vineyard Chapter. Alabama's Grand Representative R.·. E.·. William B. Lawrence, who had been present at all Convocations, reported the death of Past Grand High Priest John G. Smith, of Alabama.

A Special Convocation was held September 29, 1919, to constitute Mt. Wallaston Chapter, and one held October 16, 1919, to constitute Vineyard Chapter.

The Annual Convocation was had December 9, 1919, with all the Grand Officers, a large number of permanent members and the representatives of sixty-one subordinate Chapters. The work and lectures of the degrees were then gone into and fully exemplified.

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia received recognition.

Distinguished visitors were given cordial and fraternal welcome, cum laude.

Grand High Priest John J. Van Valkenburgh read his annual address, setting forth in business-like array, the matters passing through his official hands.

Among other good things therein contained, the following is especially commended to the whole Craft: "An increased membership is not so much to be desired as an increased interest and activity in performing the duties incumbent on us as Royal Arch Masons."

The Massachusetts Convention of High Priests met March 11, 1919, and after transacting routine business and listening to a good address from its President, M.·. E.·. Warren B. Ellis, proceeded to anoint, set apart, and consecrate thirty-nine Companions as "High Priests of the Order of Melchizedek."

The Capitular Review is by Past Grand High Priest and present Grand Secretary Frederick T. Comee, and is as good as can be, taking into consideration the fact the Grand Secretaries run somewhat to statistics and revenue.

Alabama 1918 has careful consideration. He refers to a peculiar form of opening, but there is very little at variance with the Massachusetts methods.

His reports are always interesting and often very instructive.

M.·. E.·. John J. Van Valkenburgh, Grand High Priest.

M.·. E.·. Frederick T. Comee, Grand Secretary.

A deep black line occupies the space where the name of the Deputy Grand High Priest should appear, and later on it is recorded that he passed the Veils about a month prior to the Annual Convocation. Otherwise the roster of Grand Officers was complete.

Twelve Past Grand High Priests were in attendance, and the representatives of one hundred and forty-five subordinate chapters.

Distinguished visitors headed by General Grand High Priest Craig were received in ample form and due honors.

From the address of the Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. George W. Leedle, we learn of the passing of Grand High Priest Charles Norton.

Seven Chapters were instituted during the year, and were chartered by Grand Chapter.

From the space devoted to visitations he must have made numerous calls, seen much work and had a royal good time.

He recommended that every Companion be required to pass a rigid examination on the pass words and grips of each degree before being permitted to pass to the succeeding degree, but we fail to find where Grand Chapter took any action thereon.

He granted a good many special dispensations.

The benevolent fund shows an increase, with small expenditures.

The 59th Annual Convocation of the Grand Council of Anointed High Priests met on May 19, at 4 p. m., and after transacting routine business, elected sixty-five qualified Companions as members, and they were duly introduced, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

General Grand Secretary and Grand Secretary Charles Conover has a very interesting and instructive scrap book on the origin, history and customs of "Marks."

He asked for and received information from all the Grand Chapters of the United States as to their laws and customs on this subject and gives the information in tabulated form. He quotes the regulations, touching marks, of the several Grand Jurisdictions. He also tabulates the requirements of Foreign Grand Chapters. Any one desiring information upon this subject will do well to consult this "scrap book."

The report of Credentials Committee discloses the presence of all the Grand Officers, twelve Past Grand High Priests, two Deputy Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of sixty-four subordinate Chapters.

R.·. E.·. Companion Thomas Morris represented Alabama, while thirty-one other Grand Jurisdictions had their representatives present.

The death of Past Grand High Priest Alonzo Brandenburg is recorded, with proper tribute to his memory.

Grand High Priest George M. Stowe devoted the opening remarks of his address to the war, and its results, asserting that those who come to make their home with us must be loyal to constituted authority, American institutions, and above all to the flag.

The forest fire sufferers received $250.00, at his behest, from the emergency fund of Grand Chapter, while the subordinate Chapters sent in $750.00 more to aid the cause. Horeb Chapter, at Cloquet, was destroyed by these fires, as was the city and temple, and a movement was begun to rebuild the town and rehabilitate Capitular Masonry there.

Another Chapter and its Companions suffered from a severe cyclone, and steps were taken to relieve conditions there.

One Chapter was instituted by the Grand High Priest under dispensation, and regularly chartered by Grand Chapter.

Grand High Priest properly held that the Chapter By-Laws could not be set aside by his dispensation.

The "flu" and prolonged illness in his family prevented him from making many visitations.

He makes a strong plea for the Masonic home.

British Columbia was recognized and the General Grand Chapter work and lectures were adopted.

The office of Deputy Grand High Priest was abolished.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests was opened at noon, October 14, and twenty-four Companions were found qualified and were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

M.·. E.·. Comp. Irving Todd submits the report on Correspondence. As usual it is interesting and instructive. Alabama 1918 has courteous and fraternal treatment. He thinks it unfortunate that Alabama should have adopted the General Grand Chapter regulation requiring opening in the R. A. Degree at all times, and says Minnesota tried it, but had to give it up because the Chapters rebelled. Our Chapters are most loyal to their obligations and to Grand Chapter, and obey, when it comes to their knowledge.

Minnesota Grand Chapter has adopted the work and lectures of General Grand Chapter, which carries this regulation. Wonder if the Chapters will rebel again.

M.·. E.·. Ira E. King, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. John Fishel, Grand Secretary.

Grand Secretary Frederic Gordon Speed and Past Grand High Priest Edwin J. Martin, who was also Superintendent of the Masonic Home, passed, during the year, to their reward. Both filled well their appointed places, and will be missed, greatly by all their Companions.

Past Grand High Priest Oliver L. McKay was appointed Grand Secretary, and his fine abilities and genial nature will enable him to make a splendid officer and popular Grand Secretary.

With the exception of the Grand Secretary all the Grand Officers were present. Forty-seven Chapters were represented. Twelve Past Grand High Priests and one Honorary P. G. H. P. were there to lend grace and wisdom to the gathering. Thirty-five Grand Jurisdictions had representatives present, and it is regrettable that Alabama was not so fortunate as to be one of them.

The address of the Grand High Priest was devoted to the matters coming within the purview of his office. Two new Chapters were instituted under dispensation, and Grand Chapter approved by granting each a charter.

Several dispensations were granted to ballot and confer degrees out of statutory time.

The Grand High Priest, by edict, constituted a committee to examine and report on the new ritual of General Grand Chapter. They considered that it contained some improvements, but doubted if it were worth while to adopt it, so it was not adopted.

Friars Point Chapter was revived and consolidated with Clarksdale Chapter. A good thing to do, and Alabama ought to do likewise in some cases we know about.

The Grand Lecturer submitted an instructive report as to what ought and what ought not to be done at initiations. Some of our Chapters should have it read to them.

The next meeting of Grand Chapter will be at Jackson. The time Thursday, Feb. 24th.

Nineteen Companions possessing the requisite qualifications were anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood, at the Annual Convention held Feb. 25, 1920. Other matters of routine had attention. M.·. E.·. Companion Oliver L. McKay submitted his eleventh report on Correspondence. As usual it is a most excellent review. Alabama 1918 has fraternal consideration.

Your representative near the Grand Chapter of Alabama is Leonidas W. Kolb, not Seonidas W. Kaid, and he is a most estimable and zealous Companion, proud of the fact that he represents Mississippi, and always on hand.

We note from the many other typographical errors that the fault is with the compositor and not with the reviewer.

Grand High Priest Reese comes in for deserved praise for his efforts and the excellence of his address. His address is liberally extracted.

Comp. McKay is also most kind to the writer, for which thanks, and the assurance of mutual admiration.

M.·. E.·. Martin Ball, Grand High Priest.

M.·. E.·. Oliver L. McKay, Grand Secretary.

Anticipating the real work of the Grand Convocation there was a musical program, of which, as the Grand Secretary remarks, there was evidence of appreciation.

All the Grand Officers were present when the gavel fell. The presence of sixteen Past Grand High Priests and the representatives of 100 Chapters is disclosed by the report of Credentials Committee.

Nothing is said of the Grand Representatives, except that they were assembled and welcomed, but in looking over the proceedings it appears that Alabama's Legate, M.·. E.·. David M. Wilson, was in evidence.

Distinguished visitors were received and accorded proper honors.

In a pleasing conversational style the Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Ray V. Dinslow submitted an account of his acts and doings, together with very pertinent and wise observations on many matters of general interest.

Under conditions of the Craft, he sums up the matter by saying that as a whole the Craft is in a most flourishing condition, but that there are a few Chapters "which toil not, neither do they spin," but rather keep other Chapters from toiling. Jurisdiction held by such Chapters keep many worthy aspirants from obtaining the benefits of the Royal Arch, or seeing their want of interest, worthy and well-qualified men think there must be nothing to be gained by going further. So it is every where, and the remedy is to apply the scythe, or at least the pruning hook.

He issued one dispensation for a reballot, and declined to issue others. The writer assumes that there is something in Missouri Capitular law preventing a renewal of the application, or else there would be no need of a reballot. This is a matter that should be left to regulation of subordinate Chapter by-laws.

He instituted one Chapter U. D. and it proved to be a very precocious child, and was chartered by Grand Chapter.

Quite a number of dispensations were issued to confer the degrees in other than the Chapter halls. He reports seriatim requests for courtesy made to and by himself.

In making visitations he endeavored not only to visit the Chapters, but did a wise thing in extending his official visits to the other York Rite Grand Bodies, and to the several Scottish Rite Valleys. He remarks well and wisely: "I have always believed that there should exist greater harmony between these two great Rites of Freemasonry."

He recommended the purchase by Grand Chapter of "Travelling Paraphernalia" for the M. E. M. degree, that it might be used in the smaller Chapters, which were poorly equipped for this degree, because of an idea that it was very expensive. In this recommendation the Grand Lecturer concurred, as did the Finance Committee and Grand Chapter.

This Grand Jurisdiction, as well as others, has its troubles with innovations on the Ritual. In fact, some places "communicate" the degrees. And so the work goes on that some aspiring souls may know the delights of the fez and camel's milk.

Air line jurisdiction was given an airing, with request the accessibility and routes travelled be made the test. Alabama reached that conclusion several years ago.

The "Acacia Fraternity" was highly commended, and Grand Chapters advised to become an active participant. The Order of High Priesthood was given a boost, and the Masonic Temple Association was recommended.

Following this illuminating address Grand Chapter did some constructive legislating, with the result that Capitular Masonry will continue to hold an important place in the splendid state of Missouri.

M.·. E.·. William F. Kuhn wields a wide influence in Missouri, and being a member of the Ritual Committee of General Grand Chapter, it followed that this ritual was adopted.

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia was granted recognition and an exchange of Grand Representatives.

The Annual Convention of Anointed High Priests met Tuesday evening April 27, 1920, and were regaled with a fine musical program, after which the routine business had attention. It was found fifty-two petitioning candidates were properly qualified, and they were duly presented, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

We note quite a few members marked as suspended. The assumption is that they had been suspended from lodge or Chapter.

The report on Fraternal Correspondence is the excellent work of R.·. E.·. John Henderson Miller. He gives a list of the forty largest subordinate Chapters in the United States, extracts Vice President Marshall's creed, and other matters of general interest to the Capitular world, before beginning his review proper.

Alabama did not reach him, or at least, we so assume, as it is not reviewed.

He has a method of adding "Supplementary Remarks" that are often full of meat.

M.·. E.·. Herbert W. Powers, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Robert F. Stevenson, Grand Secretary.

The fuel situation, the extreme cold weather and the annulling of passenger trains caused a number of regrets from Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers.

Three Grand Officers were pro tem, and only twenty-three Chapters were represented, but there was an interesting session nevertheless.

Grand High Priest William D. Funk devoted himself to the business of his office, going into details as to all matters.

He records the passing of Past Grand High Priest James Tyler and Grand Chapter paid fitting tribute to him.

He recommended the recognition of Grand Chapter of British Columbia, which was granted.

He filed in detail his appointment of Grand Representatives, and all exchange of courtesies.

Seven dispensations were granted to elect and install officers, and one continue work until Grand Chapter could order duplicate charter.

His rulings were all concurred in, but present no matter of especial interest to Capitular Masonry outside of Nebraska.

They seem to be having some trouble with delinquent dues of local Companions of subordinate Chapters. Grand Chapter will find it difficult to handle such a situation. If the subordinate Chapters do not handle their own members, Grand Chapter will find it difficult to do so.

The new General Grand Chapter rituals, and their promulgation, and the reading of same, caused some confusion and discussion.

Grand High Priest could find no such office as Grand Steward provided for, so he very properly declined to appoint any such. A Committee to revise and codify the laws was raised and ordered to report to next Grand Chapter.

Grand High Priest holds, and his holding was sustained, that in the M. M. and M. E. M. degrees the Principal Sojourner becomes Senior Deacon and the Royal Arch Captain Junior Deacon.

When the time came for election of officers the Deputy Grand High Priest, Alpha Morgan, arose and said that he and the other officers desired to have Past Deputy Grand High Priest George H. Thummel elected Grand High Priest, but he very gracefully declined to permit the use of his name.

Several Special Conventions of the Order of High Priesthood were held during the year to qualify High Priests elect for installation. The Annual was held on December 11th, and the usual routine was transacted, after which the Order was conferred upon fifteen qualified Companions, making eighteen in all during the year.

Upon recommendation of the Grand High Priest no report on correspondence was filed and none published. There was some change as to the method of publishing the proceedings, but it was hard for a layman to understand, and in the mix up, there will be no report next year.

M.·. E.·. Alpha Morgan, Grand High Priest.

Alabama's Grand Representative is named "Abel" but he was not there.

The roll call developed that all the Chapters were represented, all the Grand Officers, except two, present; also sixteen Past Grand High Priests and one Past D. G. H. Priest.

The Grand Organist had followed the notes of his organ to the spirit plane, and sorrow marked his passing; as it did that of Past Grand High Priest Matthew Kyle.

The Grand Master of Masons and the Grand Commander of Knights Templar were received with honors. Then came an invitation from the local Chapter for a lunch, and refreshment followed.

"Old Glory" was received with high honor, the Grand Representatives were given cordial welcome, and Grand Chapter then got down to business.

M.·. E.·. E. C. Peterson, the Grand High Priest, gave a concise account of his stewardship, interspersed with some pertinent remarks on men and things.

As to new Chapters, he says that he made a survey of certain fields, but the Companions were not enthusiastic enough for the formation of successful Chapters. Hence no Chapters. That's good sense and good Masonry.

The condition of the Craft was not as satisfactory as he would have it. Three Chapters were in a bad way, with no immediate prospect of a revival. He says he does not believe in coaxing the Companions to form a Chapter, that if you coax in the first instance, you have to keep it up indefinitely. But he found the other Chapters prosperous and doing good work.

He believes in visitations, but was unable to make any. He advises that the Grand Council parcel out the Chapters and then visit them.

Recognition was given the Grand Chapter of British Columbia.

The new rituals of General Grand Chapter provoked some discussion but it was finally decided to try them out, and each Chapter was instructed to send their representatives to next Grand Chapter with instructions to vote for or against their adoption.

The oration of Comp. Miles was a very good one, and instructive as well.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priest met in Annual Convention June 8, 1920, at Reno, pursuant to notice, and after the transaction of the usual business, three Companions were presented and duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

The Correspondence report is the work of Grand Secretary Edward D. Vanderleith, and, as is customary, it is concise and well done. He devotes about one printed page to each Grand Jurisdiction, but manages to point out the things of interest to the Craft.

Alabama 1919 has cordial review. He excerpts what Grand High Priest Matlock says anent the public schools, and pays him deserved compliment.

The Grand Chapter met at 3 p. m. and so far as the record shows held only one session. Three minor Grand Officers were absent. Seven Chapters were represented. It does not appear whether any Past Grand Officers or Grand Representatives were present or not.

Grand High Priest Horace A. Porter granted only two dispensations, visited all the Chapters but one officially, and that one unofficially. He recommended an increase in the salary of Grand Secretary, and Grand Chapter agreed, advancing his salary to the sum of $75.00 per annum. He also recommended recognition of the Grand Chapter of Alberta, which had been overlooked, and this recommendation was concurred in.

Most of the Grand Officers were re-elected and re-installed.

The Constitution was printed, 500 copies at a cost of $60.00, and are being sold for the sum of fifteen cents to subordinate Chapters.

The Honor Roll is published for the first time, and is most creditable to this small Grand Jurisdiction.

Five candidates were found qualified, and were duly received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood.

M.·. E.·. Horace A. Porter, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIRST ANNUAL, CONCORD, MAY 18TH, 1920.

All the Grand Officers, six Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of twenty-one Chapters composed the Grand Convocation. Alabama was well represented by E.·. Companion Weston Wentworth. Twenty-two other Grand Jurisdictions had representatives present.

Grand High Priest Arthur Charles Stewart reported six visitations to his local Chapters, the participation in 150th anniversary of St. Andrews Chapter at Boston, which was greatly enjoyed. He is a strong believer in the Masonic Home, and recommended appropriations for the improvement of the buildings.

He granted a few dispensations and made some recommendations of purely local interest.

The business was routine and purely local, except the recognition of the Grand Chapter of British Columbia. Queensland was told to await further information.

Reports of visitations of Chapters by the other members of the Grand Council were attached to the report of the Grand High Priest. They indicate a satisfactory condition of the subordinate Chapters.

Six Companions petitioned for the Order of High Priesthood, and being found to possess the necessary qualifications, were presented, anointed, consecrated and set apart. Routine business held the attention of the Annual Convention for the rest of the session.

E.·. Comp. Charles B. Spofford filed his third report on Correspondence. It is most readable, and contains many wise and conservative comments. Alabama, 1919, administration of Grand High Priest Matlock, is under review. He quotes liberally and wisely from that part of his address dealing with the enemies of the Public Schools and Masonry.

M.·. E.·. Bert L. Stebbins, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Harry M. Cheney, Grand Secretary.

NEW JERSEY, 1920.

Special Convocation to constitute Branch Brook Chapter No. 47 was held at Newark, May 31, 1919.

The Grand High Priest, and several others of the Grand Officers were present, and the matter was accomplished in Ample Form.

Grand Captain of Host and Grand Organist were absent, otherwise the roster of Grand Officers was complete. Eight District Deputies, twelve Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand Scribe, the representatives of thirty-seven Chapters, and a number of Past High Priests made up the Grand Body.

Twenty-nine Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being included.

The usual concourse of distinguished visitors, and happy speeches followed the opening ceremony.

Grand High Priest Richard C. Woodward submitted a business-like account of the matters coming under his official administration.

He records with sorrow the passing of Past Grand High Priest Frederick T. Crane.

He officially visited several Chapters and attended several schools of instruction. Also he had the pleasure of official visits to the Grand Chapters of Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York, Rhode Island and Connecticutt. He visited the George Washington National Association, and asked New Jersey Grand Chapter to join the Association, and pledge it $1,000.00. This recommendation met with favor and it was so ordered. He submits in detail all courtesies asked of and by himself, and the result.

Two new chapters were instituted U. D. by the Grand High Priest, and one by Grand Chapter. Charters were granted to Chapters U. D. and the petition of the other was referred to the incoming Grand High Priest.

The Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King and Grand Scribe each reported upon the Chapters visited by them, as did the other Grand Officers and the District Deputies.

The Annual Convention of Anointed High Priests was held May 11th, 1920. Routine business had attention, and then thirty-six qualified applicants were duly presented, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order. Among this number was M.·. E.·. W. N. Ponton, Grand First Principal Z of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Canada.

In his usual easy, eloquent and graceful way M.·. E.·. Henry S. Haines writes the report on Correspondence. Alabama 1919, administration of Grand High Priest Matlock, being under review. He thinks well of the subject matter and style of his annual report. Being Grand Lecturer, an office we have not, but greatly need, he cannot conceive of a Chapter unable to do the work. But we have some—not so very many—that need lots of help, and they get it too often for their own good. But we are coming and hope soon to be able to report each Chapter efficient in the Ritual. It is not, although it ought to be, a requirement before setting up a Chapter, that its officers know the ritual.

We have Masons who are students at our University and at our Technical College and are aiding them in their efforts to build a home for themselves and their successors upon the College premises.

They may thus be able the better to impress those who will leave these walls that Masonry is a thing to be sought by the educated youths of the land.

M.·. E.·. J. Vreeland Haring, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Peter McGill, Grand Secretary.

Two Special Convocations were held, one to install the Grand Treasurer, and the other to install the Grand Sentinel.

The regular Annual Convocation was adjourned for the want of a quorum, the Deputy Grand High Priest, and Grand Secretary being the only Grand Officers present ,and less than a quorum of the subordinate Chapters represented.

The adjourned Convocation was held on the date noted above, with all the Grand Officers, nine Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand King, and the representatives of fourteen chartered Chapters present.

The Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Richard M. Thorne, in his annual address, dealt almost exclusively with affairs of a local official nature.

Most of his recommendations met the approval of Grand Chapter, but his decisions seem not to have been passed upon.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized.

There seems to be a mix up as to the General Grand Chapter Rituals. The Grand High Priest ruled that they had been adopted in 1918, but the Committee comes along with the suggestion that they be not adopted, that they be recalled from the subordinate Chapters and the old rituals sent back to them. The report was adopted in this way, with the proviso that General Grand Chapter rituals be used if General Grand Chapter required it of the Grand Chapter of New Mexico.

Then another resolution was adopted appointing a Special Committee to study the revised ritual, and report thereon at next Annual. The Jurisprudence Committee advised against the adoption, at this time, of a resolution suggesting that constituent Chapters advise their members to take the Cryptic degrees.

All the Grand Officers, except the Grand King, who was absent on account of illness in his family, were duly installed.

The proceedings contain no reference to the Order of High Priesthood.

There is no report on Correspondence.

These Convocations are quarterly, and the statistics are not shown in the proceedings.

The business is transacted through the Grand Committee of General Purposes, of which Alabama's Grand Representative, Past Grand Z, Aubrey Halloran, is chairman.

The Grand First Principal submits a quarterly report, as does the Grand Inspector of Workings. From these the information is gathered that eight Chapters were instituted and accorded charters; that harmony and prosperity prevails, many visitations were made and charity dispensed where it was needed.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTIETH ANNUAL, ALBANY, FEBRUARY 3RD, 1920.

All the Grand Officers, fourteen Past Grand High Priests, two Past Grand Kings, one Past Grand Scribe and the representatives of two hundred and six of the subordinate Chapters constituted the Grand Body. R.·. E.·. Frederick H. Tasker was present as Alabama's Legate. Forty other Grand Jurisdictions were represented.

A good many excuses from the absentees were received, read, accepted and printed.

Grand Representatives were cordially received and gave fitting response.

The Grand Officers of the other Grand Bodies of New York, and Grand and General Grand Chapter Officers were received with fitting ceremonies, and later enlightened the Companions with first class speeches, all of which are printed in the proceedings. This is an annual happening, and while it makes the record long, it usually proves worth while.

After this the Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Percy W. Willard, who looks like a rather young man, but whose signature is that of age, opened his battery, and fired some heavy guns.

He announces, with sorrow, the passing of Past Grand High Priests Willis Wood Rice and Seymour H. Stone, ten Past Grand Representatives and many Companions of his Grand Jurisdiction, together with the distinguished dead of other jurisdictions.

Six hundred and fifty dollars were distributed to worthy charities during the year, and a similar appropriation recommended

He convened two special Councils of Anointed High Priests to render several High Priests elect eligible to be installed.

One Chapter was constituted by proxy, and several Chapter halls inspected and approved.

Two proposed new Chapters applied too late, and the papers were delivered to the incoming Grand High Priest for action. In New York a dispensation to form a new Chapter does not issue if made within four months of the next Annual Convocation. Not a bad rule, by any means.

Quite a list of courtesies granted and courtesies asked is recorded. Seven special and a number of ordinary dispensations were issued. The specials were conferring certain degrees in lodge halls, while the ordinary dispensations were for electing or installing officers.

Quite a number of waivers of jurisdiction were asked and several were granted.

Under the head of "Foreign Relations" he records a number of visits to other Grand Jurisdictions, and some invitations he was unable to accept.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was favorably recommended by him, and was later accorded recognition.

An appeal was taken by a Companion Past High Priest from the action of his Chapter, and the Grand High Priest reviewed the appeal, reversed the Chapter, and annulled the charges. Grand Chapter agreed with him.

He rendered several decisions of purely local interest. He had his Assistant Grand Lecturers (District) visit each Chapter twice, and discouraged the conferring of three degrees at one Convocation. It would be a thankless job, if attempted in this Grand Jurisdiction, although all thoughtful Chapter Masons recognize that it would be better so. He gave each of his Grand Officers, except his Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, work of inspecting Chapters, and from the reports, as well as the expense accounts, they inspected. The Grand High Priest also made several inspections, and quite a number of official visits.

He pays his Grand Secretary, his Grand Treasurer, and Grand Chaplain deserved compliments for their efficiency and cordial assistance, and thanks all his Grand Officers for their co-operation.

The Grand Lecturer, M.·. E.·. Marshall F. Hemingway, filed a most interesting report of his trips through the State, and especially the Capitular conventions by districts. Thirty-five such conventions were held by him during the year, besides visiting and assisting quite a number of Chapters. The Grand High Priest was especially pleased with his work and did not hesitate to say so.

The Committee on Rituals preferred New York's ritual to that of General Grand Chapter, and so reported. But they also recommended a Special Committee to look into and suggest changes in their Ritual.

A resolution was introduced, received a majority vote and went over to next Grand Chapter requiring that each applicant for the Chapter degrees, in addition to the present requirements, should be "a citizen of the United States of America."

Other matters of routine, and of a purely local nature, had attention.

Two Councils of Anointed High Priests were held, one January 20th, at New York, and on Feb. 3rd, at Albany. One hundred and forty-two Companions were found qualified and worthy, and were duly anointed and consecrated.

That seems to be all the business attended to at these Conventions.

The report of the Committee on "Foreign Correspondence," is the maiden effort of M.·. E.·. Arthur Warren. We are sure if he had not said so himself, none would ever have suspected that it was his first effort. He declares his unequivocal belief in the value of these reports, and cordially invites criticism of his work.

The only criticism this writer has to make is that if he continues as he has begun, and makes no further progress, he will be as good as any of us.

Alabama 1918 comes under review, and receives careful treatment. He is kind to the Grand High Priest, and this scribe, for which he has our thanks.

His reviews of the other Grand Jurisdictions are as carefully done as that of Alabama. He promises to be a strong factor in the guild.

Following the report on Correspondence is the annual oration of the Grand Chaplain, R.·. E.·. and Reverend Pierre Cushing. His subject is the "Leaven of Masonry," and his address is strong and thoughtful.

NEW ZEALAND, 1920.

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL, NAPIER, JANUARY 29TH, 1920.

Chapters, 36; membership, 1,862; net gain, 124.

The custom of opening is that followed by Alabama for the past three years. Being an old Mason we rather like the old ways, but always submit to constituted authority.

While there are some "as officers" the Grand Officers present were fairly numerous. Twenty-nine Chapters were represented. Three Past Grand Principals and four Grand Superintendents were in attendance.

Among the "apologies" we note that of M.·. E.·. T. Ross, Grand Representative for Alabama.

Supreme Committee report for 1918 was the first business.

From this report we gather that Craft Masonry in the province of Queensland is greatly disturbed, but notwithstanding this fact the Grand Chapter of Queensland was granted recognition.

The Supreme Committee also filed report for 1919. Four meetings of Committee were held during the year. Prosperity is reasserting itself both in secular life and in Capitular Masonry.

General discussion over cutting down assessments and cutting off transit expenses of delegates but resulted in the matter being left as it was.

The newly installed Grand Z delivered a short address, saying that he expected to obtain their confidence more through deeds than by words.

M.·. E.·. T. Hobson, Grand First Principal.

R.·. E.·. Herbert J. Williams, Grand Scribe E.

NORTH CAROLINA, 1920.

SEVENTY-SECOND ANNUAL, WILMINGTON, MAY 11TH, 1920.

Chapters, 50; membership, 5,618; net gain, 771.

Five Grand Officers were absent—the Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand Scribe, Grand Chaplain, Grand Royal Arch Captain and Grand Sentinel.

Their places having been filled Grand Chapter was opened in Ample Form. Nine Past Grand High Priests and the representatives of thirty Chapters were also present.

Twenty-five Grand Jurisdictions had representatives present. Alabama was not represented.

The Deputy Grand High Priest, R.·. E.·. John J. Phoenix, being connected with the army Y. M. C. A., and having been ordered to Italy to take charge of a base, was absent and would be for some time. A very interesting letter from him is printed in the proceedings.

It seems from the correspondence that Companion Phoenix was never installed as Deputy Grand High Priest. The Grand Chapter of England agreed to do so, but Comp. Phoenix could not reach the point in time for the ceremony.

Grand High Priest J. H. Anderson devoted himself, in his annual address, largely to the matters coming to him officially.

He makes the following pertinent observation:

> Now, the question is: Have we made that many more Royal Arch Masons and added to their store of Masonic knowledge, or have we simply conferred the degrees that they might pass through and obtain the Shrine? I fear the latter is too true in a number of cases and while I am an admirer of the Shrine I believe the time has come when we should refuse the degrees to those whose only desire is to get to the Shrine.
> I believe if the Scottish Rite and so-called York Rite bodies would each accept the principle of quality rather than quantity, both they and the Shrine would be better off.

I suspect each Grand Jurisdiction might well ask itself this question, and answer it in the same way. He files a list of courtesies asked and courtesies granted.

He granted several ordinary dispensations and refused all requests to "hurry up" petitioners.

He took up one charter and restored another.

A lengthy correspondence resulted over the new rituals, all of which appears in his address. To this Scribe this appears better either omitted, or attached as exhibits.

He visited several subordinate Chapters, the Grand Chapter of South Carolina, and was present at the Annual Meeting of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.

Next triennial meets in Asheville, and preparation was recommended, which of course included an appropriation.

He was of the opinion that an Instructor was needed, and recommended the creation by Grand Chapter of such an office.

The usual appropriation for educational work was made.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was accorded recognition.

The Most Excellent Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests met on May 11 and after the transaction of the routine business, duly received, anointed, consecrated and set apart eighteen Companions found worthy and well qualified. Two others were elected, but failed to appear.

The Grand High Priest had the resignation of former Grand Correspondent W. B. McKoy, and appointed M.·. E.·. Leon Cash, as he says against his will, but with the hope that he would serve. Evidently the hope was vain, for there is no report on correspondence.

M.·. E.·. J. M. Oldham, Grand High Priest.

M.·. E.·. John B. Griggs, Grand Secretary.

NORTH DAKOTA, 1920.

Thirsty-First Annual, Fargo, January 13th, 1920.

Chapters, 24; membership, 3,448; net gain, 177.

The Grand Captain of the Host was the only Grand Officer not in his station when Grand Chapter was convened.

The representatives of twenty-two Chapters were present.

The assumption is that permanent members, Past Grand Officers, were also present, but no mention is made thereof.

The first day was devoted to appointment of committees, reading of letters and telegrams, and the exemplification of the R. A.

Degree according to the revised Ritual of the General Grand Chapter.

The second day marked the reception of the General Grand High Priest, and other distinguished visitors, together with the annual message of Grand High Priest M.·. E.·. Adolph M. Christianson, and reports of standing and special Committees. Grand High Priest sizes up the year's work thus:

"The demand for the exercise of those powers has not been great. I have not been called upon for a single decision. No complaints have been registered. I received only four requests for dispensations."

He made but one official visit, and that to his home chapter. He concludes with a plea for more power to General Grand Chapter, and the need of a National Grand Lodge. In this last appeal he will find but few followers.

Grand Secretary Stockwell came in for deserved praise, and a recommendation for increased pay. Stockwell is a very live wire, worth all that they can pay him, "and then some."

He filed an interesting report, as well as one clearly setting forth the financial transactions of the year.

He reports reciprocal jurisdiction arranged with Minnesota, and in view of this fact recommends the establishment of a Chapter at Bowman and the removal of Unity Chapter from Lidgerwood to Wahpeton.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was accorded recognition.

The Committee on Addresses recommended that the Grand High Priest's brief on the proposed changes in General Grand Chapter Constitution be submitted to the constituent Chapters and action thereon deferred for one year. Grand Chapter concurred.

A dinner complimentary to the General Grand High Priest was given at which it developed that M.·. E.·. Comp. Craig was a most charming fellow, and that Past Grand High Priest Christianson was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Dakota.

Half page is devoted to the Convention of Anointed High Priests. The officers and six Companions were present, and there were no petitioners. Somebody ought to get busy.

M.·. E.·. Comp. E. George Guthrie comes to the fore with his sixth annual report on Correspondence.

Some of the Grand Jurisdictions, Alabama among them, did not get on his table, because of a change of time of meeting, but he promises to attend to them next year, as he says he confidently expects to be re-appointed.

We trust so, at any rate, for his reviews are always entertaining and instructive.

M.·. E.·. John H. G. Turner, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Walter L. Stockwell, Grand Secretary.

NOVA SCOTIA, 1919.

Fiftieth Annual, New Glasgow, June 10, 1919.

Chapters, 18; membership, 1,809; net gain, 121.

Grand Secretary Waddell, for thirteen years a wise and efficient officer, had passed to his reward, and his place was vacant when Grand Chapter convened. The other Grand Officers were in their stations, and V.·. E.·. Brenton F. Porter, Assistant Grand Secretary, occupied the place thus made vacant. Four Past Grand High Priests; six Past Grand Kings; three Past Grand Scribes, and the representatives of fourteen subordinate Chapters made up the roster of Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. William A. Ellis was eloquent in his reference to the fiftieth anniversary, Victory and Peace, and beautiful in his expressions of sorrow and condolence at the death of Past Grand High Priest, and Grand Secretary Samuel James Waddell.

Grand High Priest had the pleasure of visiting all the Chapters in his Grand Jurisdiction, and tells us about it in a genuinely happy way, "seeing as how" he lives in the extreme end of his Grand Jurisdiction, his efforts and success are all the more to be commended.

No decisions were asked for, and only two dispensations requested, one of which was to start Victory Chapter U. D. This was granted and later Grand Chapter chartered Victory.

The Board of General Purposes submitted their report, and it was approved.

Assistant Grand Secretary—now Grand Secretary—Brenton F. Porter, submitted an interesting review of the year, especially the last six months.

St. Johns Chapter No. 8 was under fire, but emerged unscathed. They have a way of electing officers without regard to the line.

Past Grand King Mackay was elected Grand High Priest, and a new council selected.

The Order of High Priesthood held a meeting on June 10, with all the officers and a number of Companions present. The minutes were approved and routine business disposed of. Twelve Companions were found to possess the requisite qualifications, and were solemnly made of the Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry.

The report on Correspondence is the work of R.·. E.·. Comp. Brenton F. Porter. It is not necessary to enquire as to his previous experience, for his work speaks for itself. He submits "an appreciation of the work of Comps. Black, Bingay and Waddell."

Alabama 1918 is under review. Grand High Priest Reese has approval and commendation.

The writer is not wise as to his mix-up of offices and officers, but hopes he has not repeated.

M.·. E.·. John C. Mackay, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Brenton F. Porter, Grand Secretary.

OHIO, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRD ANNUAL, TOLEDO, SEPTEMBER 24TH, 1919.

Chapters, 189; membership, 51,848; net gain, 4,155.

When Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Harry W. Lloyd, opened Grand Chapter he had the assistance of all his Grand Officers, except R.·. E.·. Dep. Grand High Priest, and Grand Sentinel, both of whom were detained by illness. All the Past Grand High Priests were present—fourteen in number—except three, two of whom were ill, and one detained by business.

Representatives from one hundred and eighty-one subordinate Chapters were present.

Most Excellent Comp. Levi C. Goodale spoke feelingly of the absence of the Grand and Past Grand Officers, but especially of M.·. E.·. Companion James W. Iredell, Jr., Past Grand High Priest, who had been battling with disease for the past two years.

Grand Chapter was welcomed by M.·. E.·. Barton Smith, Past Grand Master of Ohio, and Sovereign Grand Commander Northern Jurisdiction A. & A. S. R. of Freemasonry.

Distinguished visitors from the other Grand Bodies of Ohio, from Sister Grand Jurisdictions and from General Grand Chapter were accorded proper honors and a cordial welcome.

The Grand High Priest opened his annual address with this splendid sentence: "From the ever approaching tomorrows, time gives today, that he may gather the yesterdays wherein to record the history of lives and worlds." Many things of equal merit and beauty are contained in his prolegomena.

He records with feeling expression the passing of Grand Treasurer Ralph R. Rickley, and of those others who have passed the veils, he says "From life, through the gates of death, to life have these, our Companions, gone."

He saw to the installation of three Grand Officers, absent from the Annual Convocation, and himself constituted and consecrated Ft. Industry Chapter.

He ordered, after the signing of the Armistice, regular inspections of the subordinate Chapters, appointing inspectors and defining their districts, and sending his proxy to them as their warrant of authority. He reports dispensations denied, but none granted.

The three Chapters placed on probation by last Grand Chapter, held out and developed well, and were given the glad hand. The time for holding the Annual Convocation was moved up from September to October, in order to give Comp. Hagenbuch, their very efficient Grand Secretary, an ample opportunity to receive, classify, and if necessary correct the Chapter returns. Code revision was also ordered, and the job was put upon Past Grand High Priest Orion P. Sperra. Safe and sane disposition.

Liberal donations were made to the Masonic Home and after all this Grand Chapter is left in good condition to care for the ordinary expenses, and yet have a nice balance.

As an appendix to the Grand High Priest's address, and after the record of the proceedings, appears dispensations granted, amendments to chapter by-laws approved, fraternal courtesies, letters from Grand Representatives and other matters of detail. A very splendid idea, recommended for adoption to other Grand High Priests and Grand Secretaries.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests convened September 24, at Toledo. One hundred and twenty-eight Companions were certified to possess the requisite qualifications, and they were separately admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

M.·. E.·. President Nelson Williams failed to favor us with his usual excellent address, saying that nothing of special importance had transpired.

M.·. E.·. Orion P. Sperra submits his usual careful, fraternal and well-constructed report on Correspondence.

Alabama, 1918 has cordial treatment. He commends the work of M.·. E.·. Companion Henry F. Reese, except as to dispensations to railroad candidates. He consoles himself about that thusly: "We are glad the war is over."

M.·. E.·. Joseph T. Croxall, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Edwin Hagenbuch, Grand Secretary.

OKLAHOMA, 1920.

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL, OKLAHOMA CITY, APRIL 19, 1920.

Chapters, 71; membership, 8,146; net gain, 1,362.

All the Grand Officers, except Grand Master Second Veil, the representatives of forty-one Chapters, sixteen Past Grand High Priests and two Past Grand Scribes were present and participating when Grand Chapter was convened.

Forty-six Grand Jurisdictions were present through Grand Representatives, Alabama being well represented by M.·. E.·. Comp. William H. Essex, who was also a member of Jurisprudence Committee.

The proceedings contain a portrait and highly complimentary sketch of Grand High Priest J. Angus Gillis. Also a group picture of Grand Chapter.

General Grand High Priest Craig and distinguished visitors for other Grand Jurisdictions were accorded a cordial welcome, and later made honorary members of Grand Chapter.

The Grand High Priest had a lengthy, though sincere and earnest, message, which was adorned with cuts of the Masonic Temple, and the various rooms therein devoted to Capitular Masonry and Commandery work, together with an account of the work, and a picture of the class, at his home Chapter of Frederick. He proves himself not only a well wisher, but a finished and persistent worker of the Craft. He spent 56 days away from business, and assisted in conferring 848 degrees in the various Masonic bodies during the year.

Four dispensations to institute Chapters U. D. were granted, three of which were chartered, and the other continued U. D. He issued more circular letters than is customary, but each had reference to something he was endeavoring to do for the benefit of Capitular Masonry in Oklahoma.

The General Grand Chapter ritual, which was adopted at the 1919 Grand Convocation, came up again, and the resolution adopting it seems to have been rescinded. At any rate a ritual committee was appointed to construct a ritual, and exemplify it at next Grand.

The Grand Treasurer, R.·. E.·. Otto Albert Shuttee, and two Past Grand High Priests, M.·. E.·. Companions John Coyle and Daniel M. Hailey, passed the veils of this earthly tabernacle during the year. When their names were called a Companion arose and pronounced a fitting eulogy.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests held its annual Convention on April 19. In addition to the transaction of routine business the Holy Order was conferred upon twenty-nine Companions found worthy and well qualified.

The correspondence report is the good work of E.·. Comp. William Noble. He ably reviews the proceedings of fifty-five Grand Jurisdictions. Alabama 1919, M.·. E.·. Comp. J. D. Matlock, is given cordial treatment.

M.·. E.·. Harold B. Downing, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. James A. Scott, Grand Secretary.

OREGON, 1920.

SIXTIETH ANNUAL, PORTLAND, JUNE 14TH, 1920.

Chapters, 37; membership, 4,979; net gain, 481.

All the Grand Officers, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, two Grand Lecturers and the representatives of thirty-one Chapters constituted the Grand Body.

Alabama was not represented. Portrait and sketch of M.·. E.·. Comp. J. H. Richmond.

Past Grand High Priest W. Irving Latimer, of Michigan, was received with honors, and accorded a hearty welcome.

The Grand High Priest starts out by saying that this is an historical, or rather, an epochal convention. He then proceeds to state the matters having his official sanction or disapproval during the year.

One Chapter was instituted U. D. and chartered by Grand Chapter.

Many visitations were made, and the Chapters found to be in fine condition. An unusual amount of work was done by the Chapters.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was granted recognition.

The Committee on Ritual reported adversely to the revised ritual of General Grand Chapter, and their report was adopted.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests met June 14 and after disposing of the business of the Council, admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart fourteen competent Companions to the Holy Order.

No report on correspondence.

M.·. E.·. Frank W. Settlemier, Grand High Priest.
R.·. E.·. James F. Robinson, Grand Secretary.

PENNSYLVANIA, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL, PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 27TH, 1919.

The usual Quarterly Convocations were held in March, June, September and December, at which matters of purely local interest transpired. The usual committee reports, notices of demise and quarterly reports of the Secretary and Treasurer.

However, something out of the ordinary transpired on November 21st, 1919, when an emergency Grand Convocation was held and the Grand Chapter proceeded to make Governor William C. Sproul a Royal Arch Mason at sight, or practically so.

Grand High Priest David J. Davis announces the fact in his annual address, but gives no reason for it. M.·. E.·. Companion Meredith, in his report on Correspondence, under Alabama probably gives the explanation, when he says:

"The orders and decisions of the Grand High Priest are not subject to review, but are final and conclusive, until some succeeding Grand High Priest sees fit to change them."

The statement carries a suggestion of disapproval, which is followed up by the further statement:

"We have always believed that the prerogatives of the Grand High Priest are not above the constitution; that in the discharge of his duties he is limited by the Constitution, which cannot be set aside."

Any other course is dangerous and may lead to confusion worse confounded. This staid and dignified Grand Body is ever at the mercy of the whim of the Grand High Priest.

Several dispensations for new Chapters were granted, and later these Chapters were granted charters and duly constituted.

Grand Chapter of Alberta was extended recognition. Delayed mails is the reason offered for failure to grant an earlier recognition.

In the alphabetical distribution of the Grand Chapter proceedings among the five members of the Committee on Correspondence, Alabama fell to that splendid reviewer M.·. E.·. William B. Meredith.

It is pleasant and instructive to read all of Pennsylvania's reviewers' work. In the main our views coincide as to all matters treated. Alabama has been a member of General Grand Chapter, but has never surrendered her sovereignty, and if the proposed amendments to General Grand Chapter constitution become effective, this writer has no doubt Alabama will withdraw.

Alabama 1918, incumbency of Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, was under review and has fraternal consideration. He quotes from the address of the Grand High Priest, but comments upon his efforts to assist the illiteracy campaign, by saying that education is the duty of the State. We agree, but having many men and women in Alabama who could neither read nor write, and the laws being inapplicable to that class of citizen, it became necessary to aid them by other methods. Masonry being interested in education, it was natural that it should be appealed to to lend its aid in the effort to get those people interested and to aid in gathering funds to help along. Alabama Masons are proud of their stand on educational matters.

M.·. E.·. David J. Davis, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. George B. Wells, Grand Secretary.

QUEBEC, 1920.

Forty-Third Annual, Montreal, March 24th, 1920.

Chapters, 14; membership, 2,176; net gain, 205.

Seven Grand Chapter officers were absent and seven present. One Grand Superintendent of District, the Grand Lecturer, a number of Past Grand Officers, and the representatives of thirteen of the subordinate Chapters.

R.·. E.·. C. P. O'Connor, Past Grand H, represented Alabama. Twenty-three other Grand Jurisdictions had representatives present.

The Grand Z of the Grand Chapter of Canada, and some members of his official family, were present and received with the honors due their stations. The Grand Secretary, or Grand Scribe E, speaks of it as a most unique pleasure.

M.·. E.·. R. S. Kinghorn, the Grand First Principal Z, then delivered his annual message. He referred at length, and with much enthusiasm, to the visit of the Prince of Wales, and the fact that, like his grandfather, "King Edward, the Peace Maker," he had been initiated into the Order.

Internal conditions and relations to sister Grand Jurisdictions were all that could be desired.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recommended for recognition, and was accorded recognition by Grand Chapter.

He records the passing of several Companions, who had been of great strength to the Craft.

He issued a few dispensations, refused others and made a good many official visits, within and without his Grand Jurisdiction.

Nothing much had been done towards the revision of the ritual, notwithstanding the fact that it is badly needed, especially as regards the floor work.

The reports of the Grand Superintendents of District and the Grand Lecturer disclose close supervision of Chapters, and generally a healthy condition of affairs.

Other matters of purely local interest had attention.

The correspondence report is the usually pleasant and instructive work of M.·. E.·. Comp. E. T. D. Chambers. He has something to say as to the form of the report, believing strongly in the review by Grand Jurisdictions, rather than topically. We thoroughly agree with him.

The Masonic student, interested in a particular line of pursuit, will find his information just as readily in the one as in the other, and those seeking general information will certainly not find it in the topical reviews.

He treats also of the "Place of the Royal Arch" in the system, and of French Masonry, and its recognition. He greatly opposes recognition. His review of the Grand Jurisdictions is pleasing and instructive. Alabama is not reviewed.

M.·. E.·. Walter J. Francis, Grand Z.

R.·. E.·. W. W. Williamson, Grand Scribe E.

RHODE ISLAND, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL, PROVIDENCE, MARCH 11TH, 1919.

Chapters, 11; membership, 5,381; net gain, 145.

A glance at the table of Royal Arch Chapters in Rhode Island shows that Land Mark Chapter No 10 was constituted Sept. 20, 1871, and the next one to be constituted was Narragansett No. 11, chartered March 11, 1913. Quite a stretch in the years that elapsed. However, we find four new chapters started U. D. in 1918-1919.

All the Grand Officers were present, all the Chapters were represented, and nine Past Grand High Priests and a number of Past High Priests were also in attendance. Twenty-six Grand Jurisdictions were represented. Alabama was not one of them.

Distinguished visitors were present and were received with due honors.

Grand High Priest Wilbur A. Scott submitted a business-like address, having reference to the official matters of the Grand Jurisdiction, and his visits to sister Grand Jurisdictions, to General Grand Chapter and the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, where he proved a very live wire and rendered valuable assistance. (The writer knows whereof he speaks in saying the above).

Past Deputy Grand High Priest James C Blake, died during the year, and fitting memorial was recorded.

Several dispensations were issued, but none of the hurry up order. He reports nine per cent. of the membership enrolled in the armed forces of the country, others engaged in various war activities and Past Grand High Priest Davis in France in Y. M. C. A. work. All the Chapters were either visited or inspected by officers assigned to that duty and good reports filed.

It was found that the four Chapters working under dispensation had done good and efficient work, that their records were well kept and that they were entitled to become members of Grand Chapter. One received charter and the others were continued U. D.

Other matters were of purely local interest.

The Convention of Anointed High Priests met March 11, 1919, to dispose of routine business. There is no record of any additions to the list of members.

There is no report on correspondence but a promise of a live one next year, since M.·. E.·. Comp. Wilbur A. Scott has assumed the duty of preparing one. His first consists of the explanation of why there is no report; an appreciation of the work of his predecessors, and his resolution to give freely of his time and talents to the work. Here's how, as we used to say.

M.·. E.·. Joseph Lawton, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. William R. Greene, Grand Secretary.

SOUTH DAKOTA, 1920.

Thirty-First Annual, Pierre, June 10th, 1920.

Chapters, 35; membership, 4,853; net gain, 543.

The Grand Masters of the 2nd and 3rd Veils were absent, otherwise the Grand Officers were in their stations when M.·. E.·. Comp. Frederick Treon, Grand High Priest, convened the Grand Body.

Twelve Past Grand High Priests, seventeen Past High Priests, and the representatives of twenty-seven of the subordinate Chapters were in attendance.

Nineteen Grand Jurisdictions had their representatives present, Alabama not being one of them.

Grand High Priest, after some timely observations on the school problem, devotes himself exclusively to the official matters having his attention.

Two Chapters were started U. D., one of which was chartered and the other continued under dispensation.

He reports courtesies requested and others granted. His decisions were all questions to be answered by reference to the constitution and edicts.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was granted recognition and an exchange of representatives.

The Grand Lecturer made no report, but was very busy and efficient, nevertheless.

The presence of Comp. Julius C. Luce, who assisted in the building of the first fort at Pierre, fifty-seven years ago, was noted, and he was given the grand honors.

It was announced that Past Grand High Priest Louis G. Levoy, was leaving the Grand Jurisdiction to establish a permanent residence in California. This will remove him from the corps of Correspondents, of which he is a veteran.

We note with regret that he will not be chairman of the committee further, since a successor has been appointed.

The twenty-fifth Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood met on June 10. Most Excellent President Levoy was succeeded by Grand Lecturer, Benjamin F. Ives.

Five Companions were found worthy and well qualified, and were introduced, set apart, anointed and solemnly consecrated.

M.·. E.·. Comp. L. G. Levoy writes the correspondence report, and bids the corps adieu. He says that of those who were writing when he assumed the tripod, only three are left—Companions Chambers, of Quebec, Foster of Colorado and Todd of Minnesota. To him we say, as he says to others, "May health, wealth and prosperity be yours in all the years to come." To it we add, may happiness also be among the many other good things and thoughts in his new home.

Alabama 1919, has courteous and fraternal notice.

M.·. E.·. Arthur B. McKeel, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. George A. Pettigrew, Grand Secretary.

TENNESSEE, 1920.

Ninety-First Annual, Nashville, January 26th, 1920.

Chapters, 82; membership, 6,881; net gain, 700.

All the Grand Officers, except Grand Chaplain, were present, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of seventy-two Chapters, together with a number of Past High Priests. Thirty Grand Jurisdictions were present by representatives, but Alabama, although a near neighbor, was not represented.

The Grand High Priest, J. A. Fowler, devotes the introduction to his address, to selfishness and the struggle for world democracy.

He says some good things, some things that we would like to quote, but space forbids.

He announces the passing of Past Grand High Priest George L. Cowan. Suitable memorial was issued.

He granted six dispensations to elect and install officers; two dispensations to institute Chapters, and refused one. He arrested the charter of Eureka Chapter, finding on its rolls the names of two living Past Grand High Priests. Appointed a Grand Lecturer, and put him at work at once, and because of that himself made but few official visits.

He called attention to the needs of the Masonic Home, and also recommended participation in the activities of the Washington Memorial Association.

On his recommendation the office of Deputy Grand High Priest was abolished.

Four charters were arrested for failure to hold meetings during the year, although repeatedly warned of the result of such failure. Two others were arrested for reasons almost similar. Verily he recommends the use of the pruning knife. Not a bad idea, when used with discretion.

He recommends educational propaganda to build up the Chapters.

The Committee on Ritual advised strongly against the adoption of General Grand Chapter ritual, and also condemned the proposed changes in General Grand Chapter constitution.

The record of the incoming Grand High Priest reads as if he were at the head of the Grand Chapter of Alabama. M.·. E.·. Comp. A. G. Bowen is a Tennesseean, both civilly and Masonically, by adoption. His early life and Masonic history is closely connected with Alabama. We congratulate Tennessee upon his acquisition.

The fifty-sixth Annual Convocation of the Grand Council Order of High Priesthood was held January 27, 1920, and twenty-nine qualified Companions were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

The report of the Correspondence Committee is the work of Past Grand High Priest C. H. Smart, a new, but very competent hand. He promises to be quite an addition to the round table.

He reviews fifty-three Grand Jurisdictions, some for two years. Alabama, 1918, administration of Grand High Priest Reese, comes in for careful consideration and fraternal treatment.

He doubts the advisability of our laws relative to suspension for non-payment of dues.

The Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter here have a law that when a brother is in arrears for two years he must be suspended N. P. D. provided his arrearage is made known at a time certain. It is assumed that he knows of his arrearage, and he is always summoned to this meeting, and has notice of his dues. His failure to respond and to pay results in automatic suspension. So his payment of arrearage automatically restores his standing, unless charges are preferred. A trial would be a useless waste of time. If a mistake has been made by the Secretary, this is corrected upon complaint and proper showing.

However, each Grand Jurisdiction has its own way of doing things, and so long as the results are satisfactory and Capitular Masonry makes progress, this writer is not going to quarrel over methods.

M.·. E.·. A. G. Bowen, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Stith M. Cain, Grand Secretary.

TEXAS, 1919.

Seventieth Annual, Waco, December 1st, 1919.

Chapters, 277; membership, 28,396; net gain, 3,029.

All the Grand Officers, including two not usually found in the American Rite, Senior and Junior Stewards, were present and in their respective stations.

Thirteen Past Grand Officers, twenty-seven Grand Representatives, and the representatives of 112 subordinate Chapters were present. Alabama was well represented by E.·. Comp. J. M. Strayhorn, San Antonio.

Texas is divided into 55 districts and has that many Grand Visitors to look after the subordinate Chapters.

Grand High Priest B. K. Hawkins, with short introduction, submitted an exhaustive report of his official acts and doings.

He records the passing of Past Grand High Priest Joe Adams, and 417 other Companions during the year.

From his report we cull the following information: He restored the charter of a chapter forfeited for non-payment of dues; constituted five chapters chartered at previous Annual; issued a number of dispensations permitting Chapters to move their quarters, elect officers out of time, and in five cases for public appearances. He arrested the charters of seven Chapters for various causes; made requisition upon the emergency fund for $500.00 to aid the Gulf Coast storm sufferers. He reports eighty-seven Chapters inactive or dormant, and finding two of them quite hopeless, arrested their Charters.

The Masonic Home report is full and complete, showing good work and careful management. The per capita cost is larger than ours by several dollars per month, although we provide our residents with everything, including a splendid school for the children, employing five well paid teachers.

The address of the Grand Orator is replete with epigrams and splendid thought. The writer would like to excerpt some thoughts from the oration, but time and space forbid.

The Order of High Priesthood met December 3rd, 1919, at Waco, and transacted the ordinary business, after which forty-three Companions possessing the requisite qualifications were consecrated High Priests after the order of Melchisedek.

The report on Correspondence is the good work of Companion Carlton E. Mead. It is his seventh, and as Companion Foster of Colorado says, seven is the perfect number, so the report corresponds.

Alabama, 1918, administration of Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, is under review. The transactions are carefully reviewed and the Grand High Priest is given credit for his efficient efforts and thoughtful message.

He is inclined to poke a little fun at the report of the Jurisprudence Committee in their effort to answer the request to define more definitely the powers and duties of the Grand High Priest.

Being a member of that Committee the writer would be charmed to have some one give a concrete answer to the question propounded, that it may be incorporated in our laws. Will Comp. Mead come to our rescue?

The writer has no serious objection to the attitude of Texas on General Grand Chapter. It occurred to him that it would be just as well to be in as out, and so get the benefit of the junkets and the personal touch. But since the revised ritual and the proposed amendment to the Constitution has been brought to the writer's attention, it is a question if Texas has not adopted the wise plan after all. Very few of the Grand Chapters are taking these matters seriously, however, and none, except those holding charters from General Grand, are headed for absorption. Alabama certainly is not.

M.·. E.·. F. P. Marshall, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. T. M. Bartley, Grand Secretary.

VERMONT, 1920.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRD ANNUAL, BURLINGTON, JUNE 11TH, 1920.

Chapters, 30; membership, 4,893; net gain, 174.

Credentials Committee report the presence of all the Grand Officers, six permanent members, six District Deputies, and the representatives of twenty-five subordinate Chapters. Twenty-two Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being one of them.

Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. George I. Whitney submitted the shortest report of the year, so far reviewed. He reports the death of Past Grand High Priest W. E. Brewster, and District Deputy Grand High Priest Harold B. Carter. Says that Capitular Masonry is in a satisfactory condition, and commends highly the work of Grand Lecturer Crannell. He attended seven of the eight District meetings, and one meeting of the District Deputies; issued only three dispensations, made and granted several requests for courtesies, rendered no decisions, and had no grievances to contend with.

Grand First Principal Ponton of Canada paid Grand Chapter a visit, and was received with Grand Honors. Later he delivered an address.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia received recognition.

The other matters having attention were committee reports, and the report of Grand Lecturer and the District Deputies, all of which hold a purely local interest.

The Order of High Priesthood held its convention on June 10, 1920, and transacted the ordinary business. Nine Companions were found worthy and were duly anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

Past Grand High Priest Eugene S. Weston, for the committee, filed the report on Correspondence. As usual he did excellent work, reviewing fifty Grand Jurisdictions.

Alabama, 1919, administration of Grand High Priest J. D. Matlock, has fraternal and careful treatment.

He says Alabama is long on the Washington Memorial Association; but not as long as it ought to be and will be.

M.·. E.·. Charles A. Lang, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Henry H. Ross, Grand Secretary.

VICTORIA, 1918-19.

Chapters, 23; membership, 1,197; net gain, 111.

The convocations are quarterly and the Annual Convocation is not numbered. The procedure, officers and other things are very much after the custom of the Grand Chapter of England. The Grand First Principal submits a "communication," although he seems to have been personally present at all the quarterly convocations. All business seems to be transacted in the Committee of General Purposes. Their report is usually confirmed on motion. They issue dispensations, or recommend their issuance, to institute Chapters, keep up with the finance, announce the deaths of distinguished Companions, recommend appointments and generally oversee the Grand Chapter.

Some new Chapters were authorized to be instituted, and other things were given attention. We note that one Companion called attention to the fact that one Chapter had received and accepted 46 M. E. M. Masons at one session. Wonder what he would have said had he visited our Woodlawn Chapter on one of their big class days.

M.·. E.·. William Player Bice, Grand Z.

R.·. E.·. G. L. Marquard, Grand Scribe E.

VIRGINIA, 1919.

ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH ANNUAL, RICHMOND, OCTOBER 28TH, 1919.

Chapters, 67; membership, 9,671; net gain, 946.

All the Grand Officers, eight Past Grand High Priests, seven District Deputy Grand High Priests, a number of Past High Priests, and the representatives of forty-four subordinate Chapters were present and participating when Grand Chapter was convened.

Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Comp. James H. Price had a good many things to bring before his Companions, and therefore delivered an excellent address, touching upon Masonry's mission in larger world, and its duty to impress its tenets upon the coming generations.

He announces with sorrow the passing of an active, zealous and consecrated Companion, Past Grand High Priest Stanley Watkins Martin. His passing brings sadness to many of us in Alabama, where he sojourned some time as a member of the army at Camp McClellan. There he demonstrated his love for and activity in Capitular affairs, and the Companions at Anniston and other points learned to love him for what he was.

An invasion of jurisdiction by Chapters in the District of Columbia had courteous treatment and fraternal adjustment.

He succeeded in getting two Chapters, which were doing nothing to surrender their charters. One Chapter was constituted under dispensation, and was later chartered by Grand Chapter.

He made several visitations and attended the schools of instruction. He incorporates his dispensations granted and refused under the heading "Decisions," and along therewith sets out the rulings made by him during the year.

He paid splendid tribute to the worth and work of the Grand Lecturer and the Grand Secretary. Of the Grand Secretary he says:

> "His intimate connection with the work of this Grand Chapter for the past half century and his experience in the office of Grand Secretary, are valuable assets which I feel this Grand Chapter should preserve as long as possible."

The Grand Secretary was retired upon a salary as Emeritus Grand Secretary, ad vitam.

The address went to the usual committee, while their report and the reports of the other Grand Officers and committees went to the "Committee of the Whole" for action. In fact the first day's proceedings were considered by the Committee on the second day, and most of the matters considered were approved.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests met in Annual Convocation October 29th, 1919, with our friend and Companion J. E. Alexander as M.·. E.·. President.

It is announced that the venerable and beloved President delivered a most interesting and instructive address, but we are left to take it on faith (which we have) since it no where appears in the proceedings.

Thirty-one presented certificates of their election as High Priests and were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

R.·. E.·. Joseph W. Eggleston writes the report on Fraternal Correspondence in his usual bold and entertaining style. Forty-four Grand Jurisdictions are reviewed and Comp. Eggleston says they are all that were received.

Alabama 1918, administration of Grand High Priest Henry F. Reese, is under review, and has extended notice. He sets out in full the Grand High Priest's action in ordering dimit to a Companion not carried on the rolls of a Chapter. He does not think well of procedure. Neither does the writer, as a general thing, but in this case the proof was ample and convincing that the fault was with the local secretary, and his minutes were made to speak the truth.

Sorry Companion "Live Wire" Phillips was not present to represent Alabama. Perhaps the Grand High Priest had him, and some other live wires, in mind when he sought to devise some method of creating, a greater interest in attendance on Grand Chapter.

Wake him up, as Alabama always likes to be represented in anything Virginia undertakes.

M.·. E.·. John T. Cochran, Grand High Priest.
R.·. E.·. J. Gus Hankins, Grand Secretary.

WASHINGTON, 1920.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL, SPOKANE, MAY 3RD, 1920.

Chapters, 37; membership, 5,436; net gain, 557.

All the Grand Officers, sixteen Past Grand High Priests, a number of Past High Priests, and the representatives of thirty-five of the subordinate Chapters constituted the Grand Convocation.

Alabama was well represented in the person of M.·. E.·. William G. Rowland.

Grand High Priest, M.·. E.·. Edwin Hugh Van Patten was absent from the Grand Jurisdiction during the winter months on account of the health of his wife. This was known to be so when he was elected and inducted into office, and so the Deputy Grand High Priest was in charge for a large part of the time. He visisted three Chapters, issued ten dispensations, received and requested courtesies, attended two invasions of jurisdiction, arrested one charter, rendered one decision as to residence, and recommended the recognition of Grand Chapter of British Columbia.

During the year the Companion of his mature years had passed beyond our ordinary ken. Grand Chapter did a graceful and thoughtful act in spreading upon its minutes a gracious memorial to her as wife and lady.

The Deputy Grand High Priest Frederick L. Junick, filed a report of his acts and doings as Deputy Acting Grand High Priest. He also issued dispensations of the ordinary kind and refused others; received and made requests for courtesies, approved several by-laws, ruled that physical disqualification barred membership in the Chapter, reverting to Grand Lodge law, when he had an opportunity to set Grand Chapter on the right line.

He recommended a by-law governing stated convocations when they happened to fall on December 24 or 25, which met approval of Grand Chapter.

It seems that revised ritual of General Grand Chapter is being used, and giving trouble to the Chapter officers.

The Committee on Educational Literature reported the joint preparation of a booklet that could be sold at two cents, half the cost, and of the 10,000 copies printed about 3,000 remained unsold.

This writer would like very much to see a copy. Masonry needs no one thing so much as a Masonic primer.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized, and interchange of Grand Representatives authorized.

Other matters receiving attention were reports of inspections, committee reports and enactment affected with a purely local interest.

The Annual Convention Order of High Priesthood was held May 3, 1920, at which routine business was transacted.

Twenty High Priests and Past High Priests were found worthy and were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

Grand Secretary Yancey C. Blalock submitted his thirtieth report on Correspondence. It would appear that he should be classed among the veterans. He tells us, being Grand Secretary, that on account of the high cost of printing, his report will be mainly statistical, and follows out his program.

Alabama, 1919, has accurate statistical review, as were the others reviewed. He and Comp. Eggleston of Virginia have a set-to about it, but Blalock refuses to change his mind or his methods.

M.·. E.·. Frederick Lau Janeck, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Yancey C. Blalock, Grand Secretary.

WEST VIRGINIA, 1919.

FORTY-NINTH ANNUAL, CHARLESTON, NOVEMBER 10TH, 1919.

Chapters, 43; membership, 8,156; net gain, 624.

With the exception of the Grand Royal Arch Captain, all the Grand Officers were in their stations when Grand Chapter was convened. Fourteen Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of 36 subordinate Chapters, and the members of permanent Committees made up the Grand Chapter.

The Grand Representatives were received with the usual honors, Alabama being present in the person of E.·. Comp. James A. Bryan.

The Grand High Priest, Benj. A. Caruthers, after his introductory remarks, made feeling reference to the passing of Past Grand High Priest Kephart D. Walker. He was also chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, and will be missed by the "Guild" as well as by his Companions of West Virginia.

He reports two invasions of jurisdiction, both of which had satisfactory adjustment, and happy termination.

For good reasons he refused three dispensations and granted one. One Chapter was given dispensation to begin work, and was chartered by Grand Chapter.

Two decisions were rendered, both of which received the O. K. of Jurisprudence Committee.

E.·. Comp. William E. Krupp was appointed chairman of the Committee on "Foreign Correspondence," and the Grand High Priest felt assured that he would be able to file a report. We have not been able to find it.

Grand Secretary and General Grand Secretary Conover had a run in about dues and returns. The Grand High Priest was called in to umpire it, but fails to tell us how he settled the scrap. We note that the Grand Secretary did not succeed himself, but do not get any intimation that this was the reason.

Grand High Priest devotes a large part to the separation of the Capitular from the Cryptic Rite, and while he advises it, the stipulations he lays down make the Cryptic Rite a mere appendix to the Chapter.

Others matters treated have reference to the condition of the Rite, and to local affairs.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was granted recognition and an exchange of Grand Representatives.

The Special Committee on the surrender of the Cryptic Rite made a lengthy report, which was tabled. Rather a curious performance in a Grand Chapter. The character of the report does not appear from the proceedings, but the Secretary says, "The Secretary was instructed to make record of above."

The Order of High Priesthood held a convention on Tuesday, November 11th, 1919, but the report is mutilated to such an extent, by omissions evidently, that no information can be gleaned from it.

There is no report on Correspondence, although it appeared in the proceedings that Companion Krupp would file it in time for publication.

M.·. E.·. Thomas M. Turner, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. G. M. Ford, Grand Secretary.

WISCONSIN, 1920.

Seventieth Annual, Milwaukee, February 17th, 1920.

Chapters, 86; membership, 14,879; net gain, 1,264.

Grand Secretary was absent, as was Grand Master 3rd veil. Their places were supplied, and we learn later on that sickness was responsible. Seeing that Grand Secretary was re-elected we assume that the condition of his health has improved. We sincerely trust that such is the case.

Representatives from all but two of the subordinate Chapters were present; as were fifteen Past Grand High Priests, thirty-five Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama, we regret to note, was not one of them.

The address of Grand High Priest M.·. E.·. George H. Keenan, was a clear account of his stewardship. From it we glean dispensations were granted to form four Chapters, three of which were granted charters, while the other was not instituted. Application for another Chapter came too late, and was passed on to his successor.

An unusually large number of requests were made and received for courtesies.

He was liberal in his recommendations for extra compensation and relief.

He announced the passing of the following Past Grand High Priests during the year: M.·. E.·. Comps. A. J. Wallace, Jonathan H. Evans, and S. F. Veeder. Fitting memorials were submitted and incorporated in the minutes.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia received recognition.

Eighteen were introduced, anointed and set apart to the Order of High Priesthood, and other routine business was transacted by the Convention of Anointed High Priests.

The Correspondence report is the good work of Past Grand High Priest Samuel Wright.

As a rule the reviews are brief. Alabama, 1918, has careful review. He quotes what G. H. P. Henry F. Reese had to say relative to the Illiteracy Campaign and profanity. He also thinks the Jurisprudence Committee has rendered a report making ancient usage and custom subservient to the Constitution.

M.·. E.·. Edward T. Hayhurst, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. William W. Perry, Grand Secretary.

WYOMING, 1920.

Twelfth Annual, Rawlins, July 15th, 1920.

Chapters, 14; membership, 1,469; net gain, 191.

All Chapters but two were present by representatives. The Grand Scribe and Grand Chaplain, together with Grand Master of 1st Veil, were out of pocket, but their stations were filled.

Six Past Grand High Priests were in attendance.

Alabama and thirteen other Grand Jurisdictions were represented.

The Grand High Priest expresses the loss Grand Chapter had suffered in the passing of P. G. H. P. and Grand Secretary Adrian J. Parshall. His passing was a loss to all of us.

He granted dispensation to organize one Chapter, constituted one, and authorized another to elect and install officers. He made several visitations but did not succeed in reaching all the Chapters.

Many courtesies were received and extended. The other matters referred to by him were statistical. Grand Chapter ordered a charter to issue to the Chapter U. D., enacted a by-law as to continuous membership; granted fraternal recognition to the Grand Chapter of British Columbia, and transacted other business of a purely local nature.

On December 10, 1919, the Order of High Priesthood held a convention, elected officers, passed on the accounts of the Treasurer and Recorder, and then adjourned. On July 15, 1920, another Grand Convention was held when the M.·. E.·. President delivered his annual address, and six Companions found qualified, were duly received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

The Grand Secretary elect, P. G. H. P. Samuel Corson, writes the report on Correspondence, and does it most acceptably.

He pays splendid tribute to his friend and predecessor, M.·. E.·. Comp. Adrian J. Parshall.

Alabama 1919, was under review. He speaks of M.·. E.·. J. D. Matlock's address as being superior and ably prepared, and quotes freely therefrom. He also notes all other matters affected with a general interest.

We like his work and give him a cordial welcome to a seat on our right.

M.·. E.·. Charles W. Sheldon, Grand High Priest.

R.·. E.·. Samuel Corson, Grand Secretary.

And now Companions, as a parting shot, and something really worth considering the writer copies here for your benefit, the following new American creed, prepared and promulgated by M.·. E.·. Comp. Thomas Marshall, Vice President of the United States:

CONCLUSION.

"I believe that the American republic as instituted by the fathers constitutes the finest system of government ever ordained among men and affords the machinery for the righting of grievances without resort to violence, tumult, and disorder.

"I believe that every inequality which exists in the social and economic condition of the American people is traceable to the successful demands of interested classes for class legislation, and I believe, therefore, that practical equality can be obtained under our form of government by remedial legislation in the interest of the American people and not in the interest of any body thereof, large or small.

"I believe there is no justification in a government where officials are elected and laws made by the people, for a minority to threaten bloodshed and anarchy unless the majority shall submit to the will of the minority.

"I believe that America belongs to American citizens, native and naturalized, who are willing to seek redress for their grievances in orderly and constitutional ways, and I believe that all others should be taught, peacefully if we can and forcibly if we must, that our country is not an international boarding house nor an anarchistic cafe.

"I pledge myself to the support of these principles by my voice, by vote, and if need be by my fortune and my life, and I promise my country to train my children in this most holy faith."

Fraternally,

LAWRENCE H. LEE,
Committee.

Companion Hill was elected Recorder of this Council on December 3, 1895, and served as such continuously up to the time of his death.
