WILLIAM L. LEE.
GRAND HIGH PRIEST.

WILLIAM LOVARD LEE,

MOST EXCELLENT GRAND HIGH PRIEST

The subject of this sketch was born April 17, 1873, in Clayton, Alabama, the son of Alto V. Lee and Lillie (Lawrence) Lee. He was educated in the common schools of his native town and graduated from the University of Alabama in the year 1892. After teaching school for three years in Camden and Columbia, he was admitted to practice law in Clayton, Alabama, on November 13, 1895, which profession he has followed ever since with great success and distinction.

He served as Mayor of Columbia, Alabama, his present home, from 1900 to 1904, was a member of the State Legislature in 1907, and Chairman of the Houston County Board of Education from 1914 to 1921.

He was married on December 9, 1896, to Miss Ellen Thomas and to this union seven children have been born: William L. Lee, Jr., Wallace T. Lee, Eloise Lee, Willeen Lee, L. Vela Lee, Dorothy Lee and Alto V. Lee.

His Masonic history is as follows:

He was initiated on August 24, 1901, in Columbia Lodge No. 135, of Columbia, Alabama, passed September 29, 1901, and raised October 14, 1901, serving this Lodge as Worshipful Master during the years 1904, 1905 and 1906.

In the Grand Lodge of Alabama he is Chairman of the Committee on Appeals.

He received the Capitular degrees in Dothan Chapter No. 113, of Dothan, Alabama, on July 24, 1903; dimitting from this Chapter on May 8, 1908, to become a Charter member and the first High Priest of Columbia Chapter No. 138, of Columbia, Alabama, and serving as High Priest from 1908 to 1912 and again from 1914 to 1916.

He received the Order of High Priesthood on December 3, 1912.

In the Grand Chapter of Alabama he was appointed Grand Master of the First Veil on December 3, 1912, was successively advanced and on November 30, 1920, was elected Most Excellent Grand High Priest.

He received the Cryptic degrees in Montgomery Council No. 3, of Montgomery, Alabama, on December 2, 1912.

He was knighted in Dothan Commandery No. 25, of Dothan, Alabama, on March 25, 1908.

He is a member of Zamora Temple A. A. O. N. M. S. of Birmingham, Alabama.

As a lawyer he is regarded as one of the best of the profession; as a citizen he is esteemed as one worthy of the highest honors, and as a man he is loved and respected by all who know him for his frankness, sincerity and the honest ruggedness of his character as well as for his friendly and kindly disposition.

As a Mason he has exemplified the highest principles of the Order in his daily life. His attentive ear has ever been open to the call of his brethren and heart, brain and hand have ever been ready to use their best endeavors for them or the good of the Order.

OPENED.

The Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter was opened in due form, by the Right Excellent Deputy Grand High Priest, with prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain.

The Right Excellent Deputy Grand High Priest then ordered the Right Excellent Grand Captain of the Host and the Excellent Grand Principal Sojourner to proceed to the office of the Most Excellent Grand High Priest and inform him that the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama was now open and awaits his pleasure.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest, Companion William L. Lee, accompanied by the Right Excellent Grand Captain of the Host and the Excellent Grand Principal Sojourner, was escorted into the Grand Chapter. His entrance was proclaimed by Most Excellent Companion Charles R. Bricken, acting as Grand Marshal, the Grand Honors were given, and the Most Excellent Grand High Priest was conducted to the East.

INTRODUCTION OF DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

It being announced that Most Excellent Companion William F. Kuhn, General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America was in waiting, the Grand High Priest appointed a Committee consisting of Past Grand High Priests Henry F. Reese, Joseph D. Matlock and John H. McCormick, who retired and escorted the Most Excellent General Grand High Priest into the Grand Chapter where he was introduced to the Companions and welcomed to the Grand Chapter by the Grand High Priest as follows:

If I possessed in this moment the faculty to bring in unison delightful thought and beautiful language, then I could convey unto you, our distinguished visitor, a message of greeting worthy of the office that you so ably fill.

Permit me to say that our hearts are filled with gratitude for this hour in the history of our craft.

We greet you not only as the General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of the United States of America and its Dependencies, but as our Companion, whose love for humanity, whose discharge of duty, whose fidelity to the Craft, has promoted you to the office you now fill.

The Great Architect of the Universe has preserved your strength and vitality and brought unto us in you the mellow vintage of age, in which we find that sweetness, that beauty, that trueness, that sincerity, that dignity, that nobility, that Godliness, which the practice of our tenets give unto life. You are among noble and worthy Companions and unto you every courtesy they will extend. The hospitality of our hearts, of our lives, await your pleasure.

After being escorted to the East, and given the Grand Honors, the General Grand High Priest expressed his thanks for the welcome extended him and his pleasure at being present and stating that he would address the Grand Chapter at length later.

The Committee of Past Grand High Priests then again retired and escorted into the Grand Chapter, Most Excellent Companion George Fleming Moore, Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Alabama and Past Grand Commander of the Supreme Council 33d degree, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America. The Grand High Priest welcomed Most Excellent Companion Moore to the Grand Chapter and invited him to the East where he was given the Grand Honors. Most Excellent Companion Moore briefly acknowledged the welcome extended him by his home Companions and expressed his thanks and appreciation of the courtesies shown him.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S ADDRESS.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest then read his Annual Address, as follows:

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

The 95th Annual Convocation of the Grand Chapter brings us together in fraternal greetings and we assemble in reverence to the Great Deity to whom we shall ever look for that guidance and direction, which develops and educates those attributes of human nature, which are so beautifully portrayed in the tenets of our Order and which perfect the brotherhood of man.

In the retrospect we find that we have been human; that we have erred; that we have been forgetful of the teachings of the Craft and neglected ourselves, our homes, our country; but a review of the Order presents a picture beautiful in the portrayal of the progress of the Craft in rounding out a citizenship strong in brotherhood and so well grounded in the true ideal of democracy that the enemies of free government will be forced finally to accept its precepts, and in their awakening rejoice in the glory and educational toning of liberty and freedom; that freedom that guards the equality of man; that brings the Great Deity in worship according to the dictates of one's conscience and holds forever inseparable civil and spiritual government.

Let us never forget our mission; let us ever be watchful that the household may be faithful, ever developing more harmony and cohesion among the craft, remembering that the acme of Masonic life is complete service to humanity; that its field of activity is the advancement and betterment of mankind and an unfaltering devotion to our blessed and glorious country, the United States of America.

This hour of our life demands our most loyal, patient and consecrated patriotism to our country. Though the great war, in all its horrors, is ended and master minds are now engaged in advancing thoughts and policies to save mankind from its future horrors and to guarantee or safeguard the world from another such catastrophe and to bring about peace among the nations of the world; yet we are not secure, for in the aftermath, we find a school of thought, which, if unchecked, will destroy the fundamentals of life and the principles of free government. We should never forget that thought that is dangerous is both insidious and destructive. The torch of Bolshevism and its corollaries is burning fiercely in the lands of the world and our blessed country. The best remedy for the destruction of such thoughts is a true educational advancement and the passage of such emigration laws as will guarantee our country against such emigrants, and then the seeds of thought, which have been sown, in their interaction with other thoughts will run its course of action and die and the sequel will be a safe and salutary thought for mankind.

Companions, always teach that our system of government is ideal and that its machinery will redress any wrong. Exemplify always the beautiful tenets of our Order and your example will not only be an influence but an inspiration for life, and the seeds of discord, unrest and anarchy will not grow, but will disappear under the interdependencies of man—"All for each and each for all."

In the great International Conference for Disarmament, we see much encouragement for the establishment of that policy, which, if followed, will eventually guarantee permanent peace. But in the present, we must realize that the ambition for power and gain is still strong in nations and individuals and that the power of force must be retained for its restraint. A potent fact in disseminating the true principles of the brotherhood of man and of nations is the practice by all Companions of the teachings, the principles, and the tenets of our Craft. Does not the hour demand our constant watchfulness?

In our own state, adverse conditions have developed a spirit of unrest, and in the financial reconstruction, we should do nothing to retard the educational programme and the educational advancement of our state, county and country schools. The light and enlightenment gained from our educational progress should not be shadowed in the retrenchment of finances, and the standard, which we have so bravely and nobly advocated, should not be lowered.

There is nothing in the history of our Order that justifies the conclusion that it is a religious Order, but its entire faith is founded in the Universality of God. It is for all men who believe in God and possess character and who believe in character building. Denunciations from the head of the Papacy only strengthen us in our efforts to reach our ideal in citizenship and to give to our country that loyalty and patriotism that is due from every good citizen. We deplore the propaganda of the Knights of Columbus, whose every allegiance is to the Pope and whose very existence rests in his favor, and whose eligibility to membership alone is in being a communicant of the church of Rome. Politically we owe no allegiance to anyone but our country. Spiritually our allegiance is only to our God. Apparent obstacles only strengthen us in our allegiance to the tenets of our Craft and give us more determination to go forward as teachers of those principles, which finally will give a democracy unto mankind. Companions, ever be active in watchfulness.

OUR MASONIC HOME.

Our Masonic Home is a monument to the principles of charity and benevolence, which we teach and demonstrate in practice.

Each child trained and educated in the duties of life there, is worth the entire Masonic effort to date. We have made no sacrifice in reaching partially our ambition. If we will realize our ambition and fulfill the duty that is ours, we see our home only in its infancy. Many noble, trained and finished sons and daughters of Masons influencing and giving inspiration to life in the nobler things of life should be the ultimate desire of every Mason and such is the work of the home if we will only equip and finance it. Following the precedent of my predecessors the following circular was issued and I am pleased to say that very liberal donations were made by the Chapters, Companion George H. Thigpen, the Superintendent of the Home, reporting that the contributions received by him from the Royal Arch Chapters this year amounted to $1,280.45.

JURISDICTION OF THE
GRAND ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER OF ALABAMA
GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S OFFICE.

Columbia, Alabama, May 20, 1921.

To the High Priests, Kings, Scribes and Companions of the Subordinate Chapters of Alabama:

COMPANIONS:

One of the greatest efforts and the greatest accomplishments of Masonry in Alabama in demonstrating to the world that it is an Order of charity and brotherly love and an institution for the freedom of the human race is in the monument to all Masons—our Masonic Home. It is a splendid inspiration to life. Its rooms are filled, its demands are great, its needs are urgent. The widows and children of our beloved ones are being cared for according to the tenets of our beautiful and sacred Order. Our demands are increasing and our necessities require more finances. In the hour when all is well with us, when our numbers are increasing and when our treasury is being filled, let us forget ourselves and think of those whom the fate of adversity has overtaken, think and live in the tenets of an Order that is an institution of charity and brotherly love. Let us each demonstrate by a good donation that the principles of our lives are as great as the teachings of our Order and that we are living in an unselfish way, in love, in charity; and that the cry and need of Masons' widows are being met and that their children are being reared for good citizenship and for the usefulness of life.

To do this you must give liberally. At the Annual Convocation let this letter be read and then some one volunteer to take up contributions and see every Companion. SEND YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO COMPANION GEORGE H. THIGPEN, SUPERINTENDENT OF THE MASONIC HOME, BOX 475, MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Fraternally yours,

WILLIAM L. LEE,
Grand High Priest.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

Most Excellent Companions George A. Beauchamp, Lawrence H. Lee, Robert S. Teague, George F. Moore and myself attended the Eleventh Annual Convention of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association held at Alexandria, Virginia, February 21st and 22nd, 1921, as representatives of this Grand Chapter. The Masons of Alabama should recognize and appreciate more fully the purposes of this Association. We have not given the Association the moral and financial support that our allegiance to the Craft demands. A memorial to the life of Washington as a Mason should commend itself to every thoughtful and active Mason.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OF THE UNITED STATES.

Companions George F. Moore, Robert S. Teague, Lawrence H. Lee, George A. Beauchamp, Henry F. Reese, Joseph D. Matlock, Albert E. Pace, John Philip Melvin, William W. Ransom, John H. McCormick, Norman Gunn, William E. Bingham, Robert T. Ward, Jacob Bley, Joseph Leon Gunter and myself attended the Triennial Convocation of the General Grand Chapter of the United States at Asheville, N. C., as your representatives.

It was an ideal place for entertainment and nothing was left undone for our pleasure. Such meetings are broadening in their effect and are very beneficial to the Craft. As your representatives we stood for the sovereignty of our Jurisdiction, and it is my opinion that no constitution should ever be adopted, which will destroy the sovereignty of the Jurisdiction of the respective states.

Harrison as High Priest, Hal H. Fleming as King and William A. Stanley as Scribe.

DISPENSATION TO CONTINUE WORK.

On October 17, 1921, I issued a dispensation to Ben Bricken Chapter No. 99 to continue work until this Convocation of the-

Grand Chapter, their Charter having been lost or destroyed, and I recommend that a duplicate charter be granted them free of charge.

DISPENSATION TO MEET TEMPORARILY IN HALL OF ANOTHER CHAPTER.

On February 7, 1921, I granted Bessemer Chapter No. 110 permission to meet temporarily in the hall at Brighton, on account of repairs being made to their own hall.

They having failed to elect officers at the constitutional time, I granted dispensations to the following Chapters, allowing them to elect officers:

December 13, 1920, Hartselle Chapter No. 140.

July 1, 1921, Heflin Chapter No. 128.

DISPENSATIONS TO BALLOT OUT OF STATUTORY TIME.

Recognizing that it was to the interest of the Craft, I granted the following dispensations to ballot out of time and confer the degrees:

April 12, 1921, Avondale Chapter No. 156.

April 6, 1921, Coosa Chapter No. 86.

June 13th, 1921, Calhoun Chapter No. 153.

July 1, 1921, Heflin Chapter No. 128.

November 27th, 1921, Anniston Chapter No. 105.

November 27th, 1921, Calhoun Chapter No. 153.

November 30th, 1921, Langdale Chapter No. 132.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

July 20th, 1921—An appeal to Grand Royal Arch Masons of the State of Alabama from Humanitas Lodge for assistance by contributions to the "Humanitas Fund" was received by me. I refer the same to you for your most benevolent consideration.

FRATERNAL COURTESIES.

Requests were made by several Chapters to have the Chapter degrees conferred as a courtesy by subordinate Chapters in sister Grand jurisdictions upon candidates who had been elected in their respective Chapters but were unable to do so on account of their removal to other states. The official request was made through the M. E. Grand High Priests of the several jurisdictions where the sojourning brother was located and in each instance the request was promptly and cordially granted with one exception, and for which I hereby tender our fraternal thanks for these courtesies.

Many requests have also been made by sister jurisdictions, through this office, to have degrees conferred by Chapters in this jurisdiction and I am glad to say that in every case the Chapters have gladly complied with the requests.

MISCELLANEOUS.

October 12, 1921. I granted dispensation to Samson Chapter No. 137—to mortgage their lot and building for a sum not exceeding Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000.00).

February 6, 1921.—I authorized an order for another edition of the Chapter Manual, subject to the approval of the Finance Committee.

March 23, 1921.—I authorized a letter from Tyrian Chapter No. 54 to the various Chapters of the state for assistance in the sale of bonds for the Pike County Masonic Hospital.

DECISIONS.

Query No. 1. If a Master Mason, who is a Chapter Mason, is suspended from a Blue Lodge and then reinstated in said Blue Lodge, does the reinstatement automatically reinstate said Master Mason in the Chapter?

Answer. The Chapter Mason is automatically reinstated in the Chapter upon his reinstatement in the Blue Lodge.

Query No. 2. If a charter of a Blue Lodge is arrested for any cause, does it in any way affect the members thereof, who are Chapter Masons, or affect the local Chapter?

Answer. Under Edict 29, page 180 of Chapter Manual, 1920, "A Companion Royal Arch Mason, in good standing in his Chapter, has all the rights and privileges of a Royal Arch Mason, notwithstanding the Lodge of which he was a member may have forfeited its charter; Provided, such Royal Arch Mason was in good standing in the Lodge at the time of such forfeiture;" and the forfeiture of the charter of the Blue Lodge does not in any manner affect the local Chapter.

Query No. 3. Edict 18, page 178 of Chapter Manual, 1920. Does this edict authorize an objection upon the part of any member of the Chapter, without stating his reasons, to the reception of a candidate after his election, at any other place than in the Chapter?

Answer. Any member has a right to interpose objection to the reception of a candidate, without stating his reason, and this objection can be interposed at any time or place and the candidate cannot receive the degrees until the objection is withdrawn.

Query 4. If the objection is made to the High Priest when is it effective?

Answer. It is effective from the moment it is made to the High Priest.

Query 5. What are the duties of the High Priest when objections to the reception of a candidate are interposed outside of the Chapter?

Answer. It is his duty to communicate same to the officers and members of the Chapter and to protect the Chapter in preventing it from conferring the degrees.

Query 6. Can or may the G. H. P. grant permission or dispensations to Chapter to confer the degrees upon brethren who have arms cut off, lower limbs off or otherwise maimed?

Answer. The G. H. P. is without authority to grant permits or dispensations or authorize Chapters to receive and confer degrees upon the brethren so maimed or crippled. Rule 20 of the Constitution on page 174 of the Chapter Manual, 1920, makes the subordinate Chapter the judge of the physical deformity and whether the candidate is so physically defective as to prevent him from conforming to the requirements of the several degrees.

Query 7.—Would a brother, who had been ordained a Minister of the Gospel and preached occasionally be allowed his initiation fees in a Chapter?

Answer. If he is an ordained minister and his avocation is preaching, the fact that he preaches occasionally and not regularly, does not preclude him from being allowed his initiation fees. He can be actively engaged in ministerial work and only preach occasionally. The edicts authorize subordinate Chapters to give to ministers of the gospel, who are actively engaged in ministerial work, their initiation fees and dues.

STATE OF THE ORDER.

The past year shows an increase in membership that is very gratifying. The co-operation given my administration by the companions and the officers of the Grand Chapter have made possible the success obtained. I am especially indebted to our most efficient Grand Secretary, whose guidance and advice has been indispensable to the administration of my office. Some Chapters are merely existing, but brighter days are before them and soon they will be doing their usual good work. The subordinate chapters are showing a more intelligent appreciation of the beauty, the dignity, and the solemnity of the ceremonial and ritualistic work, and the future promises a complete abandonment of the "horse play" which formerly was the chief entertainment of some Chapters in conferring the degrees.

CONCLUSION.

Beloved Companions, your confidence, partiality and esteem has brought to me and mine a heritage, priceless and golden. Words fail me and thoughts are lost in the ocean of emotions, when I attempt to convey to you my appreciation and gratitude for the exaltation to the highest office within your gift in an Order that has stood and will ever "stand proudly erect in the sunshine and clear light of Heaven, with not a marble fractured, nor a pillow fallen," ever sustained and clasped in the "ivy of filial affection."

Faternally yours,

WILLIAM LOVARD LEE,
Grand High Priest.

Grand Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

Most Excellent Companion Lawrence H. Lee, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, submitted his Annual Report, which was received and ordered printed with the proceedings. (See Appendix.)

REGRETS.

The Grand Secretary read a letter from the High Priest of Woodlawn Chapter No. 146, Excellent Companion Henry F. Webb, regretting his absence from Grand Chapter on account of illness and, on motion, the sympathy of the Grand Chapter was extended to Companion Webb in his illness, with the hope for his speedy recovery.

The Grand Secretary read the following communication from the Right Excellent and Reverend Stewart McQueen, Grand Chaplain:

To the Grand Chapter, Greeting:

MY DEAR COMPANIONS: For fully twenty years I have been your Grand Chaplain. During that time I have never missed a meeting.

I have been late only once. It was caused by a church duty which it was impossible for me to forego.

I have been invited to take part in a three days' commemoration of the two hundredth anniversary of a church in South Carolina of which I was formerly the rector, and also to preach on Sunday 4th inst.

If it were an ordinary occasion I would instantly decline the invitation. Only something extraordinary would cause me to remain away from you at our Annual Meeting. It distresses me beyond measure to be absent. Personally I would much prefer to be with you.

But, I feel it would be most ungracious, under the circumstances, to refuse this invitation and disappoint those people, who, after the lapse of many years still remember me kindly and desire my presence on what is, to them, a great occasion.

I venture to believe you will enter into my feelings and forgive my absence from this meeting. With the prayer that you may be blessed in your forthcoming deliberations, I am,

Faithfully yours,

STEWART MCQUEEN,

Grand Chaplain.

GENERAL GRAND HIGH PRIEST'S ADDRESS.

Most Excellent Companion William F. Kuhn, General Grand High Priest of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States of America, delivered the following most interesting, instructive and eloquent address:

Most Excellent Companion, and Companions of the Grand Chapter of Alabama:

I deem it a great privilege to visit this Grand Chapter and to get into fraternal touch with the Freemasons of this State. Even to the casual observer, it has been apparent the great strides that you have been, and are making, in civil and Masonic prosperity. Masonically, you have gone forward with leaps and bounds. It has been my pleasing duty to write the report on Correspondence for the Grand Commandery of Missouri, and have thus been enabled not only to review the Proceedings of your Grand Commandery but also to note your growth. The facts found therein shadow forth, not only what the Commanderies are doing, but what has been done in your Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter and Grand Council. A Grand Commandery is a mirror, that reflects the activities of those Masonic Bodies upon which it is dependent. Your Grand Commandery for two years lead all of the Grand Commanderies in the United States in percent of numerical growth. This growth has been phenomenal. Such conditions can only be possible, where a Grand Chapter is equally, or even more, active and aggressive. It has also been my good pleasure to meet many of your Past Grand High Priests and Past Grand Masters of the Grand Council at the Triennial Sessions, dating back to the time when H. Clay Armstrong was your Grand Secretary. During this period I have been impressed with their sterling worth and power among the Royal Craft. I had the Grand Chapter of Alabama on "my list," which accounts for my presence.

In my journey through the Masonic vineyard, and by using a sort of mental measuring stick, on all Masons that I chanced to meet, they naturally divide themselves into three classes: the King Solomon Freemason, the philosophical Freemason, and the intelligent, practical Freemason.

By the "King Solomon Freemason" is meant that credulous man who swallows every fable, myth, tradition and Masonic gossip, as actual facts and history.

He believes that King Solomon was the first Grand Master, and that the two Saints John were Master Masons, and that the Fraternity of Freemasons was actually organized and founded by King Solomon, and that we are still using the ritual that he prepared. He fails utterly to grasp the symbolism and beauty that lies underneath it all. Freemasonry to such, is a mere secret society, with certain mysterious signs, grips and words. He is proud to be a member of this "great and ancient secret society" with its wonderful secrets of giving correctly certain words, taking certain steps, and passing through a gymnastic exercise called signs. His Masonic conception does not rise any higher than that of the primitive man who formed and to whose age belongs the "secret society." The conception that Freemasonry is not a "secret society," but a brotherhood has not dawned in his intelligence, and that signs, steps and grips are mere incidentals; perhaps, useless remnants of its evolution. It is fortunate that the "King Solomon Mason" is slowly, too slowly, disappearing from our Lodges. Happy will it be when we can exultantly say: "Requiescat in pace."

The philosophical Freemason is the one who is ever up in the clouds, whose feet never touch the ground, who is forever lost in a fog bank of metaphysical speculation; often erudite, scholarly and broad in his sympathies, but so interested in attempting to solve what he thinks is the riddle of the universe, that mother earth and the mortals who dwell thereon are forgotten. He chases the digit, three, five, seven, and nine, around the world, becomes entangled in his triangles, cubes, and rectangles, until humanity is forgotten, and as it was said of the Greek philosophers, they were so interested in metaphysical abstractions that they overlooked the hungry that lay dying at their door.

It is said that the most dangerous man with a revolver, next to a bandit, is a policeman. It may also be said that the most dangerous man in the intellectual and moral universe, is a Freemason with a symbol. He can see in it and through it more things than were ever dreamed of by ordinary mortals. But the philosophical Freemason is useful, as it may set the "King Solomon Mason" to thinking—which is something he never did before.

The third class, and I rejoice that the number is increasing with wonderful strides, is the intellectual and practical Freemason. He is a reading, thinking, studious Freemason, who sees in it, above all things else, the doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man; who will use his knowledge, however meagre or great, for practical ends. Who sees in Freemasonry a brotherhood, dependent and interdependent, who believes and practices that humanity needs less of abstract, philosophical cobwebs, and theological dogma, but more of cheer; less of Egyptian Rites, now mummified, but more of good will; less imaginary symbols, but more of love; less of "tithes of mint and anise and cummin," but more of mercy, faith, and charity; who will recognize, whatever his creed may be, more fully the beautiful life and teachings of Him, who "was set as a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel."

The world is waiting for the practical application of the principles of Freemasonry of which we so much boast and extol, to existing conditions in every nation and peoples on earth. Let the pragmatic test be made of Freemasonry by vindicating its claims to the onlooker, by producing intellectual and moral growth, by contributing to the political, the ethical, the educational, and to the spiritual power of the Nation. What has and is Freemasonry doing is the all absorbing question? What answer can Capitular Freemasonry give to this question?

The practical application of the teachings of Freemasonry to every day life remains for Royal Arch Masonry to demonstrate.

Freemasonry is a beautiful allegory, which unfolds to the thinking Freemason, the interesting story of the Loss, the Recovery, and the practical application of that which we call, The Word. This is all that the great Text Book, that Freemasonry contains. The Loss is symbolized in the Lodge, and the Recovery, with its practical application to life, is symbolized in Royal Arch Masonry.

How many newly made Master Masons were disappointed in not receiving that which was promised, only to be put off with a substitute? Why the cry that bears in it a note of despair, "I fear the Master's Word is forever lost?" What great truth lies behind this denial, this disappointment? Analyze the question from every side and angle, and you will invariably come to the only conclusion that can be found—Unqualified.

It is the lamentable fact that throughout the ages, great truths have found unqualified ears. Beginning with Elijah, the first prophet, down through Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Haggai, Ezekiel, Malachi, Christ, even including many great men of modern times, they spoke words and taught truths that fell upon unqualified listeners and deaf ears. It is the old old story, of rejection, because not understood. It requires years of discipline, research and intellectual toil before arriving at the stage of being qualified to comprehend great truths. You did not receive that which you were promised, because you were not qualified in those things that "mark the perfect man."

The Chapter Degrees illustrate symbolically and teach four important and necessary lessons, which he who seeks that which was lost, who would make the recovery, must have in his heart and soul. Without a possession of the attributes herein inculcated, no recovery will ever be made, and that which was lost will forever remain in darkness.

Every Freemason is symbolically a builder, a workman, whether his place is in the quarries or shop. Every day finds him standing before the overseers to test the work by the designs laid down in the "Great Trestle Board." These designs require good work, and square work, because only good work and square work can be used in building the Temple. A square man and a square man only; a man who stands four square to the world, not a trickster, a politician, a doughface or a weather vane, is demanded.

A man who can face the world, unshaken, unashamed, a bold, uncompromising man, for all things right, is needed everywhere.

In the great search for that which is lost, such a man has taken a long step on his journey.

The words, "preparedness and "unpreparedness" have been rung into our political ears strenuously for the past few years. While it may often have been used as a political shibboleth, yet it contains therein the crying shame and curse of the American nation. Unprepared can be found written in large letters on the face of thousands in every walk in life. It is found everywhere from the highest to the lowest walk in life. Unprepared for a full grasp of existing conditions, unprepared for an honest day's work; unprepared for the adverse conditions that may arise, possessing a mere smattering of everything and a little of anything, an expert in all things, but an expert in nothing. Indifferent work, and high wages, more wages and as little work as possible, is the cry of the loafer and the tramp. I would not have you think that I am a pessimist, far from it. But facts can not be denied. We must face them. A learned judge told me recently, that in all of his experiences on the Bench, he had never seen so much indifference, incompetency and absolute disregard of law as at present; that it was not the criminal alone, but a disregard of law and incompetency was as prevalent among the so-called better-class as among the crooks. Bold defiance of law is everywhere present. Is this condition one of the exigencies or results of the world's war, when hatred, defiance, and mad passion ran riot? It may be, but it is equally true that incipient anarchists and Bolsheviki are being developed in many homes of the respectable. The boys and girls of today under the tutelage of indulgent parents and foolish grandparents are growing up undisciplined and defiant to authority. The great lessons to be taught in America today is obedience to law and to constituted authority; that he who would rule must first learn to obey; that he who would teach others must first be the pupil; that he who would be a master must first be a servant; he who would be a ruler of the Craft, must first be a craftsman; a burden bearer before presuming to be an overseer; preparedness before skill. A true Past Master is one who has stood the tests of the overseer's square, and if he would find that which is lost and recognize it, he must first learn the lessons of obedience in the severe school of discipline; to become master of himself and to be thoroughly prepared for the duties upon which he would enter.

The ceremony of the Past Master's Degree, I am sorry to say in many places, seems merely a joke to the light headed; but the real student finds in it two of the greatest truths on which the safety and perpetuity of a nation must rest. The square Mason, the prepared and disciplined Mason has made a great advance towards the Masonic goal.

The satisfaction that must come to a Freemason, when he feels and hopes that his course of life is approved of God and man, is beyond comprehension. There must have been a supreme satisfaction to King Solomon to erect the magnificent and costly Temple to Jehovah. It represented all that the Oriental mind could conceive as an offering to God. The inspiring display that marked the preliminary steps to, and the dedication of the Temple is one of sublimity and glory. The inspired writer who depicted so graphically this scene, touched the theme with more than mortal pen. Picture the Temple reflecting its golden splendor under the noon day sun, imagine the great choir chanting, antiphonally, that wonderful Psalm: "Who is the King of Glory?", listen to that inspiring prayer of the King, standing on the brazen scaffold in his rich and kingly robe; see the fire descend on the sacrificial altar, and the Temple illuminated by the Divine Presence, while the vast throng fall prostrate worshiping and praising: "For He is good, for His mercy endureth forever." Who would not liked to have witnessed this wonderful scene, unexcelled in sacred or profane history?

But has not the same scene been re-enacted in many a human heart? It may not have had the external splendor; it may not have been that of a king or a prince, but that of humble man who toiled daily, yet this individual, personal dedication partook of he same splendor, heard the same choir, uttered the same prayer, and beheld the fire descend on his meagre sacrifice, and felt the glory of the Divine Presence.

We are indeed Temple builders. Some may be building, on account of circumstances, a Temple made of bricks without straw, nevertheless it is a Temple, the best that he can build, accompanied with his best endeavor, because there are physical impediments, there are intellectual boundaries, there are spiritual limitations. "Yet, as ye did it unto the least of these, ye did it unto Me," is the Divine commendation and the glory of the Divine Presence may shine in and through it.

He who does square work, who is prepared for every moral duty that is placed upon him, who is master of himself, who has erected a Temple by the plumb line and rule of moral rectitude, who has felt the Divine Presence in his soul, would seem to be within touch of that which is lost, to know and to interpret it.

Is it possible to pass through such a course of discipline and study, and fail to find that which was lost? Yes, an unconscious selfishness may mar it all, only to end in failure. The end product, the real fruit of an intellectual life, is altruism, unselfishness.

The Temple stood complete, only after the keystone had been fitted into its place, and, as this stone, cemented the whole structure and bound the arch so thoroughly that it completed the whole edifice, so may the keystone of ones life be needed, not only to complete, to cement, to support, but to adorn our temple. That keystone is Service. "I serve" is engraved upon it.

The great age of the Jewish nation was not in its regal splendor, in its solidarity as a nation, in its armies, in its wealth, or its expansive boundaries, but its golden age was the seventy years of its captivity. The captivity was the literary age of Jewry. Out of it came its sacred writings, the collation of the remarkable history of her people, her prophetic literature and her Psalter. Had the captivity never occurred, the world would have been denied its greatest heritage—the old Testament. In the severe school of captivity emerged a people immortal, a people who were the creators of the sacred and undying literature of the world and the steadfast adherence to Jehovah.

Mark the purpose and aim of the "three weary sojourners from Babylonian captivity." That purpose was never lost in their long and toilsome journey, on foot, over rough and rugged roads, through desolation and amid ruins, but ever onward to Jerusalem, the city of their fathers. The journey was not taken to secure ease, comfort, emoluments or honor, but solely for the purpose of engaging in "the noble and glorious work of rebuilding the city and house of the Lord." This truly was a noble purpose, but it did not embrace all, as they did not expect even "the hope of a fee or a reward." This was the climax of their noble purpose. It was unselfish Service. Unstinted Service. A service to their home, to their people and to their God. What greater encomium can be given to these faithful, devout returning captives, than to say they serve. Any portion of the work, however humble their willing hands were ready to perform. The Freemason who does square work, who is master of himself, in whose heart the glory of the Eternal is ever shining, and who, unselfishly, becomes the servant of all, who lives to serve and to be of service, has found the long lost word. He is qualified to receive it, he knows it, and uses it to the ennobling of man and to the glory of his Creator.

Such is the story of Royal Arch Masonry. Such is the life to which it welcomes its devotees. Royal Arch Masonry is a search for truth. It is a sacred and holy task. It deals with immortal souls and eternal facts. It is not a jest or a joke. It is a stern reality.

My Companions, will we so consider it? Will we become students? I plead for an intelligent Royal Arch Masonry. I have but one theme of propaganda, it is the dignity, the sacredness of Royal Arch Masonry, with its wide field of historical research, and its profound moral application. Education and enlightenment in the history and moral precepts that underlie it. The Old Bible is being rediscovered by the heart of Freemasonry, and it is being studied, more than ever, by the greatest minds of today. Will Royal Arch Masonry join in this education? Will it rediscover it? If we do we can heartily and joyfully say:

"I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true;
For the Heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too.
For the cause that needs assistance,
For the wrong that needs resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I may do."

ADDRESS OF MOST EXCELLENT COMPANION GEORGE
FLEMING MOORE.

Most Excellent Companion George Fleming Moore addressed the Grand Chapter in a most interesting and eloquent manner and the Grand Secretary regrets very much indeed that it was not possible to secure a copy of the address to be printed in these proceedings.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON MASONRY AND AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP.

Most Excellent Companion John H. McCormick, Chairman of the Committee on Masonry and American Citizenship, submitted the following report and, on motion of Most Excellent Companion Henry F. Reese, the report was adopted and the Committee on Masonry and American Citizenship was made a standing committee of this Grand Chapter.

To the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

At the Ninety-Third Annual Convocation of this Grand Chapter in 1919, the following resolution was adopted, (see page 37):

"Resolved, That a Committee of Five be appointed, charged with the duty of presenting to this Grand Chapter a plan of procedure whereby the principles of Masonry and American citizenship shall be more thoroughly and efficiently translated into national life in order to promote the welfare and safety and perpetuity of our Republic."

This Committee made a report last year, which was adopted, setting forth several lines of action for the subordinate Chapters which when carried into execution would mean much for the general uplift of our State.

Pursuant to that resolution the Committee now presents for the consideration of this Grand Chapter another concrete plan whereby the spirit of the resolution may be translated into definite and utilitarian action.

There is pending before the Congress of the United States a measure known as the Towner-Sterling Bill providing for the establishment of a Department of Education with a member of the President's Cabinet as its head.

The purpose of the Bill is to foster the development of the Public Schools of the several States by financial as well as technical assistance, at the same time leaving the control of the schools in the hands of the individual States. In principle the Bill follows along lines analogous to the education system of our own State.

This Committee therefore recommends that this Grand Chapter endorse the said Towner-Sterling Bill, and further recommends that the Subordinate Chapters endeavor to enlist the support of their respective members of Congress in the passage of the measure.

Your Committee begs leave to report that since the Grand Chapter (1920) adjourned there has been a book adoption by the School Board of the State, and that your committee examined the books submitted for adoption, and called attention to certain books with a dangerous sectarian tendency, and are pleased to report that they failed of adoption.

Fraternally submitted,

LAWRENCE H. LEE,

JOSEPH D. MATLOCK,

JAMES EDWARD SEARCY,

Committee.

LABOR TO REFRESHMENT.

After prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain, the Grand Chapter was called from labor to refreshment until nine-thirty o'clock tomorrow morning.

IN GRAND CHAPTER.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 6, 1921.

The Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter was called from refreshment to labor at nine-thirty o'clock, the Most Excellent Grand High Priest, William L. Lee, presiding, and the other Grand Officers at their respective stations.

Prayer by the Acting Grand Chaplain.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The Grand Chapter again had the pleasure of hearing from the General Grand High Priest in a splendid address on the interpretation of the Royal Arch Degree, as well as a similar address on symbolism from Past Grand High Priest George Fleming Moore. The Companions present were greatly edified and charmed with the words of wisdom which fell from the lips of these distinguished Companions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE.

Most Excellent Companion Lawrence H. Lee, Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence, submitted the following reports and they were severally adopted:

To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama:

Your Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence to which was referred the decisions of the Grand High Priest, beg leave to report as follows:

We approve decision No. 1, and recommend that this be adopted.

As to decision No. 2, the committee report as follows: The purpose and intent of the decision is correct, but it needs qualifying. The decision quoted (Edict 29) should read "Edict 28," and the decision should be qualified so as to read "A Companion Royal Arch Mason in good standing in a Chapter has all the rights and privileges of a Royal Arch Mason, notwithstanding the lodge of which he was a member may have forfeited its charter; provided such Royal Arch Mason was in good standing in the lodge at the time of said forfeiture; and the forfeiture of the charter of the Blue Lodge does not in any manner affect the standing of its members in the local Chapters; provided such members do not remain voluntarily without lodge membership, or membership in a regular Blue Lodge for a longer period than twelve months from the date of such forfeiture." As thus amended, the committee recommends its adoption.

As to decision No. 3, your committee recommends its adoption, but in order to clarify it, suggest that the following words be added: "Or the objecting Companion dies or dimits, or is suspended."

As to query five, there should be this addenda: "And he should also communicate such objection to his successor in office."

Your committee approve decisions six and seven, and recommend that they be adopted.

Fraternally submitted,

LAWRENCE H. LEE,

HENRY F. REESE,

NORMAN GUNN,

Committee.

To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Alabama:

Your Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence to which was referred the following resolution, beg leave to report that they approve of same and recommend its adoption:

"Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama, that on or about the year of 1839 A. D. the Charter then held by Cyrus Chapter No. 6, Royal Arch Masons, of the city of Florence, State of Alabama, was forfeited by reason of said Chapter having become defunct, and,

Whereas, by reason of said Charter having been forfeited, all property then held for, or by said Chapter, having constitutionally reverted to the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama, by reason of its constitution, by-laws and edicts, under which said Charter was granted, and,

Whereas, investigation develops that there is no record with the Grand Royal Chapter of the State of Alabama of any property, appurtenances or titles having come into the possession of the said Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the State of Alabama,

Now, therefore, be it resolved, That any rights, privileges, property or titles, which may have come into the possession of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, by reason of forfeiting of said Charter by Cyrus Chapter No. 6, are herewith restored in toto to the present Cyrus Chapter No. 6 of the City of Florence, State of Alabama, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter relinquishing all rights to property or titles, for and to the present Cyrus Chapter No. 6.

Resolved, further, that this resolution shall be, and become a part of the regular proceedings of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the state of Alabama, and shall appear in the minutes thereof, a copy of said minutes to be furnished Cyrus Chapter No. 6, of the City of Florence, state of Alabama."

A majority of the Committee submitted the following resolution in lieu of the one offered and the resolution as

Grand Secretary

ADDRESS OF BROTHER WARREN G. HARDING, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, DELIVERED ON THE OCCASION OF THE LAYING OF THE CORNERSTONE OF THE NEW MASONIC TEMPLE IN BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, OCTOBER 26, 1921.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Masonic Orders, My Countrymen, All:

There is not very much to be said after the ritualistic work of the Masonic Order is done at the laying of a corner stone. Have you never stopped to think that from the day of King Solomon to now the thoughtful men who believe in building, who love fraternity, who desire to live justly and uprightly, have been perfecting the ritual which you saw carried out on this occasion? I do not recall that I ever sat before at the laying of a corner stone where the ritual was employed, but I have been deeply impressed and wonderfully repaid from the joy that I received as a spectator and participant. Really, it is a wonderful thing to be a builder; and, if you stop to recall, the Order was begun by builders. One had to be a builder, and the great Order has been building in fraternity for centuries, and building always to a higher and better citizenship among those who subscribe to the oaths of the Order. I am a little hesitant to know which way to turn my face in speaking. (Cries of "This way; this way.") But on the assumption that I speak to more outside of the Order on my right than on my left, I want to say to those outside the Order that there is not anything in the ritual or the oath of the Masonic Order that any free, righteous and just American could not be proud to subscribe to, and be a better citizen for doing it. (Loud applause).

I think there are some wrong impressions about the Masonic Order. I happen to come in contact with some of them in my official work. I know nothing about it, in a single note I ever heard sounded, that is not in consonance with the best thought and the best aspiration, and the highest conception of American justice I have ever known from any quarter. (Applause). I know I am a better citizen for being a better Mason. Sometimes—and there are moments of anxiety when one wonders what the morrow will bring forth—but I can say it publicly—I find myself heartened, my courage strengthened, and my hopes refreshed, because I know there is this great fraternity which is ever ready to give of its all for the maintenance of law and order and of our government. (Applause).

I do not disparage, my countrymen, any other Order which teaches the same fundamental truths of fraternity. I believe in fraternity with all my heart. Mankind craves it. Somehow God Almighty put it in the hearts of all living things to be fraternal. You find it among the beasts of the fields; you find it among the flocks of the air; you find it among men in their ordinary pursuits, among the working men in their organizations; you find it among the professional men in theirs. Man craves fellowship and fraternity, and the co-operation of his fellows. And, because we are a great republic, we are able to preach fraternity and understanding and a better order to all the people of the world, and America is leading toward a great accomplishment in that direction. (Applause).

I do not mean to unseemly boast, but I believe with all my heart, my fellow Americans, that the day has come when the people of the United States of America can look into the faces of the people of Europe, and can look into the faces of the people of Asia and of Africa and of South America, and ask themselves the question, Why not fraternity among peoples? Why should we make war? Why should we seek that which belongs to the other? There is nothing in our own sphere and in our own possessions to impel us to the greatest accomplishment in life without in any way restricting justice among people. I believe, my countrymen, just as firmly as I know I stand before you today, that in this new consciousness, in this new understanding of the utter futility of conflict, and the excessive burdens of armament, we are going to accomplish a new step forward in the world. (Applause).

I hope when the casket of the memorials of today is opened some day far distant in the future, they will find somewhere in the souvenirs of this day an expression of the aspiration of our United States of America in 1921 for peace with honor and justice for all the world. Nay, more, I hope, and I believe, that somewhere there will be an expression of our aspirations for human advancement, which shall be revealed when this stone is opened, much more notable than we see it today as I stand in the shadow of your first Temple, erected only fifteen years ago, when you thought it was large enough. Yet, in the growth of this fraternal idea, and in the growth of your community, and in the strengthened popularity of the fraternalism that Masonry represents, you are building today a temple apparently four times the size, which is an outward manifestation of this onward movement of just and righteous relationships among men. I hope, sirs, that this occasion will be just one more expression of the continued advance of the principles and purposes and the higher ideals which are taught—nay, which are demanded of the members of the Masonic Order. (Applause).

May I express one thing more, that out of the exercises of today we learn a thing valuable to us as a nation and a people? I do not believe that there has been very much difference in the methods of cornerstone laying from the days of Solomon down to now. That is because there are certain fundamentals in life that are never changed; and sometimes I think it is well for us to remember that in government there are certain fundamentals, in representative popular government, that are never changed, and I want our Republic to cling fast to these fundamentals. I want them to appraise properly the inheritance of the American constitution on which we builded, after wiping out the ambiguity in it, the reunited and glorious American Republic. (Applause). I don't want anything in there surrendered for a passing whim.

Since I have ventured to speak of our aspiration for world peace and fraternity, I would like to say in the same connection that we do not ever intend to surrender any of our national rights to bring it about. (Applause). And we do not think we need to do it. We only ask nations to look each other in the face and do justly. There is not a thing the United States of America wants from anybody else in the world. (Applause). It has been said again and again that we seek no territorial aggrandizement. No nation has any of the material wealth or privilege or enjoyment that we seek to take away at their expense. We only want to live and achieve, first for ourselves, and make the contribution of those among God's favorite people to the advancement of human kind. We are willing to share our fortunes; we are willing to do the things that are good, and that God above would want us to do—to deal in that human relationship which was taught in the Ten Commandments and respoken in the Golden Rule, and to live justly and to do righteously, and contribute to His glory by adding to the welfare of mankind. (Prolonged applause).

c June; there being no convocation in January, the Grand Chapter being declared irregular by the General Grand Chapter, it was therefore re-organized in June, 1827, and a new constitution adopted.

d December. At this time annual convocations were changed to July.

e July; in accordance with previous order, and at the same time henceforward until otherwise noted.

f No election, the Grand Chapter having "adjourned" on the evening of July 14th, until the next evening; but it did not convene again, the members having dispersed.

g There had been no convocation of the Grand Chapter for upwards of seven years, in consequence, perhaps, of the Morgan excitement. In December, 1837, a few companions assembled in Tuscaloosa and re-organized by the adoption of a constitution, and the election of Grand Officers. The constitution of 1827 was adopted, and the annual convocations fixed for December.

ALBERTA, 1921.

7TH ANNUAL, EDMONTON, MARCH 9TH AND 10TH, 1921.

Chapters, 24; membership, 2,491; net gain, 246.

The Grand Chapter is officered after the English custom, and it is difficult for one accustomed to the American way to say just whether all of them were present that should have been there. At any rate one of the Grand Council—Hiram Darling, Grand H., was absent, being in Pennsylvania, recuperating from a recent illness. We trust that he found health and strength, and is now enjoying the duties of his high office, he having been duly elevated to the rank of Grand Z.

Twenty-two of the twenty-four constituent chapters were represented, and four of the Past Grand First Principals were present. One had passed on to the other plane, and his loss was duly recorded and suitable memorial submitted, Past Grand First Principal Andrew R. Dickson.

Twenty-four Grand Jurisdictions were represented, and their legates received with due honors.

The annual report of the Grand First Principal, M. E. N. T. Macleod, dealt altogether with his duties and official acts. He was able to pay an official visit to eighteen of the chapters, some of them several times, and seems to have enjoyed the work. Waived the time required between the Master's degree and the Capitular degrees in two instances, and declined to do so on another occasion. Received courtesies from other Grand Jurisdictions, but refused such a request from Maine—no reason given.

The Superintendents of Districts (five in number) were busy during the year, and their reports are clear cut, and without fear or favor. On the whole, conditions seem good in this Grand Jurisdiction.

The first Annual Convention of the Grand Council Order of High Priesthood was held during this convocation, and seven qualified candidates were received, anointed, set apart and consecrated to the Holy Order. A fine beginning, may the Order grow rapidly here.

The committee on Foreign Correspondence, consisting of three, filed a report following the "Topical Plan." It is as interesting as such reports usually are, but not easily reviewed. Alabama appears not to have reached the editorial table.

ARIZONA, 1921.

31ST ANNUAL, BISBEE, FEBRUARY 9TH, 1921.

Chapters, 10; membership, 1,119; net gain, 106.

The photo of Grand High Priest Edwin A. Hughes represents him as a handsome, but serious-minded young man, and as we read further it develops that he was a candidate for State office, and of necessity of a serious turn when the photo was taken. He does not tell us just what office he ran for, but it prevented his visiting the Chapters, except his own, which was, to say the least, commendable in him. He leaves us to guess that he was successful, as he mentions moving into his new home in Phoenix. His annual address otherwise dealt with "Our Fraternal Dead," the approval of by-laws, and the appointment of Grand Representatives.

The roster of Grand Officers, except Grand Master of 2nd Veil, was complete; ten chapters were represented; twelve Past Grand High Priests were there to aid with the counsel and advise, and twenty-five Grand Jurisdictions were present by their representatives, Alabama not being one of them. The finances and other interests of Grand Chapter seem to be in a healthy condition.

The passing of Past Grand High Priest James Manoah Swetnam is noted with sorrow and proper memorial.

The Grand Council Order of High Priesthood met in annual convention, elected officers, had a financial report, and adjourned. So far as is disclosed no candidates received the Holy Orders.

There is no correspondence report.

ARKANSAS, 1920.

71ST ANNUAL, LITTLE ROCK, NOVEMBER 18TH AND 19TH, 1920.

Chapters, 88; membership, 6,407; net gain, 981:

Grand Chapter includes in its line of Grand Officers the Grand Lecturer and the Fraternal Correspondent, and thus has a longer line than the average Grand Chapter in the U. S. Nevertheless, they were all present; also nine Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of sixty of the constituent chapters. Being in the line of Grand Officers, Alabama's representative, E. Fielding W. Harris, was present, as were the Grand Representatives of twenty-two other Jurisdictions.

M. E. Companions Charles N. Rix and Fay Hempstead, being officers of the General Grand Chapter and General Grand Council, respectively were, as usual, received with distinguished honors. Past Grand Master John H. Cowles, of Kentucky, was present, was presented, and received with Grand Honors, and later spoke so well on the objects and purposes of the George Washington Memorial Association as to help Grand Chapter to come across to the tune of $1,000. He was also Secretary General of the Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction (now Sovereign Grand Commander) and must have spoken movingly of the Scottish Rite, for Grand Chapter did the unusual and donated $2,000.00 to a Masonic Temple being erected under Scottish Rite management.

The annual message of the Grand High Priest Edgar A. McCulloch, was short, and devoted altogether to matters coming under his official eye. He reports an uneventful year, except an unusual gain in numbers and enthusiasm, which to any one but a Scotchman would seem a very eventful year. Dispensations to institute two chapters were issued, and the record contains the fact that another was instituted, but as there is no record of another dispensation issued it will be presumed, for the time being, that the Chapter was constituted. Hope it thrives, whatever may have happened to it. One charter was arrested and one restored that had formerly been arrested.

Six decisions were rendered, each of which was approved as rendered. One is to the scribe's especial liking, namely: "An objection to the advancement of a candidate holds good for only three months and to be effective, must be renewed."

Grand Secretary M. E. John C. Bone was enthusiastic over the splendid increase in numbers, and the larger amount of cash coming into the coffers of Grand Chapter. Our own Beauchamp has the same admirable failing.

The Ritual Committee recommended a change in the narrative, and also suggested a change to conform to General Grand Chapter so far as to comply with the essentials, but no further.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia had recognition, and an exchange of Grand Representatives.

A careful survey of the volume, as well as of the index, fails to reveal any reference to the Order of High Priesthood.

Without prologue or farewell M. E. Companion Mark P. Olney runs rapidly through the Grand Chapters from Alabama to Wyoming. He notes the appointment of a new committee on correspondence for Alabama and hopes for a report from him. The Grand Secretary failed to so notify the writer, and he has committed the double crime of assuming the position and drawing down the compensation. Will have to investigate that and report to next Grand Chapter.

However that may be, it is to be hoped that Companion Olney will give more time to his reviews, and so give us the benefit of more of himself.

BRITISH COLUMBIA, 1921.

3RD ANNUAL, VICTORIA, JUNE 21ST, 1921.

Chapters, 19; membership, 2,038; net gain, 207.

All of the Grand Officers, two Past Grand Z's, and the representatives of fifteen of the constituent chapters, and delegates from two U. D. made up Grand Chapter. Grand Representatives from seventeen Grand Jurisdictions were presented and received with cordial and appropriate honors. Alabama does not seem to have Grand Representative at this court.

M. E. Grand Z., Edward B. Paul, had changed the time to meet conditions arising after adjournment of Grand Chapter, and sought the approval of Grand Chapter, which was freely given, since it enabled all the Companions and their ladies to be present and participate in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. He expressed the hope that some of those present would be permitted to participate in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Grand Chapter, when medals would be struck with the profile of M. E. Comp. Watson, the founder of the Grand Chapter.

The historian of Companion Paul speaks in glowing terms of his Masonic ability and research, and his actions in building up his Grand Chapter during the year amply sustain the high opinion held of him by Grand Chapter. He was industrious in a most intelligent way, and deserved the commendation of the companions. He organized two chapters U. D., and visited ten chapters, this being some accomplishment in this land of magnificent distances.

Unusual for a new Grand Chapter, no decisions were asked for, thus showing that harmony prevailed, or his officers of constituent chapters were well versed in capitular law.

Ritual committee advised the continued use of Canada Grand Chapter ritual, until further notice, but were authorized to prepare a ritual for the P. M. degree, Canada having no P. M. degree, and communicate it to the Grand Superintendents of Districts, they to communicate it to the officers of the constituent chapters.

Splendid reports were submitted by the other Grand Council officers, and the Grand Superintendents of Districts, some of whom had the rank and title of Past Grand Z conferred upon them for distinguished service. Grand Chapter however, declined to establish the doubtful precedent of conferring the rank and title of Past Z upon a faithful Scribe E, who had stood aside to do his work and let others advance, although his chapter strongly urged the honor. Many other matters of purely local interest were transacted.

Looking ahead this writer expects soon to see the Order of High Priesthood established in the domains of British Columbia.

R. E. Comp. John W. Prestcott submits an entertaining report covering forty-nine Grand Jurisdictions. He is an accomplished writer and extracts with discrimination. Alabama 1920 pleases him, and comments and extracts liberally, for which he has Alabama's appreciation.

Here's hoping that the acquaintance may become more personal.

CALIFORNIA, 1921.

67TH ANNUAL—LONG BEACH—APRIL, 1921.

Chapters, 124; membership, 17,240; net gain, 2,026.

This is an unusually small volume of proceedings for California.

Credentials Committee reported the presence of all the Grand Officers, six Past Grand High Priests, twenty-eight Grand Representatives, (Alabama not included), ten survivors of the earthquake and fire, the representatives of ninety-nine of the chartered chapters, delegates from two chapters U. D. and ninety-three Past High Priests, not otherwise accounted for.

The distinguished visitors present were the General Grand High Priest, Comp. Frederick W. Craig; R. E. Grand Standard Bearer, Perry W. Weidner, of the Grand Encampment; R. E. Grand Commander Robert Warnowski, of California, and Grand Master Ernest E. Ford, of the Grand Council of California.

Grand High Priest Harry Maundrell reports a most prosperous year in capitular affairs. He instituted three chapters U. D. He reports with eloquent sorrow the passing of Past Grand High Priest William Whittingham Lyman.

He recommended that secretaries be not required to set out in their returns the names of all the members of their chapters, reporting only those who have been added or who have been dropped for any reason from the roll. The reason assigned was a complete card index in the Grand Secretary's office.

He adopted the scheme of putting other matters in an addenda to his report, saying "certain matters, such as official visitation, resolutions and amendments to by-laws acted upon, dispensations granted, and other such matters being of special interest only to individual chapters or members. I shall not take up your time with." A good plan for other Grand High Priests to follow.

We note in the addenda that Signet Chapter No. 57, at Los Angeles, conferred for Anniston Chapter No. 105, Anniston, the chapter degrees upon Christopher Bell.

In the Grand Secretary's report we note he carries Liberty and Victory Bonds at par in his "resources or assets of Grand Chapter," but deducts therefrom his balance in bank. Balance in bank looks like an asset to most folks these days.

Several important changes in the fundamental law, or standing resolutions, were proposed, some of which were adopted, and some went over.

One was to present the incoming Grand High Priest Mattison B. Jones to the General Grand Chapter as a very suitable person to start in General Grand Chapter line. This was carried in Grand Chapter and also put over in good style in General Grand Chapter.

The Sixty-second Annual Convention of the Anointed High Priests of California met on the evening of April 19 and after transacting the ordinary business, elected sixty qualified Companions to receive the Order of High Priesthood. These were duly anointed, consecrated and set apart.

The report on Correspondence is in topical form. It's the work of Comp. Hugh K. McKeivitt, and is very good of its kind. Many jurisdictions are examined, but do not appear to have considered many of the things topically headed. The only time that Alabama finds a place is in an excerpt from the report of Comp. McKay of Mississippi.

CANADA, 1921.

63RD ANNUAL—LONDON, ONT., FEBRUARY 3RD, 1921.

Chapters, 162; membership, 23,525; net gain, 2,901.

Notwithstanding the fact that, in recent years, two Grand Chapters have been given birth and sustenance by the Grand Chapter of Canada, it is one of the large and important Chapters of the world.

One hundred and twenty-seven chapters had representatives present. The Grand H. was absent on account of illness, but as he was advanced to Grand Z, we assume and sincerely hope, he has entirely recovered.

Distinguished guests from the Grand Chapters of New York and Michigan and from the Grand Lodge and Grand Priory of Canada were present. There was also civic as well as fraternal welcome. Only twenty-three Grand Representatives were present, Alabama's legate not being among the number.

The annual address of the Grand Z, Lt. Colonel William Nisbet Ponton, K. C., was a noteworthy paper. He says the outstanding feature of the year was his month spent in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, including an itinerary of mileage and distance of which he did not deem any man capable until after it was performed. Of that wonderful land of magnificent distances he says:

It seems all like one great field of the cloth of gold studded with jewels. "East is East and West is West, but there is neither East nor West, border, nor breed, nor birth, when good strong men come face to face though they come from the ends of the earth." I was told at Fort William that I was going to a Country where every mound was a mountain, every rivulet a river and every man a loyal liar; but no mendacity was needed. The harvest of story was only half told—the patriotic picture only half painted. I realized the great and buoyant Country of the young man, in whose foundation and upbringing Ontario had so large a share. Their favorite hymn or rather paeon is —“Where does the West begin?”

The question is answered by them in this wise—

“Out where the sky is a little bluer,
Out where friendship's a little truer,
Out where the hand clasp's a little stronger,
Out where the smile dwells a little longer:
That's where the West begins.
Where there is more of singing and less of sighing,
Where there is more of giving and less of buying,
And a man makes friends without half trying:
That's where the West begins.”

Twelve chapters were instituted by him, or under his direction, during the year.

Many decisions were made having reference to the laws of that Grand Jurisdiction, most of which accord with the laws and customs prevailing here.

The other members of the Grand Council, and the Grand Superintendents of Districts, filed illuminating reports, indicating a most healthful condition of affairs in the various Chapters of this Grand Jurisdiction.

The Grand Scribe E had a report to warm the hearts of all loyal R. A. Masons, saying, among other good things, “This year we have no delinquent chapters.”

The sum of $2,690.00 was distributed as benevolence to Companions and the widows of Companions deceased.

For the sixth time E. Comp. Edward N. Brown gives us a very enjoyable report on Correspondence. Alabama 1919 has careful and intelligent review, as does the other Grand Jurisdictions coming to his table. Wish we could excerpt from his splendid report.

CONNECTICUT, 1921.

123RD ANNUAL—HARTFORD—MAY 10TH, 1921.

Chapters, 40; membership, 12,953; net gain, 1,363.

Past Grand High Priest Eugene A. Hall was present, representing Alabama, together with twenty-nine other Grand Representatives.

In making report of membership, Grand Officers, Grand Trustees, Committees and Past Grand Officers are included. They were all present, that is to say, so far as appears. There should have been, and the writer thinks was, plenty of wisdom, for fifteen Past Grand High Priests and one Past Dep. Grand High Priest were present and scattered about on committees.

The General Grand Chapter, Grand Chapters of New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Canada had distinguished Companions present. It is unnecessary to say that many most flattering and companionable remarks were indulged in, that all enjoyed it, and will have nothing to regret unless the Recording Angel should disagree with them in some minor particulars.

The passing of Past Grand High Priest Gilbert L. Hewitt was noted with sorrow and fitting memorial.

The larger portion of the Annual Report of Grand High Priest Henry R. Tisdale, is taken up in recording his official visits. His rating of the work shows need of some considerable instruction if his figures refer to proficiency in the work.

He waived the physical defect rule in two instances. Why not abolish it, or leave it to the discretion of the chapter petitioned.

Three new chapters were established U. D. He found quite a want of uniformity in the work, and Grand Chapter raised a committee to report a plan to bring about the proper method of conferring the work. The other Council officers visited the chapters assigned to them, and all report conditions to be excellent, but complained of want of uniformity in the work. George Allen Kies ought to do like George Allan Beauchamp, and show them how it should be done.

Next to the report from the Committee on Grievances, the shortest report was from the Committee on Necrology.

The Annual Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests met May 10th, 1921, in the city of Hartford, transacted routine business and received, consecrated and set apart to the "Holy Order of High Priesthood in Royal Arch Masonry" twenty-four qualified Companions.

A special Grand Convention was held at West Haven on Nov. 29th, 1920, and eight qualified Companions received the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion George Allen Kies, Past Grand High Priest, present Grand Secretary and Grand Correspondent, and otherwise all right, submitted his 13th Annual Report, and there was nothing unlucky about it that we have so far discovered. Perhaps another year may tell a different tale when some of the Correspondents have had a fling at it, but not this one.

His reviews are always entertaining, and to one who knows him personally, seems like a conversation with him. He treats Alabama 1920 fine, and likes some of the things ye reporter had to say. Thanks, and we are still of that same opinion.

Would like to excerpt some of his sayings in commenting on the various Grand Jurisdictions, but Grand Secretary says these reports are too long as it is.

His comments on General Grand Chapter ritual are rich and racy, but find an answering approval in our mind.

However, when you come to think seriously on the subject of General Grand Chapter, the only thing left, after electing officers and having a good time, to justify its existence, is tampering with the ritual or changing the constitution and by-laws.

DELAWARE, 1921.

53RD ANNUAL, WILMINGTON, JANUARY 19TH, 1921.

Chapters, 5; membership, 1,910; net gain, 150.

With the exception of Grand Chaplain and Grand Master of 2nd Veil, and Grand Principal Sojourner, all the Grand Officers were present. The Grand Chapter of Delaware is one of the few Grand Chapters which has Past Deputy Grand High Priests, Past Grand Kings, Past Grand Scribes and Past Grand Treasurers, but it has quite a number as a glance at the Credentials Committee's report will demonstrate. Ten Past Grand High Priests were present, two Past Deputy G. H. P.'s, four Past G. K.'s, five Past Grand S.'s, and three Past Grand Treasurers, together with quite a flock of Past High Priests.

The address of Grand High Priest, George L. Dickinson, was short, dealing only with his official acts. He recommended, and Grand Chapter adopted, that one lunar month elapse between the conferring of each of the degrees, Past Master excepted, and that this degree might be conferred in conjunction with the M. M. or M. E. M.

Grand Chapter voted not to adopt the General Grand Chapter ritual. One chapter, Kent No. 8, was granted a charter.

The Convention of High Priests was held December 30, 1920, at Wilmington, and after transacting the ordinary business, received and advanced to the Order of High Priesthood, four qualified Companions, thereby conferring on them the title "Excellent."

R.'. E.'. Comp. Thomas J. Day writes an interesting, but short report on Correspondence. Alabama is reported as not having been received. Sorry, and hope it will not again occur.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, 1921.

54TH ANNUAL, WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 9TH, 1921.

Chapters, 13; membership, 5,259; net gain, 803.

An emergent or special Grand Convocation was held February 28, 1920, to attend the funeral of Past Grand High Priest George Clark Ober, and to pay fitting tribute to his memory. It is a personal sorrow to the writer to have to know that he will not be able to meet Comp. Ober in the flesh, when duty or pleasure shall call him to the National Capital. The deceased M.'. E.'. Companion was indeed a most excellent and lovable man, and his demise is sincerely regretted.

All the Grand Officers, twelve Past Grand High Priests, the representatives from all the constituent chapters and Grand Representatives from thirty-eight Grand Jurisdictions made up Grand Chapter at this annual. Alabama was not represented. We hope Comp. Roberts will be able to do better next time.

The Grand High Priest, M.'. E.'. Comp. Frank J. Majors, was indisposed, but present, and desiring that his address might sound as well as it read, had R.'. E.'. Companion Roe Fulkerson to read it for him. Perhaps he also had in mind Roe's native timidity, and wanted to help break him in for the work that is ahead of him.

The address reflects the prosperity of Grand Chapter, a thing we are glad to note, for it is not long since Grand Chapter had another tale to tell.

Past Grand High Priest Walter B. Pettus had passed the veils during the year, and gone to join his Companion Ober.

He seems to separate official visits and Grand Visitations, making 232 of the former and thirteen of the latter. It is apparent that called by whatever name, he was some visitor. The other portions of his address dealt with official business of interest only to the Craft in the District.

E. J. Companion Drown submitted his 28th report as Grand Visitor and Lecturer. We note that although 84 years old he is still active and enthusiastic in the work. Grand Chapter recognized his great service and raised his salary. The book is adorned with the photos of Grand High Priest Frank Majors, Past Grand High Priests Ober, Pettus and George E. Corson.

The Annual Meeting of the Convention of Anointed High Priests was held on February 12, 1921, and after transacting routine business, the Convention proceeded to elect, receive, anoint and set apart to the Holy Order, fourteen qualified Companions.

Past Grand High Priest W. W. Jermaine submits his first report on Correspondence, succeeding Roe Fulkerson. He had his work cut out for him, but right well has he measured up. His style is lucid, and his comments intelligent and helpful. He was somewhat concerned as to the adoption of the new General Grand Chapter Constitution, and devotes a good portion of his "Foreword" to that subject. It never had a chance, and the same may be said of the new ritual, when it has had a trial.

He reviews all but four of the Grand Jurisdictions, and does it well. This writer welcomes him to the round table, and to as large a "stack" as he desires.

ENGLAND, 1920-21.

November 3rd, 1920, marked the first Quarterly, held at Freemason's Hall, London. All the officers, past and present, who were in attendance, are set out, forming the larger part of the Quarterly volume. It is also noted that Principals and Past Principals of many subordinate chapters were present.

Eleven chapters were created and attached as is the custom. Sincerity Chapter No. 261, having shown uninterrupted existence of a century was granted leave to wear Centenary jewels.

The second Quarterly, February 2, 1921, was held at same place. Fifteen new chapters were organized and attached, and ten chapters granted leave to move their quarters.

The third Quarterly was held August 3, 1921, at the same place. Fifteen chapters were chartered and attached and five chapters permitted to change their quarters.

The fourth Quarterly, and the writer judges from the contents of the pamphlet, the real Annual Convocation was held May 4, 1921, at Freemason's Hall, London. At each of these Quarterlies M. E. Companion Rt. Hon. Lord Ampthill, G. C., S. I., and G. C. I. E., presided as Pro. 1st Grand Principal. Fifteen chapters were organized and attached. Thirteen chapters were granted permission to change their location. This last Quarterly contains the statements of account, showing liberal charity donations, and a very comfortable condition of affairs as to funds and investments.

We have also received and reviewed three of the Quarterly pamphlets covering as many Quarterly meetings of the Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons, held at Mark Mason's Hall, London, held respectively August 31st, 1920; November 30th, 1920, and March 1, 1921. R. W. Rt. Hon. the Earl of Stradbroke, C. V. O., C. B., presided, after an absence of nearly six years, and was about to leave on orders from the King to the post of Governor of the State of Victoria. Suitable resolutions were passed and courteously responded to.

Warrants were granted for four Mark Lodges and four Royal Ark Mariner's Lodges. Total registered Mark Masons, 81,192. Total registered Royal Ark Mariners 15,753.

The fifty-second annual festival produced in donations and pledges the sum of £10,050. Announcement was made that the fifty-third annual festival would be held in June, 1921, and the announcement was made that the Grand Secretary would be pleased to receive the names of ladies and brethren willing to act as stewards. So they know the value of the ladies in England, as well as in Alabama.

The Grand Master, re-elected, is His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

FLORIDA, 1921.

75TH ANNUAL, JACKSONVILLE, MAY 17TH, 1921.

Chapters, 43; membership, 5,609; net gain, 1,110.

Grand Chapter reports show a gratifying increase in membership, and interest, all chapters making returns, paying dues and sending representatives.

All Grand Officers and sixteen Past Grand High Priests were present. Alabama was represented by the Grand King, and thirty-two other Grand Jurisdictions were present by representatives.

Past Grand High Priest Silas B. Wright was absent because of the serious illness of his life companion, and Past Grand High Priest W. R. O'Neal sent regrets. Telegrams of sympathy and regrets from Grand Chapter assured them they were missed.

Grand High Priest Henry O. Snow, while revelling in the wonderful gains made, called attention to the fact that many worthy M. M.'s, if properly approached, would be pleased to take the Chapter Degrees, and urged that they be given the opportunity by proper suggestion.

He records, with sorrow, the passing of Past Grand High Priest William C. Andress, and notes with sympathy the losses in other Grand Jurisdictions. Assignments for Grand Visitations seem to have been duly carried out, with the result that but few chapters were not visited.

His decisions were largely in regard to jurisdictional matters between chapters, a constant source of annoyance, and without reason except zeal to acquire candidates. The writer is pleased to see that Florida regards the physical defect rule as a matter addressed to the discretion of the chapter petitioned. The Grand High Priest observed of a brother who had lost a hand: "I deem it that the brother has suffered enough misfortune without being deprived of the privilege of becoming a R. A. Mason."

Several chapters were constituted, and two instituted under dispensation.

We note that Grand Chapter adjourned to see the work by Jacksonville Chapter, all the degrees being conferred.

Grand Chapter adopted a resolution putting a M. M., who permanently changes his residence, out in the Chapter cold for six months, holding that the chapter from whose jurisdiction he moves loses jurisdiction immediately, and the chapter into whose jurisdiction he moves cannot acquire jurisdiction until he has been in residence six months. There ought never to be a hiatus in jurisdiction so long as the brother resides in the state.

Grand Chapter did not think it expedient to meet the same week as Grand Lodge. This sounds strange to Alabama Masonic ears, and the writer thinks that on proper consideration of the advantages to be gained, Florida will reconsider. Meetings the same place and week add to the zest and numbers attending each Grand Body.

Hereafter Grand High Priest must file, with the Grand Secretary, on Saturday before Grand Chapter meets, five copies of his address and all papers, and the Committee on Jurisprudence must meet one day ahead and review the address. Well! suppose they don't like it, what are they going to do about it? Surprised at Past Grand High Priest Ketchum. Wonder what he would have said had any one attempted to delete his address, or add to it. Knowing Ketchum we would not like to have been one of the deleters or additioners.

The Annual Convention of the Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood held its meeting at Jacksonville May 18th, 1921. For some time M. E. Olin S. Wright has been E. President, and he still is. Routine business was transacted, after which sixteen Companions were found worthy and were duly presented, anointed and consecrated to the Holy Order. This writer thinks it is in order to call a General Convention and determine upon, and stick to, an uniform method of nomenclature in the splendid Order.

"For the Committee," R. E. Companion Ely P. Hubbell presents another of his interesting and instructive reviews. His "comments" are especially good and timely.

Alabama, 1920, has full and cordial treatment at his hands. He notes her efforts to be up and doing in proper Masonic work. His reference to this scribe is highly appreciated, and the hope is here expressed that he may live up to the measure of Companion Hubbell's opinion.

GEORGIA, 1921.

99TH ANNUAL, MACON, APRIL 27TH, 1921.

Chapters, 165; membership; net gain,

There is no way from the report to arrive at the membership and net gain, without the use of an adding machine, a luxury not usually needed in ye scribe's calling. Hence the blanks above.

The Grand Chapter was held surrounded by the sorrow engendered by the death of Grand High Priest Joseph C. Greenfield, and of Past Grand High Priest Henry Banks. Both of these Companions deserved and had the love, respect and confidence of all who came in contact with them, either as men or Masons, and their places will be indeed hard to fill.

The writer feels a personal loss in their passing, and can sympathize with his Companions of Georgia, although unable to put that sympathy in words.

Ninety-five chapters were represented, eleven Grand Officers, eleven Past Grand Officers, thirty-nine Grand Representatives, thirty Past High Priests and the representatives of the Chapters constituted the Grand Body.

Grand King and Acting Grand High Priest (Georgia has no such office as Deputy Grand High Priest) Welby C. Jordan, in his address, pays beautiful tribute to the two Companions above mentioned. He took up the work where the Grand High Priest left it, reporting the acts of his predecessor, as well as his own. Five new chapters were constituted, and seven given dispensations to begin work.

Georgia still adheres to the rule that a candidate for the degrees must be able to comply literally to the work of the several degrees.

Next Grand Convocation will mark the Centennial Annual of this Grand Chapter, and they are looking forward to a great time. It is unfortunate that the meeting should come at the same time as the Triennial of the Grand Encampment. This will have the effect to cut down outside attendance, and possibly disappoint some of the Companions of Georgia, who would be pleased to be at both places.

The Grand Secretary-Lecturer filed a report as Grand Lecturer, indicating a fine state of affairs. If he filed one as Grand Secretary it has been overlooked.

The M. E. Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood met on April 27 and after transacting routine business, elected, received and anointed forty-four Companions to the Holy Order. The same officers were re-elected.

E. Companion Charles L. Bass, than whom there is no more lovable or forward-looking Companion, writes the report on Correspondence.

It is done in his usual splendid style. Alabama 1920 was under review, and has most fraternal treatment. He was so impressed with the opening prayer, that he reproduces it. He also comments favorably upon the work outlined for the Chapters on Americanization lines.

IDAHO, 1921.

13TH ANNUAL, COUER D'ALENE, MAY 19TH, 1921.

Chapters, 22; membership, 2,196; net gain, 385.

The photos of the outgoing and incoming Grand High Priests adorn the volume. Both have the appearance of upstanding, substantial American citizens.

A Special Convocation was held May 28th, 1920, for the purpose of instituting Mountain Home Chapter No. 24. Quite an occasion was made of it.

All the constituent chapters were represented, all Grand Officers were present, five Past Grand High Priests, twenty-five Grand Representatives (Alabama leading all the others), and a number of Past High Priests.

Grand High Priest M. E. Lewis W. Ensign delivered a splendid address, saying in his introduction, this splendid thing:

At a meeting in Madison Square Garden, where German and Irish sympathizers were moaning because Germany must pay and because Ireland isn't big enough to lick England, American veterans, members of the Legion, were in the same auditorium, and this resolution was adopted:

"On this solemn night, filled with the inspiration born of memories of gallant men, we have come to pledge ourselves that this nation shall yet become a land of one tongue, one ideal, one flag!"

Here is a platform upon which every Mason in the country should firmly stand. Anything that stands in the way of its accomplishment must be swept aside. Any influence or organization that endeavors to oppose the accomplishment of this high ideal must be abolished. I call upon all Companion Royal Arch Masons to use their influence wherever it may avail to promote the spirit of true Americanism as expressed in this resolution.

All matters of general Capitular were treated in a wise and conservative way by the Grand High Priest, and his message otherwise was devoted to matters of a purely local nature.

Jurisprudence Committee did not approve the action of the Grand High Priest in granting dispensations to ballot and confer degrees out of statutory time, but authorized a resolution healing the Companions receiving the degrees in this manner. They, and Grand Chapter, are to be highly commended for taking this stand.

The other matters transpiring were affected with a purely local interest.

If there was a report of the proceedings of the Annual Convention of Anointed High Priests the writer could not find it.

E. . Companion George E. Knepper submitted another of his interesting and illuminating reports on Correspondence. His watchword was "brevity," but he managed to note clearly and comment interestingly on all matters of general interest.

Alabama, 1920, has careful and fraternal treatment. His comment on the address of then Grand High Priest John Philip Melvin is that "it was an excellent document, intended largely for home consumption." Anent Grand Representatives making short reports, he says: "The practice is nil. We only know of one Grand Representative who did such a thing, and he is dead."

ILLINOIS, 1920.

71ST ANNUAL, CHICAGO, OCTOBER 28TH AND 29TH, 1920.

Chapters, 215; membership, 62,185; net gain, 9,722.

Credentials Committee report the presence of all the Grand Officers, except Deputy Grand High Priest, seventeen Past Grand High Priests, twenty-nine Grand Representatives, five Grand Examiners, all the District Inspectors, except one (twenty six) and the representatives of a large number of constituent chapters. Alabama's Grand Representative was not present, although the Convocation was held in his home town.

General Grand High Priest Frederick W. Craig was present, and was received with the eclat due his exalted position.

M. . E. . Grand High Priest Frank Spencer submitted a comprehensive report, dealing with matters of peculiar interest to the Craft in Illinois.

He notes with sorrow the passing of General Grand High Priest Joseph Edward Dyas, also Past Grand High Priest of Illinois.

The question of affiliating a Mark Master Mason from a Mark Lodge of Calcutta, India, came up and was decided in the affirmative, the petitioner to be obligated, however, as to obedience to General Grand Chapter and Grand Chapter of Illinois.

A "Trial by Commission" was had, under the Illinois code, and the result was entirely satisfactory. The practice seems an excellent one, certainly to attain the ends of justice, and would be a good thing to institute in Alabama. Two Chapters were instituted U. D. and received charters.

The Memorial Hospital at the Old Folks Home received the usual maintenance appropriation, together with a large appropriation to erect there a solarium.

The Illinois Masonic Hospital Association was also remembered. Grand Secretary's salary received a boost of $50.00 per month, and he was allowed stenographic help to the amount of $1,000.00 per annum.

Two chapters surrendered their charters and passed from the stage of action.

The reports of the District Deputies and the Grand Examiners were all of an enthusiastic nature, reflecting the satisfaction that always follows a successful year.

The sixty-sixth Annual Convention of the Grand Council Order of High Priesthood was held at Masonic Temple, October 28, 1920. Fifty-seven Companions were found qualified, and fifty-six of them were received, anointed, consecrated and set apart to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion E. R. Turnbull submitted his second Capitular review. It is as excellent as his first, which is praise enough at one sitting. Alabama, 1919, has his attention for three pages, in which he finds much to commend.

Commenting on Alabamas' plan to assist in transplanting the principles of Masonry into our national and state life he says, wisely:

It is high time that Masons as citizens should wake up to the fact that education is of vital importance to the welfare of the country. All schools, both public and private, should be under state supervision and made to strictly conform to an American standard. Our supineness in allowing children to be taught in foreign languages and the customs of other countries made the basis of their education to the detriment of our own laws was forcibly demonstrated when the call came for all to unite in the overthrow of autocracy. It was then discovered that the ingredients in America's "Melting Pot" did not mix. The teaching of foreign languages and ecclesiasticism in grade schools should be prohibited and an effective system of teaching the principles of American laws and citizenship made a prominent part of the curriculum of every school throughout the land.

INDIANA, 1920.

75TH ANNUAL, INDIANAPOLIS, OCTOBER 20TH, 1920.

Chapters, 126; membership, 25,856; net gain, 3,306.

The representatives of one hundred and twelve constituent chapters, all the Grand Officers and seventeen Past Grand High Priests made up Grand Chapter.

Senior Grand High Priest and Grand Secretary Calvin W. Prather had answered the call, and passed between the veils during the year. It is a personal sorrow to several of us down in Alabama to note his passing, and we grieve with our Companions of Indiana. M. E. Companion Robert A. Woods will be a worthy successor, and Grand Chapter has done well in selecting him. Hope he does not get too dogmatic, however.

Three distinguished visitors were present, all of the line in General Grand Chapter, and were accorded all honors due their exalted rank and station.

Grand Encampment and General Grand Council also had line officers present, and they were given due honors.

Grand High Priest M. E. Fred H. Pocock stated the year's work in good style. But few special dispensations were issued, and those of a local nature. One dispensation to organize a new chapter was granted, and two refused.

He was strong in his strictures on representatives who come to Grand Chapter and draw their mileage and per diem, and do not attend its sessions, and had something virile to say about chapters which make the R. A. degree a means of fun and horseplay.

A council of High Priests was held on October 21, 1920, at which fifty-one Companions were duly anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion Robert A. Woods writes, as usual, a wise and comprehensive report on Correspondence, covering fifty-eight Grand Jurisdictions. Alabama 1919 has careful analysis. He thinks our method of opening unnecessary, but proper (if you like it.) We do not know just whose fad it is, although Michie says northern jurisdictions, but it looks well, and the writer guesses, feels good to the Grand High Priest.

IOWA, 1920.

67TH ANNUAL, AMES, OCTOBER 14TH, 1920.

Chapters, 125; membership, 18,229; net gain, 1,416.

Ninety-four chapters had representatives present. All Grand Officers were in attendance, as were thirteen Past Grand High Priests. Forty accredited Grand Representatives were present, Alabama not being represented.

Distinguished visitors, locally and from out of state were welcomed with the usual honors.

Grand High Priest M. E. Charles C. Hunt (photo) shows in his address earnestness and painstaking endeavor in the work of the year. He granted dispensations to organize two new chapters. The charter of one chapter was revoked. He made only seventeen official visits. Decisions were made and several special dispensations were granted, all of purely local interest. He recommended a modification of the physical defect rule, but could not get his recommendation adopted. Other matters of purely local concern transpired.

Forty-three qualified Companions were duly anointed and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood.

The report on Correspondence is the fine work of Past Grand High Priest Edward M. Willard. Alabama 1919 was under review. He quotes extensively from the address of Grand High Priest Joseph D. Matlock, and sets forth our resolutions on Americanization.

His treatment of other Grand Jurisdictions was as fraternal and thorough, as that accorded Alabama.

KANSAS, 1921.

56TH ANNUAL, WICHITA, FEBRUARY 14TH, 1921.

Chapters, 91; membership, 16,249; net gain, 2,789.

Grand Secretary Albert K. Wilson was, on account of illness, absent for the first time in more than thirty years. Grand Marshal's office was filled by pro tem appointment also. Otherwise, all the Grand Officers were present. Thirteen Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of seventy-four of the constituent chapters, and a large number of unattached Past High Priests made up Grand Chapter. Alabama was not represented.

Grand High Priest Joseph D. Feld asserts that the general depression had no visible effect upon the growth of the Royal Craft in Kansas. Several dispensations were issued to make pilgrimages to confer the first three Capitular degrees, in accordance with a by-law passed the year before. Why not, if you are going out after material, confer four as well as three?

It appears that the chapters are either well up with the work, or else careless as to whether they do it right, for the services of the Grand Lecturer was not requested during the year. In either event, the Grand Lecturer has a sinecure.

Kansas adopted Indiana's report as to General Grand Chapter constitutional revision, and decided not to ratify. Looking backward, it seems that such was the general sentiment.

The proceedings of the Order of High Priesthood show considerable interest manifested, forty-five qualified Companions being properly anointed, and set apart to the Holy Office, and other business transacted.

Grand Secretary Albert K. Wilson prepared the report on Correspondence. As usual it is a comprehensive and readable document.

He does not fancy the idea of selling Rituals, and intimates that Alabama does a bargain counter business. We sell only to chapters, only three copies to each chapter, have a penalty for loss, and require receipts. The difference being that our Grand Secretary believes that Grand Chapter should know everything of that nature that transpires.

He thinks our Americanization program good, but assumes that it is unnecessary, for the reason that all good Masons are good Americans. This may be true, and doubtless is, but many good Masons need their attention called from the all engrossing pursuit of business to their duty as Masons and as citizens.

Nevertheless, we are making progress.

KENTUCKY, 1920.

103RD ANNUAL, LOUISVILLE, OCTOBER 19TH, 1920.

Chapters, 111; members, 14,174; net gain, 2,448.

We note the presence of all the Grand Officers, twenty Past Grand High Priests (all but one of those living), representatives of one hundred and nine constituent chapters, numerous Past High Priests, and forty-eight Grand Representatives. Alabama's legate E. Companion Laban T. Everett being among the number.

Grand High Priest Sam K. Veach gave a clear statement of the various matters coming to his official notice, from which we note that three dispensations to institute new chapters were issued; three chapters were constituted; no dispensations issued to ballot out of time and no decisions were requested.

He says that the question of physical disqualification, or qualification, is a matter for the chapter petitioned, but he would accept the petition and confer the degrees upon the case in question—a blind brother.

Three chapters received charters and one was continued U. D. One charter, that of Napoleon chapter, was arrested.

No account of the proceedings of the Order of High Priesthood appears in the volume under review.

The report on "Doings of Other Grand Chapters" is the good and logical work of Companion W. W. Clarke. Alabama 1919 has careful review.

He notes with interest that a committee has been appointed to propose a plan of procedure whereby the principles of Masonry and American citizenship may be translated into state and national life.

Thanks, Companion Clarke, the writer has entirely recovered his health, but he has not been able to overcome the laziness natural to those who are "has beens."

LOUISIANA, 1921.

74TH ANNUAL, NEW ORLEANS, FEBRUARY 15TH, 1921.

Chapters, 50; membership, 5,811; net gain, 723.

Forty-four constituent chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present, ten Past Grand High Priests, and twenty-nine Grand Representatives, Alabama not being represented.

The address of M. E. Grand High Priest John W. Armstrong was brief, but marked him as an earnest and zealous R. A. Mason. He paid splendid tribute to two Past Grand High Priests who had passed to the "Great Beyond" during the year. The duties of his office were pleasant and not at all burdensome. Three chapters were granted dispensations and three constituted during his year.

A resolution was passed directing the Grand Representatives to vote against the adoption of General Grand Chapter proposed new constitution.

The Order of High Priesthood was conferred upon eleven qualified Companions, and they were duly set apart to the Holy Order.

Grand Secretary R. E. John A. Davilla writes the Correspondence report in his usual clear and entertaining style. Alabama 1919 has cordial treatment. He quotes the concluding remarks of Past Grand High Priest Joseph D. Matlock, with approval.

Having never visited the Alabama Masonic Home, he has a rare treat in store. As official head of the Board of Trustees of that Home, the writer gives him cordial invitation to come and inspect it at any time.

MARYLAND, 1921.

123RD ANNUAL, BALTIMORE, NOVEMBER 18TH, 1920.

Chapters, 24; membership, 6,979; net gain, 1,389.

Twenty-three constituent chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present, eight Past Grand High Priests, and quite a number of Past High Priests.

The Grand Chapter was presided over by that splendid man and Mason, M. E. Charles C. Homer, Jr. As is characteristic of the man, he dealt in a strictly business way with matters coming under his official hand. Many dispensations were issued, some of which seem strong and unnecessary to an Alabamian, but doubtless in conformity to the laws of Maryland R. A. Masonry.

He finds the system of a Grand Inspector for each chapter to work well and recommends it to his successor.

The Committee on Work had examined fifteen High Priests elect, found them proficient, and ready to be installed. A very good idea.

The ninety-sixth annual convocation of the Council of M. E. High Priests convened in Baltimore on November 18, 1920, with all the officers and quite a good attendance of members, and after transacting routine business, arointed and set apart fifteen qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

On all these occasions, Alabama is well represented in the person of Grand Secretary, and Past Grand High Priest Gustav A. Eitel.

The Correspondence report is the good work of E. Comp. Rev. Henry Branch. Alabama 1919 is given careful review, and all matters of interest are faithfully portrayed.

MASSACHUSETTS, 1920.

122ND ANNUAL, BOSTON, DECEMBER 7TH, 1920.

Chapters, 86; membership, 31,445; net gain, 3,433.

Sixty constituent chapters were represented at the Annual Convocation. Seven Past Grand High Priests were present and twenty-five Grand Representatives.

The volume contains, in addition to an account of the Annual Convocation, the minutes of three quarterly and one special convocation, where matters of purely local interest were transacted.

At the Annual Convocation a resolution was adopted instructing against the proposed new constitution of General Grand Chapter:

Dispensations were issued to organize four new chapters, and Grand High Priest John J. Van Valkenberg notes with pleasure the conservative care exercised in granting these and other dispensations. He made many visitations, and with the conditions prevailing, pleased with the courtesies and privileges extended himself, and high in his praise of the interest manifested in capitular affairs.

The Annual Convention of High Priests was held on March 9, 1920, with a large attendance, at which time forty-one Companions were found qualified, and were duly anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion Frederick T. Comee submits his characteristic report on "Capitular Review." Alabama 1919 comes in for an interesting report. He notes two resolutions passed, of one of which he says "The entire membership of the Masonic Fraternity should be interested in the spirit of that resolution." This has reference to our Americanization program.

Thanks Companion Comee, our health is fine, we are a grandpa, and fast becoming reconciled to the passing of the years.

MICHIGAN, 1921.

73RD ANNUAL, LANSING, MAY 17TH, 1921.

Chapters, 158; membership, 36,146; net gain, 5,169.

As is the custom in Michigan the Grand Secretary read the "Scroll of Homage," a list of the departed Past Grand Officers, to which was added the names of two Past Grand High Priests, M. E. Companions George Hill and David Woodward.

Distinguished guests were present and were received with distinguished honors.

The presence of all the Grand Officers is noted; also twelve Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of one hundred and fifty-six of the constituent chapters.

As is customary with Grand Secretary Charles A. Conover, the proceedings are well gotten up.

Judging from the address of Grand High Priest, M. E. Charles J. Gray, the work of the year was neither burdensome nor arduous. Three chapters were constituted, and dispensations granted to establish four others.

A good many special dispensations were issued and approved. Four were refused. Four chapters were put on probation, but their improvement was such as to cause the ban to be removed. The unusual number of forty-two official visits were made by the Grand High Priest, and all the line officers made visitations and reports thereof.

The sixtieth Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood was held May 17, 1920, and fifty-two Companions were found qualified, and were duly anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

Instead of his customary report on Correspondence, M. E. Companion Conover writes an essay on the ceremonies of dedication and the construction of King Solomon's Temple, using many illustrations, all of which is interesting and instructive. He also clips and publishes other articles on the Temple. Those desiring to get the various views concerning the edifice can get much entertainment by reading these articles. As for the writer, he is content to let the Temple rest, and regard it as but another of the splendid symbolisms used by Masonry to illustrate the truths it holds for those who seek.

MINNESOTA, 1920.

59TH ANNUAL, ST. PAUL, OCTOBER 14TH, 1920.

Chapters, 76; membership, 12,085; net gain, 1,149.

Sixty-four constituent chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, and thirty-two Grand Representatives were also present. Two Past Deputy Grand High Priests were among the permanent members.

The address of Grand High Priest was brief and businesslike. He announced the passing of Past Deputy Grand High Priest George W. Cooley. He made fourteen official visits, and would have made more, but for illness and death in his family and lack of funds therefor provided. One new chapter was organized U. D. But few special dispensations were issued, and all questions as to law or custom were answered by reference to the statutes and constitution. The year seems to have been a very prosperous one.

The Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood met October 12, 1920, and after transacting routine business, elected thirty-four qualified Companions and duly anointed and set them apart to the Holy Order.

R. E. Companion Irving Todd submits the report on Correspondence. It is much more limited than usual, but is good, as always. Alabama 1919 has his attention in about a page of courteous treatment. He does not clip or comment, merely stating briefly what happened.

MISSISSIPPI, 1921.

73RD ANNUAL, JACKSON, FEBRUARY 24TH, 1921.

Chapters, 66; membership, 5,958; net gain, 683.

Forty-eight chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present. It is not stated how many Past Grand Officers were in attendance. Thirty Grand Representatives answered to their names and were received with honor; Alabama's Legate not being one of the number.

From the address of the Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Martin Ball, which was brief, it is made plain that the official duties were not burdensome. He reports no questions of law, and no grievances. His own physical condition rendered many official visits impossible. He speaks warmly and affectionately of the Masonic Home, regrets its partial destruction by fire, but rejoices that none of the children were injured.

A continuing donation of $1,000.00 per year was made to the fund providing additional space at the Grand Chapter building at the Home.

The Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled on February 23, 1920, and after transacting the usual business, elected eight Companions, and duly anointed and set them apart to the Holy Order.

Past Grand High Priest Oliver L. McKay submits an exhaustive report on Correspondence, but Alabama is not included.

The Grand High Priest elect, M. E. Henry Clay Yawn was born at Columbia, Ala., and lived there one year. Great things ought to come out of his year of official reign.

MISSOURI, 1921.

75TH ANNUAL, SEDALIA, APRIL 26TH, 1921.

Chapters, 109; membership, 25,814; net gain, 4,717.

Representatives from ninety-five chapters, all the Grand Officers, fifteen Past Grand Officers, and the Grand Representatives from forty-five Grand Jurisdictions, together with many unattached Past High Priests made up the roster of Grand Chapter. Alabama was present in the person of E. Companion David M. Wilson.

With pomp and ceremony, attended by stately music Grand Chapter convened, and received with honor several distinguished Companions from within and without the Grand Jurisdiction.

Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion Herbert W. Powers, begins a rather lengthy and detailed address by saying "One more Grand High Priest is doomed to recite the givings and misgivings of administration and read to you the barometer of his official ups and downs." He had handed out a few verbal garlands, but had not hesitated to criticise where censure was due. We find many of the first class, but few of the latter class as we followed his address.

He made and granted quite a number of requests for courtesy work. Many dispensations of a special nature were granted, most of them to chapters to confer degrees in other halls.

He recites at some length and with eloquence his many visitations. He speaks especially of his pleasure in paying his respects to M. E. Companion William F. Kuhn, and names him as the greatest Masonic chieftain of his day.

He constituted one chapter and issued one duplicate charter.

His comments on the ritual of General Grand Chapter contravenes his expression of admiration for General Grand High Priest William F. Kuhn. Many recommendations were made of a purely local interest.

His commendation of the work of Grand Correspondent Miller was well deserved and has the writers hearty assent.

Grand Lecturer reports conditions satisfactory and the chapters doing good work.

Necrology committee record the passing of two Past Grand High Priests during the year, M. E. Companions Arthur M. Hough and Xenophon Ryland, both of whom had served and ornamented Masonry and American citizenship.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests assembled April 26, 1921, with Alabama's Legate in the President's chair. After transacting routine business, fifty-seven Companions were deemed qualified, and were duly elected, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

E. Companion John H. Miller begins his report on Correspondence with an excerpt from the address of Grand High Priest Joseph D. Matlock, and commends it to all thoughtful Masons. The slogan he would adopt is "A chance for every boy and girl in the United States." We say emphatically, so mote it be.

His report justifies the words of commendation used by his Grand High Priest, and noted above.

Alabama 1919 and 1920 was under review, and each has careful and fraternal treatment. He is especially pleased with the report of the Committee on Masonry and American Citizenship, found in our 1920 proceedings, and says: "With that giant in Masonry, Companion John H. McCormick, as chairman, presented a report that ought to be printed in letters of gold on a silver back-ground and circulated throughout all North America."

The writer thanks him for his words of encouragement.

NEBRASKA, 1920.

54TH ANNUAL, OMAHA, DECEMBER 15TH, 1920.

Chapters, 53; membership, 6,890; net gain, 762.

All the Grand Officers, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of forty constituent chapters, and twenty-seven Grand Representatives were present and participating.

Grand High Priest Alpha Morgan gave a plain account of the matters coming to his official notice. From his address we judge that he took much interest in the performance of his duties.

Past Grand Scribe James R. Cain, Sr., passed between the veils during the year, and fitting tribute to his memory and services was paid.

A number of official visits were made; several special dispensations were issued; one chapter was organized under dispensation; seven Grand Representatives were commissioned, and two recommended for commission. He speaks enthusiastically of the good work being done by the Masonic Home.

Nebraska has a Grand Treasurer that believes in earning interest on the funds in his hands, and has earned for Grand Chapter the sum of $2,655.78.

The 48th Annual Grand Convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled Wednesday, December 15, 1920, at which time thirty-six qualified Companions were admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

No report on Correspondence was submitted.

NEVADA, 1921.

48TH ANNUAL, RENO, JUNE 7TH, 1921.

Chapters, 9; membership, 579; net gain, 17.

All the constituent chapters were represented. Fifteen Past Grand officers were present. Three Grand Officers were absent, Grand Orator and Grand Masters of the Third and First Veils. Twenty-nine Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being one of them.

The Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion George W. Robinson, we judge from his photo, is a very young man; or like our Grand Secretary, refuses to furnish any thing but a young picture, and like our Grand Secretary is a zealous and industrious Companion. He says Nevada cannot boast of numbers, and then adds, wisely, "but the only measure of progress is in the degree of loyalty to the cause, enthusiasm for the great purposes of the Royal Craft, and devotion to its ideals."

He pays fitting tribute to life and services of Past Grand High Priest Robert L. Fulton, who passed to the "Great Unknown," during the year; and to Past Grand Secretary, John D. Hammond.

He commissioned five Grand Representatives; made only two official visits; was not called on for any decisions, and recommended the parcelling of chapters for visitation among the members of the Grand Council.

Grand Chapter refused to adopt the revised ritual of General Grand Chapter, and left the matter of the proposed revision of the General Grand Chapter constitution to their representatives.

Grand Council of Anointed High Priests met and admitted, anointed and set apart three qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

The report on Correspondence is short, but well done, as is the custom with R. E. Companion E. D. Vanderleith. Alabama 1920 was under review, and received courteous and careful treatment. The report of the Committee on Masonry and American Citizenship is especially commended. The establishment of scholarships is also praised.

Thanks for your kind words as to the work of the correspondence reporter for Alabama.

NEW JERSEY, 1921.

65TH ANNUAL, TRENTON, MAY 11TH, 1921.

Chapters, 49; membership, 13,146; net gain, 2,543.

Forty of the chapters were represented. All the Grand Officers were present.

Eight District Deputy Grand High Priests, fourteen Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand Scribe, and a number of Past High Priests constituted, with the others mentioned, the Grand Chapter. Thirty-two (Alabama not being one of them) Grand Jurisdictions had Grand Representatives present.

Distinguished visitors from New York, Rhode Island and Canada were presented, received with honors, and made fitting response.

Grand High Priest, M. E. Companion J. Vreeland Haring, finds that Capitular Masonry in New Jersey is at its high water mark. Let us hope not, and that yet greater things are in store for the Royal Craft there.

His privilege was to visit every chapter in his Grand Jurisdiction, not out of curiosity, but, as he says, that he might greet the Craft, and by inspection and observation get at the real conditions, and by a word of cheer or encouragement, help where help is needed.

A unique occasion attended by him was the celebration in Mt. Vernon Chapter of the fiftieth anniversary of the election of Past Grand High Priest Marcus Higginbotham as Grand High Priest. Not many of us last to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of such an event.

It was his pleasure to attend the sessions of the Grand Council, Grand Commandery and Grand Lodge of New Jersey, and also to pay visits to six other Grand Jurisdictions at their annual session; also to attend the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.

Two special convocations were held to constitute two chapters granted charters. Five chapters were organized and started to work U. D.

He says many perplexing questions were presented for solution during the year, but all were satisfactorily answered by referring to their Rules and Regulations, and with the able assistance of the Grand Secretary and Past Grand High Priests. He does not give us a sample of them, however.

Many matters of purely local interest had attention.

The Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests was held May 10, 1921, with all the officers and many E. E. Companions present. After disposing of the usual business matters, thirty-two Companions were found qualified, and were duly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion Henry S. Haines writes the Correspondence report, and does it so well that it is reached with pleasurable anticipations. Alabama 1920 is under review, with courteous, but careful treatment. He finds much to commend in what was accomplished.

NEW MEXICO, 1921.

23RD ANNUAL, ALBUQUERQUE, FEBRUARY 24TH, 1920.

Chapters, 17; membership, 1,538; net gain, 194.

A very good likeness of Grand High Priest Reuben Perry appears.

All the Grand Officers were present, except Grand Royal Arch Captain. Sixteen chapters were represented. Nine Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand King, one Past Grand Scribe and one Past Grand Treasurer also graced the occasion.

Grand High Priest Perry made a detailed account of the matters coming to him officially. His opening observations were timely and courageous. He made two official visits, settled amicably a matter of disputed jurisdiction, granted several special dispensations, none of which infringed the statutes, and gave careful and earnest attention to his duties.

There is no record of a meeting of the Order of High Priesthood, and no report on Correspondence.

NEW YORK, 1921.

124TH ANNUAL, ALBANY, FEBRUARY 1ST, 1921.

Chapters, 213; membership, 55,295; net gain, 6,800.

The absence of the Grand Master of the 1st Veil is the only vacancy noted in the line Grand Officers. Fourteen Past Grand High Priests, one Past Grand King and one Past Grand Scribe were the permanent members present. Two hundred and ten constituent chapters had representatives present. Forty Grand Jurisdictions had Grand Representatives present, Alabama being well represented by E. J. Companion Frederick Tasker. Seven Grand Representatives sent excuses for failure to be present.

Reception of Grand Representatives was dignified but cordial. Ten distinguished Craftsmen from within and without the Grand Jurisdiction had fitting welcome and honors.

The address of Grand High Priest Jerome L. Cheney was thorough and well written, in fact, was scholarly.

He notes with sorrow the passing of Past Grand High Priest

Marshall F. Hemingway, and pays feeling tribute to his memory as a man and Mason.

He reports the disbursement of the charity appropriation, and recommends its continuance. Four new chapters were instituted U. D. He advises the appointment of a committee to devise a plan for systematic visitation of subordinate chapters. A number of official visits were made, and a great many special dispensations were issued.

The report of Grand Lecturer shows a fine condition, and that conventions or schools of instruction have been well attended, one being held in each of the twenty-eight Capitular Districts.

The Grand Council of Anointed High Priests held their convention on January 29, 1921, at which time forty-two eligible Companions were admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order. Another meeting at Albany was held February 1st, 1921, when one hundred and ten High Priests were regularly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

Past Grand High Priest Arthur Warren submits his second report on Correspondence. It is worthy of the man and evidence of a wise choice.

Alabama 1919 is under review, although the printer makes him say 1918. He portrays carefully the doings of that year, and has kind things to say of Past Grand (then Grand) High Priest Joseph D. Matlock.

Reference is made to our Masonry and Americanization resolution. Comment is also made on Alabama gain, which he places at 25%. This will please our Grand Secretary, who not only says, "watch us grow," but goes out and helps.

NORTH CAROLINA, 1921.

73RD ANNUAL, ASHEVILLE, MAY 10TH, 1921.

Chapters, 51; membership, 6,536; net gain, 739.

All the Grand Officers, ten Past Grand High Priests, two Past Deputy Grand High Priests, one Past Grand Scribe, and the representatives of thirty-nine of the subordinate chapters constituted the Grand Body.

Twenty-four Grand Jurisdictions had representatives present. This is not half, and Alabama was in the wrong half at that.

Grand Secretary O. Frank Hart, of South Carolina, and Grand Secretary McHan, of Georgia, were present and received the glad hand.

Grand High Priest Jesse M. Oldham submitted a short address, and concluded by saying he did not know whether it was writ large or small, but it was writ.

Most of the address was taken up in interstate courtesies requested and granted, and suggestions, said not to be recommendations.

He mentions the coming of General Grand Chapter, and looks forward to it with interest and pleasure. The scribe was there, and can say that North Carolina did herself proud in the way the crowds were cared for and entertained. Of course the climate and scenery was there, and always will be, but the Companions gave the personal touch, and made the trip a very pleasant one.

Our friend, Past Grand High Priest A. B. Andrews, seems to have, and fully deserves, the love and confidence of his Companions. He has many committee assignments and seems always on the job.

The usual appropriation for educational work was made, and the report of the committee shows that it is amply justified. Let the good work go on.

The M. E. Grand Convention of Anointed High Priests was held May 10, 1921, with all the officers and a goodly number of members present. Routine business held the boards for a while, and then twenty-two were found eligible, and were duly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Orders.

The Correspondence report is the work of E. Companion Ralph L. Chandler. He says it is the first literary effort of his life. Well, what difference does that make, since it is a success? Certainly the water is fine, if you like it boiling—sometimes.

Alabama 1920 has careful and courteous review.

Welcome to our table, sit in and learn to bluff, like the most of us.

NORTH DAKOTA, 1921.

32ND ANNUAL, GRAND FORKS, JANUARY 25TH, 1921.

Chapters, 27; membership, 3,844; net gain, 396.

This is the Grand Jurisdiction where R. E. Companion Walter L. Stockwell makes the big noise and he is very capable at that and many other things, as well. He prints the Grand High Priest's name and his own in large letters, not as a matter of vanity, but just to let us, and the N. Dakota Companions, know "who's who."

We could not count but twenty-three chartered chapters, and wondered how twenty-seven came to be represented, and on looking further found four U. D., that were also there.

Grand High Priest John H. G. Turner, all the other Grand Officers, eight Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of all the constituent chapters, and twenty-four Grand Representatives made up Grand Chapter. Alabama has no representation worth while since so far she has had but four Grand Representatives noted as present.

The address of the Grand High Priest is a business-like document. He made 19 official visits, granted three dispensations for charters to be organized, and several special dispensations. He wanted his jewel to wear on visitations, and suggests that the incoming incumbents get theirs early in the game.

Matters of purely local interest were transacted, not here noted.

The Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled January 25th and transacted its usual business. Twelve Companions were found worthy and were duly set apart, being formally anointed, to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion E. George Guthrie submits two reports, one read in open meeting and the other printed in the appendix, but both good, being up to his standard.

He mentions Alabama 1920 as being under review, but the printer must have dropped several pages, for we could not find it anywhere. Better luck next time.

NOVA SCOTIA, 1921.

57TH ANNUAL, DIGBY, JUNE 7TH, 1921.

Chapters, 20; membership, 2,471; net gain, 263.

Two special convocations were held for the purpose of constituting chapters, one August 18, 1920, at Montague, P. E. Island, the other at Dartmouth, N. S., on November 23, 1920, both of which were presided over by the Grand High Priest.

Three Grand Officers were absent, and pro tems occupied their positions at opening of Grand Chapter. Seven Past Grand High Priests, five Past Grand Kings, and four Past Grand Scribes were present as permanent members.

Twenty-three Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being among them.

Nineteen of the constituent chapters were represented.

Grand Chapter has and maintains jurisdiction over Nova Scotia, New Foundland and Prince Edward's Island, having chapters in each province.

Grand High Priest, M. E. Wilbert A. Creelman, was faithful and industrious, as we gather his doings from his annual address. He visited all the constituent chapters but one, and but for its distance away, would have visited it. He constituted in person two chapters, holding emergent convocations for that purpose.

He notes with keen regret the passing of Past Grand High Priest Joseph R. Bennett, and pays fitting tribute to his memory. He approved seven by-laws, issued three special dispensations, and rendered several decisions, all peculiar to the statutes of Grand Chapter. Recommended three Grand Representatives and appointed three.

The Grand Representatives made optimistic reports, saying all is well in Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and Prince Edward's Island.

Recommendation for the creation of districts, and the appointment of Grand Superintendents, involving a change of constitution, failed of adoption, if we get the straight of it.

Several meetings of the Board of General Purposes were held, and routine financial matters acted upon.

Eleven Companions were found to possess the requisite qualifications and were duly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood.

Grand Secretary Brewton F. Porter submits a fine report on Correspondence. Alabama 1920 has fraternal notice, and commendation, especially our educational efforts.

OHIO, 1920.

104TH ANNUAL, YOUNGSTOWN, OCTOBER 6TH, 1920.

Chapters, 191; membership, 60,757; net gain, 8,911.

The Grand Convocation was attended with peculiarly sad circumstances. While en route to Grand Chapter, Past Grand High Priest William A. Reiter was stricken and died upon the train. This news was conveyed to Grand Chapter just after its opening. Deputy Grand High Priest Schuyler B. Tuthill was quite ill and died during the convocation.

All the Grand Officers were present, with the exception just noted. One hundred and eighty-one chapters were represented.

Fourteen Past Grand High Priests were present, and they constitute quite an array of Masonic and civic talent.

Many distinguished visitors, headed by the General Grand High Priest, were presented, and given proper reception and honors.

The address of Grand High Priest Joseph T. Croxall is a splendid document. He well says "Our fraternity teaches the dignity of labor. It is not enough to have faith that we shall come out of the valley of discontent, we must have the faith that inspires work, and the zeal of precept that enthuses example."

All chapters, with one exception, were inspected. One was properly and promptly called down for introducing Shrine stunts in the R. A. degree.

Two chapters were constituted, and dispensations issued to organize six, five of which were given charters and one continued U. D. He issued but few dispensations of a special nature, refusing all not strictly legal.

His other acts and doings were the customary and routine ones that require time in a large and growing jurisdiction, and of purely local interest.

The code was changed so as to require but one ballot for all the degrees, the law heretofore requiring a ballot for each degree.

At recess, etc., a dinner was given, at which there was much to refresh the inner man and enable him to withstand the bombardment of oratory. Grand Secretary Hagenbuch omits no essential detail, giving even the menu. Wonder if M. E. Companion Woods of Indiana was there. If not he overlooked his first good bit. Hearty support was continued to the Ohio Masonic Home, $10,000.00 being appropriated for that purpose.

With that splendid gentleman and distinguished Mason, M. E. Companion Nelson Williams as M. E. President, and the other officers in their respective places, the Order of High Priesthood consecrated and set apart 109 qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

M. E. Companion O. P. Sperra writes the report on Correspondence. He improves as he grows older. He quotes freely, comments sagely and thoroughly covers the proceedings.

Alabama 1920 is under review, and has his usual careful and fraternal treatment. We agree that there are no "good" reasons for "hurry up" dispensations.

OKLAHOMA, 1921.

32ND ANNUAL, BARTLESVILLE, MAY 19TH, 1921.

Chapters, 75; membership, 9,964; net gain, 1,815.

Two Grand Officers, Grand Scribe and Grand Chaplain, were absent. All the others present, together with the representatives of sixty-one of the subordinate chapters, thirteen Past Grand High Priests, and Grand Representatives of forty-two Grand Jurisdictions. After reviewing so far, it is a relief to find Alabama's Grand Representative on the job, E. Companion William Henry Essex.

Distinguished visitors were present, and were received in ample form.

The address of Grand High Priest Harold B. Downing was lengthy, and dealt earnestly, clearly and conclusively, in some instances, with matters of interest to this Grand Jurisdiction.

Three Past Grand High Priests answered the summons to appear before the Supreme Council during the year. M. E. Companions Hulme, Mann and Doyle.

Two chapters were constituted and five were granted dispensation to organize and during this convocation given charters.

Several charters were arrested, and in two instances the "gavel was arrested" of two High Priests, which doubtless means, they were relieved of their official duties.

General Grand Chapter ritual was adopted, and General Grand Chapter constitutional amendments were approved, with the Kentucky amendment incorporated.

Collective balloting was not approved, but on unanimous consent a ballot may be had on a petition without referring it to an investigating committee.

The Order of High Priesthood admitted, anointed and set apart twenty-three qualified Companions.

An association of Past Grand High Priests was formed.

E. J. Companion William Noble writes the report on Correspondence. He says business and absence from home has prevented his doing it as well as he otherwise could. The Grand Secretary appends this note: "He is just a fooling. He did think for a while that he would quit the job and help Bro. Harding run the country, but he found out he was he was a better Mason than a politician, and is still on the job."

Well, he has our best wishes, whatever he may be or be doing. Only we hope he will remain at the round table.

Alabama 1920 has cordial and fraternal treatment at his hands.

OREGON, 1921.

61ST ANNUAL, PORTLAND, JUNE 13TH, 1921.

Chapters, 38; members, 5,799; net gain, 820.

All the Grand Officers, together with the number of the constituent chapter of which each is a member, are reported as present. Twelve Past Grand High Priests, and one Past Grand Lecturer, constitute the permanent officers present.

Thirty-five chapters were represented, twenty-nine Grand Jurisdictions were present by Grand Representatives. It looks like Alabama needs a new deal on Grand Representatives, as few can or will attend Grand Chapter.

Past Grand High Priest of Michigan, M. J. E. J. Companion, W. Irving Latimer, was present, welcomed and duly honored.

Grand High Priest Frank W. Settlemier delivered a short address, without preliminary remarks. He had one chapter constituted, granted dispensation to organize two chapters, received and entertained the General Grand High Priest for two days, visited every chapter in the Grand Jurisdiction, and recommended a similar visitation in person or by proxy by his successors in office to instruct in both the ritual and the keeping of the records.

He reports with keen regret the passing of Past Grand High Priest Edward E. Kiddle.

There seems to be some doubt about Grand Chapter ever having been chartered by General Grand Chapter, but it would appear that a majority took the proper view of the matter and declined to re-petition.

Eighteen Companions were found qualified, and were duly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

E. C. Companion Walter O. Haines writes the report on Correspondence, addressing it to the Oregon Companions. It is short, but exceedingly well done.

He writes of General Grand Chapter 1918, approves the ritual adopted, and thinks well of the constitutional amendments proposed. But some how enough did not so think, and when it was all over it seemed, we none agreed.

Alabama 1920 was under review and the main points of interest brought out.

PENNSYLVANIA, 1920.

125TH ANNUAL, PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 27TH, 1920.

Chapters, 148; membership, 48,829; net gain, 4,780.

Two Mark Lodges are maintained with separate entities.

The practice of holding quarterly convocations renders a review rather difficult. These quarterly convocations were held March 4, June 4, September 2, 1920, respectively, at each of which most of the Grand Officers, District Deputy Grand High Priests, from six to ten Past Grand Priests, and an average of forty chapter representatives are present.

A charter was granted to a number of Companions in Philadelphia, not members of any chapter, to establish Appollo chapter.

E. C. Companion William A. Rhoads, Grand Representative for Alabama near the "Grand Holy Royal Arch Chapter of Pennsylvania," was present on all occasions. Thanks, Companion, and may you live long and continue diligent.

A special convocation was held November 29th, 1920, to celebrate the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of Grand Chapter. All the notables of the Grand Jurisdiction and nearby Grand Jurisdictions were present, and actively participating. A royal good time was had, many delightful and instructive addresses were made, and much of the history of the past twenty-five years portrayed.

One expecting to visit another Grand Jurisdiction on a similar occasion will do well to preserve this volume, and referring to it, lighten his labors of preparation for delivering himself of proper and pleasing sentiments.

The Annual Convocation was presided over by Grand High Priest David J. Davis, and yet a David J. Davis is reported among the Past Grand High Priests present. In several instances it has happened that father and son have been Grand High Priests in Pennsylvania. Or possibly have served for the previous year, it is the custom to rate him as Grand High and Past Grand High. Our custom is different, but it really does not matter.

The address of the Grand High Priest shows careful and efficient preparation, and the same character of work during the year.

Two special dispensations were granted; and several were refused. One chapter U. D. was granted a charter or warrant.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized.

The younger brother of the Grand High Priest had had all the degrees conferred on him "at sight." Guess they just looked at him and told him he was on. No use, however, to go into the merits or demerits of this procedure with Pennsylvania. They are pretty rigid with the ordinary fellow, but the governor and some others, that is different.

Three chapters were constituted, but not "attached."

The two Mark Lodges show a net loss for the year, the total membership being placed at 168. Among the things that can't be done in Pennsylvania we note:

Can't use postal cards for sending out notices of chapter meetings; can't send out notices containing names of petitioners unsealed; cannot use manuscript in any form in conferring degrees; cannot use chapter funds for functions to which others than Masons are invited; cannot circularize to solicit members; cannot circularize in the interest of candidates for office in Grand Chapter or subordinate chapter. Some wise and otherwise, but that is their affair.

No one can be installed as High Priest of a chapter until he has been anointed and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood, hence several conventions were held for that purpose, and many High Priests elect received the Holy Order.

The report on Correspondence is prepared by a committee of five, the work being divided among them. It is a splendid review of the various Grand Chapters.

Alabama 1919 fell to the tender mercies and discriminating care of Past Grand High Priest William B. Meredith. He quotes most approvingly from the address of Grand High Priest Joseph D. Matlock. Of the quotation he says "Words wisely spoken; the embodiment of truth. The public schools are the bulwark of our own American institutions." He does not approve of the method of opening inaugurated by Past Grand High Priest McCormick, and since followed. He differs in no wise from some of us in Alabama, as we also think Grand High Priest should open Grand Chapter.

QUEBEC, 1921.

44TH ANNUAL, MONTREAL, MARCH 23RD, 1921.

Chapters, 14; membership, 2,459; net gain, 283.

One chapter was working U. D. and was granted a charter at this annual, thus giving them fifteen chapters.

One never can tell about the Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers, except those familiar with the practices in Grand Bodies following the English custom, but quite a number of both kinds were present. All the chapters were represented. R. E. Companion C. P. O'Connor, representing Alabama, was present, together with thirty-three other Grand Representatives. Three Past Grand First Principals and two Past Grand Second Principals had passed during the year, and fitting tribute to their worth and service to the Craft was paid.

M. E. Walter J. Francis, Grand Z, had the pleasure of attending one centenary celebration, and two semi-centenary celebrations of constituent chapters during the year. Also the centenary of St. Andrews Lodge. He attended several district meetings and visited several chapters. He recommended for commission thirteen Companions of his Grand Jurisdiction, and commissioned two as his Grand Representatives near other Grand Jurisdictions.

Two dispensations were issued to organize chapters and others were expected. The Grand Z thinks, and correctly so, that large chapters tend to large classes, and that it is advisable to have smaller chapters and small classes.

Conditions are excellent, and likely to continue so, if the Grand Officers and Grand Superintendents continue to manifest the proper interest, as indicated has been done by the reports filed.

The Correspondence report is the seasoned and excellent work of M. E. Companion E. T. D. Chambers. It is his thirty-fourth effort, and bears the marks of efficient experience.

He notes the unprecedented increase, and finds no cause for alarm. Has something worth while to say anent weak chapters, and invites attention to the possibilities for good in the office of Grand Representative.

Alabama was not fortunate enough to come under his editorial notice.

RHODE ISLAND, 1920.

122ND ANNUAL, PROVIDENCE, MARCH 9TH, 1920.

Chapters, 12; membership, 6,005; net gain, 624.

Three chapters were working under dispensation, and were chartered by Grand Chapter.

Eleven subordinate chapters were represented. Nine Past Grand High Priests were present.

Grand Representatives in attendance 27, Alabama not represented. A number of distinguished visitors from sister Grand Jurisdictions were present, among them the Grand Z of Canada, whose presence and remarks here and elsewhere indicated a most laudable desire to unite closely the Companions of the Empire and the United States.

Grand High Priest Joseph Lawton rendered an extended account of the year's work.

Two decisions were made; two chapters organized under dispensation; five Grand Representatives commissioned, and a few official visits made.

Grand Chapter adopted a resolution presenting each Grand

High Priest with an apron, to be worn during his term, and after his term, to be his property; also to present each retiring Grand High Priest with a Past Grand High Priest's jewel.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was officially recognized.

The Rhode Island Convention of Anointed High Priests was held, and fourteen duly qualified Companions were solemnly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

While the report on Correspondence was adopted, it does not appear in the proceedings.

SOUTH CAROLINA, 1920.

109TH ANNUAL, GEORGETOWN, APRIL 13TH, 1920.

Chapters, 38; membership, 4,799; net gain, 975.

It is like getting a letter from home to pick up these proceedings and read the names of those in attendance.

All the Grand Officers (they seem to have none below the grade of Grand C. of H.) were present. Thirty-five constituent chapters were represented, nine Past Grand High Priests were in attendance, and to the regret of everybody Past Grand High Priest Frank E. Harrison could not be present, but was remembered.

Alabama was ably represented in the person of Grand Secretary O. Frank Hart. There were fourteen other Grand Representatives present.

The Grand High Priest of North Carolina was present, received cordial welcome, due honors, and pleased all with his remarks.

M. E. Companion Samuel Latham, Grand High Priest, had a fine address and said many things of interest to the Craft in South Carolina.

He is pleased with the visitation plan, although the "flu," and other things interfered with its satisfactory execution. He recommended and Grand Chapter agreed, that it be carried out.

Quite a number of interstate courtesies were asked and granted by him. He recommended the recognition of the Grand Chapters of Alberta and British Columbia, and his recommendation was approved.

He rendered quite a number of opinions, usually termed decisions, in most instances citing the constitution and statutes.

He issued several dispensations to transact business at a special convocation, and to ballot out of time. Two chapters were constituted and three were organized under dispensation.

The Deputy Grand High Priest was commissioned to attend the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, which he did, and made enthusiastic report of his visit.

Other matters of purely local interest were transacted.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of Anointed High Priests was held on April 13, with M. E. President James L. Michie in the chair.

Fourteen E. Companions were found qualified, and were duly and solemnly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

Past Grand High Priest James L. Michie submits his tenth annual report on Correspondence. He does it exceedingly well, and after reading it one feels as if he had just had a personal talk with the delightful Companion.

We borrowed (I am guessing) our recently acquired custom of opening from north of you Companion Michie, but not far enough north to hurt your feelings. I think it is Maryland.

Alabama 1919 is under review and is treated with courtesy and consideration. Alabama does not use the General Grand Chapter ritual, and will not for some time to come—until the present generation passes out, or there is a change in the ritual, at least.

SOUTH DAKOTA, 1921.

32ND ANNUAL, WATERTOWN, JUNE 16TH, 1921.

Chapters, 37; membership, 5,603; net gain, 749.

Five chapters working under dispensation, three of which were recommended for charters, and two continued under dispensation.

Grand Captain of the Host and Grand Master of Third Veil were noted as absent. The other Grand Officers were present. Twelve Past Grand High Priests, twenty-three Past High Priests, the representatives of twenty-four of the constituent chapters and Grand Representatives from twenty-one Grand Jurisdictions made up the roster. Alabama not represented.

Grand High Priest Arthur B. McKeel presented a short address dealing with official matters only.

Two chapters were constituted, dispensations issued to organize five, three of which were granted charters.

Three Grand Representatives were commissioned; four special dispensations granted, and one refused. It was a hurry up call to get to the Shrine by a certain date.

Two decisions were rendered, one on physical disqualification and the other on jurisdiction, both of which were correct under Alabama Capitular law.

Thirteen visitations were made, illness preventing others.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized.

General Grand Chapter amendments to its constitution received adverse vote.

The statutes were amended so as to require all petitioners for dispensation to organize a new chapter, to file dimit from some recognized subordinate chapter. Wise, as we have found it here.

Grand Secretary Pettigrew made other valuable recommendations but they seem not to have been acted upon.

The twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the Order of High Priesthood met June 16, 1921, and transacted the usual business, and then, finding the nine petitioners qualified, they were duly admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

E. L. Companion Charles L. Brockway writes the report on Correspondence. It is short, and therefore such as all Grand Secretaries like. It is also very well done. Alabama 1920 has the high points faithfully portrayed without comment.

TENNESSEE, 1921.

92ND ANNUAL, NASHVILLE, JANUARY 24TH, 1921.

Chapters, 83; membership, 7,757; net gain, 1,066.

Tennessee sends out her proceedings covered with cloth, and in permanent form.

Seventy-six chapters had representatives present. All the Grand Officers were in their places; thirteen Past Grand High Priests, a number of Past High Priests, and the Grand Representatives of thirty Grand Jurisdictions were also in attendance. Alabama failed of representation.

Grand High Priest A. G. Bowen, who once lived in Alabama, gave a faithful account of his stewardship and called attention enthusiastically to the splendid increase in numbers, and the generally excellent condition of the Craft in Tennessee, and elsewhere.

He commissioned six Grand Representatives, and one Grand Chaplain; issued thirteen special dispensations, two of which were disapproved, although they seem to have been issued for a proper, or at least harmless, purpose.

Two chapters were constituted, and issued dispensation to organize three new chapters. Three charters were arrested because of inactivity. All chapters on probation waked up and are now free from the ban.

Not many visitations were made, but many are promised for the future where there is need of assistance. He reports the death of two Past Grand High Priests with feeling reference as to their loss, M. E. Isaac J. Thurman and M. E. A. N. Sloan.

Quite forward strides were made for education, a reference to which is made by General Grand Chapter.

The fifty-seventh Annual Convention of the Grand Council of the Order of High Priesthood assembled on January 25th, 1921. Thirty-two qualified Companions were duly elected, admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order.

The report on Correspondence is the good work of Past Grand High Priest C. H. Smart. It is his second one, and shows fine discrimination. Alabama 1919 was under review. It has fraternal consideration and careful treatment.

Regret that the Grand Secretary will not allow a double dose at any time.

TEXAS, 1920.

71ST ANNUAL, WACO, DECEMBER 6TH, 1920.

Chapters, 275; membership, 33,313; net gain, 4,989.

All the Grand Officers, twelve Past Grand High Priests, the representatives of 146 of the constituent chapters, and forty Grand Representatives made up Grand Chapter. M. E. Companion J. M. Strayhorn was there in the interest of Alabama.

Grand High Priest F. P. Marshall has the Texas spirit of the day of the past. He was a very busy and very positive Grand High Priest, but he does not forget Goliad, the Alamo and San Jacinto, and the men who functioned there and thereafter. He then proceeds to a lengthy detail of his official duties.

Three new chapters were constituted, dispensations issued to organize eight, and one was refused because not accompanied by petition properly prepared for dispensation to form a Council of R. & S. Masons.

A number of special dispensations were granted and some refused. Four Grand Representatives were commissioned and three accredited for commissions.

Two Past Grand High Priests passed during the year, and feeling tribute was paid to their memory.

A considerable portion of the address was devoted to Correspondence and telegrams with a chapter in Mexico City, under charter from Texas.

Texas has gone into Mexican Masonry to a great extent, and out of it all we hope may come some intelligent information as to conditions there.

Charters of six chapters had been arrested, but on proper showing, they were permitted to resume work.

The Home for Aged Masons came in for considerable attention. Grand Chapter is doing a great work at Arlington, more than justifying its continuance and support.

All of the decisions, with one exception were approved.

One could dwell at length upon this interesting volume, but space forbids. We leave it with the impression that the Grand Chapter and the Companions of Texas are doing great things in a large way.

Forty-eight were found to possess the requisite qualifications, and were admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order of High Priesthood.

Past Grand High Priest P. M. Riley has made a fine place for himself at the "Round Table." He writes a most excellent report on Correspondence.

Alabama 1919 is under review and after he got Grand High Priest Matlock right side up with care, he proceeded to throw him a lot of deserved bouquets. Finding him to be a Texan, everything else was O. K. In this we find no cause for dispute.

The "recovery" is almost complete.

UTAH, 1921.

10TH ANNUAL, SALT LAKE CITY, MAY 4TH, 1921.

Chapters, 6; membership, 937; net gain, 119.

It is always with interest that the writer picks up the volume from Utah, for he knows something of the difficulties and obstacles in the way of the Companions there. However, they are patriotic, sincere and diligent, and must prevail.

All Grand Officers, except Grand R. A. Captain, were in their stations. Seven Past Grand High Priests, two of them in the line of Grand Officers, were present, as were five Past High Priests. Each constituent chapter was represented.

The Grand Commander K. T. was present and received cordial welcome.

The address of welcome was listened to attentively, and the invitation, which followed, to lunch was unanimously accepted.

Alabama was not represented, and only twenty-one Grand Jurisdictions were present by Grand Representatives.

M. E. Companion Lee B. Wright, the Grand High Priest, delivered a brief, but excellent address, relating only to official business. One decision coupled with a recommendation was made. It is of purely local interest.

He visited every chapter and evinced an earnestness in his work of building up Capitular enthusiasm.

Six High Priests were duly elected, admitted, anointed and set apart at the Convention of the Order of High Priesthood.

The report on Correspondence is a very good one, but unsigned. Looking at the proceedings we find such a report signed by "Peter A. Simpkin," without other marks of identification. We do not find his name with those recorded as present, but judge him to be of the "Faith."

Alabama is not reviewed.

VERMONT, 1921.

104TH ANNUAL, BURLINGTON, JUNE 17TH, 1921.

Chapters, 30; membership, 5,362; net gain, 469.

Every chapter reported, and all were represented at Grand Chapter. Our Grand Secretary would wear a broad and more congenial smile if he could so report one time.

Credentials Committee report as present all the Grand Officers, seven permanent members (although 11 Past High Priests and 7 Past Grand High Priests are shown to be present) and 97 representatives of constituent chapters. Twenty-one Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being among the number.

Grand High Priest M. E. Charles A. Lang is strictly business in his address. He attended the meeting of the District Deputies, and admonishes them of the necessity of being present at these meetings. Attended several District meetings, granted special dispensations, not giving number or character, but evidently some to hurry candidates. The renewed interest in the work is given as the reason and Committee on Jurisprudence approved. Issued several commissions and accredited several Companions for commissions.

Notes the passing of Past Grand High Priest Silas H. Danforth, and pays tribute to his memory.

Special report on the proposed amendments to General Grand Chapter constitution was submitted by Past Grand High Priest E. S. Weston. He went into the matter exhaustively, and concluded against adoption. Other reports were filed, but their contents were of local interest only.

Thirteen E. High Priests were admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order by the Convention of the Order of High Priesthood.

The report on Correspondence is the excellent work of M. E. Companion Eugene S. Weston. It is his fifth report. Alabama 1920 is under review, and has careful analysis and fraternal consideration. Fifty-two Grand Jurisdictions are covered in the same way.

VICTORIA, 1920.

Chapters 25; membership, 1,374; net gain, 177.

Four convocations (quarterly) were held by Grand Chapter, at Melbourne, on the following dates, July 16, 1919; Oct. 15, 1919; January 21, 1920 and April 21, 1920.

The work of Grand Chapter is done by the Committee of General Purposes, and their report is usually adopted and becomes the minutes of Grand Chapter.

They are an earnest and dignified body, looking always to the advancement of the principles and purposes of the Royal Craft.

At the Quarterly of July 16, 1919 a "service of Thanksgiving for Peace" was held. The Grand Officers report visits to nearly all the chapters, and that conditions are excellent. Several chapters were authorized and later constituted.

VIRGINIA, 1920.

113TH ANNUAL, RICHMOND, OCTOBER 26TH AND 27TH.

Chapters, 69; membership, 11,173; net gain, 1,501.

One chapter U. D. showed an increase of fifty members and was chartered.

Thirty-nine chapters had representatives present. All the Grand Officers, and eleven Past Grand High Priests were present. Twenty-eight Grand Jurisdictions were represented, Alabama not being among the number. Our friend M. E. John T. Cochran occupied the office of Grand High Priest and Grand Lecturer, and his annual message covers both fields of endeavor.

He records the passing of three Past Grand High Priests and the Grand Master of the 2nd Veil during the year.

The larger part of the address is given to his work as Grand Lecturer, and from it we note great activity in visitation and in an effort to have all the chapters do the work in a proper manner. His opening words are chaste and timely. He commissioned five Grand Representatives and accredited five for commissions. Granted a few dispensations to ballot out of time. This is always strongly tempting to a Grand Lecturer, who wants always to see the work go on.

The committee of the whole sat as usual and disposed of many matters of local interest.

A Grand Council of Anointed High Priests assembled, and after the transaction of business proceeded to receive, anoint, consecrate and set apart thirty-two qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

The report on Correspondence is the thorough work of E. Companion Joseph W. Eggleston. Alabama 1919 was under fire, and meets approval, with the exception of the Correspondent. Grand Secretaries have a way of having their own way, and if the best in the country wanted to render an excuse for the Correspondent, it was his good intentions to do so. If he was unfortunate in his choice of terms, we take all the blame.

The impression prevails in some quarters that those people who are always on time have nothing other to do than just being on time.

However, Comp. Eggleston is much younger than this Correspondent, and will live to learn that humanity has its faults and foibles.

WASHINGTON, 1921.

37TH ANNUAL, SEATTLE, MAY 2ND AND 3RD, 1921.

Chapters, 37; membership, 6,501; net gain, 1,064.

Two chapters, not listed above, were working U. D. and having shown that their existence was worth while, were duly chartered, and will be added to the list.

The gain for the year was unprecedented.

All the chapters but five were represented. All the Grand Officers were present. Nineteen Past Grand High Priests are recorded as attending. Thirty-seven Grand Representatives answered the roll call, among them M. E. William G. Rowland, representing Alabama.

General Grand High Priest Frederick W. Craig was present and was received with the honor due his exalted rank. We learn later, from his address, that he was accompanied by Mrs. Craig. M. E. Frederick Lau Janeck, Grand High Priest, delivered a short business-like address. He notes the large increase and expresses the hope that it is due to a desire for further light and knowledge, and not as a mere stepping stone for "higher degrees" to reach the "play ground" of Masonry. This is getting to be an universal sentiment, and argues well for the future of the Craft, if not for the "play ground." He instituted two chapters, made several visitations, commissioned two Grand Representatives, issued several special dispensations, made and granted many courtesy requests, rendered no decisions, and recommended a reduction in Grand Chapter dues.

General Grand Chapter ritual was adopted after a fight.

Other matters of a purely local nature transpired.

The Order of High Priesthood held its Annual Convention on May 2, 1921, and after disposing of the usual business, duly received, anointed, consecrated and set apart twenty-five qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

The present Grand Secretary E. V. Companion Henry L. Kennan, says the report on Correspondence, or rather what there is of it, was prepared by Companion Blalock. It was his thirty-first, and like all the others, was excellent work. It is, as the Grand Secretary says, a fitting finale to a long career of usefulness and honor.

Alabama 1920 was under review and had exact and fraternal treatment.

WEST VIRGINIA, 1920.

50TH ANNUAL, HUNTINGTON, NOVEMBER 8 AND 9, 1920.

Chapters, 44; membership, 9,351; net gain, 966.

Thirty-five chapters were represented.

Grand Captain of the Host and Grand Master of the Second Veil were absent.

Fifteen Past Grand High Priests were in attendance, as were the Grand Representatives of fifty-three of the Grand Jurisdictions. Alabama was well represented by E. V. Companion James A. Bryan, Grand Master 3rd Veil.

Grand High Priest Thomas M. Turner submits a business message, dealing only with the affairs of his office. He visited five chapters, constituted one chapter, started one chapter U. D., granted and requested courtesy work, visited the George Washington Masonic National Association, issued several special dispensations, and appointed two Grand Representatives, and recommended four for commissions. He speaks feelingly of the death of Grand Captain of the Host, E. V. Companion Harry L. Broh, and of the death of the companion of Grand Secretary Ford.

Under West Virginia Capitular law a chapter receiving a charter can do no degree work until constituted, according to the Grand High Priest. They can work under dispensation, but as soon as they receive a charter must halt until constituted. Rather an anomaly.

Grand Chapter of British Columbia was recognized.

A convention of the Order of High Priesthood assembled Nov. 9, 1920, and after transacting such business as needed attention, elected admitted, anointed, consecrated and set apart sixteen qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

WISCONSIN, 1921.

71ST ANNUAL, MILWAUKEE, FEBRUARY 15, 1921.

Chapters, 97; membership, 17,043; net gain, 2,164.

Ninety-two chartered chapters were represented, two under dispensation had delegates present; all the Grand Officers were in their stations; fifteen Past Grand High Priests, and the representatives of thirty-seven Grand Jurisdictions, Alabama not being one of them.

M. E. Companion Edward T. Hayhurst, Grand High Priest, reports that the year had been one of progress. Three chapters were constituted, and five chapters instituted under dispensation, and were granted charters.

Two decisions of local interest only were rendered. Ten special dispensations were granted, some to ballot out of time. Three Grand Representatives were commissioned, and ten Companions accredited for commission.

Other matters of local interest received consideration in the address.

General Grand Chapter constitutional amendments were condemned.

The Grand Lecturer reports visits to and instruction of fifty-three chapters.

It is now permissible to obligate any number of candidates in the M. M., P. M. and M. E. M. degrees in Wisconsin.

The Order of High Priesthood met in annual Convention, February 15, 1921, at Scottish Rite Cathedral, and after disposing of the usual business, elected, anointed and set apart twenty-five qualified Companions to the Holy Order.

Past Grand High Priest Samuel Wright presents the Correspondence report. It is brief, but well written. Alabama, 1919, has careful and fraternal treatment.

We trust that by this good time Companion Wright has found out along what line the committee of five will operate, and we hope he will approve.

WYOMING, 1921.

13TH ANNUAL, LANDER, JULY 14TH, 1921.

Chapters, 14; membership, 1,708; net gain, 239.

All of the chapters were represented.

The E. and Rev. Grand Chaplain had passed through the veils during the year. The Grand Royal Arch Captain and Grand Master of Third Veil were also absent. The Grand Sentinel was ill. Eight Past Grand High Priests were present. Twenty-two Grand Representatives were present, among them Alabama's legate, R. E. Companion Hudson H. Darrah.

Past Grand High Priest Lynch, of Utah, was present, and given cordial reception and honors.

M. E. Companion Charles W. Sheldon Grand High Priest, read a short address, the most of which was devoted to Necrology. Three special dispensations were granted and one refused, the latter to get candidates ready for a "Shrine ceremonial." He wears a Shrine pin and yet has the courage to say to them, no hurry up candidates for that purpose. He made six visitations; requested and granted courtesy work. His comments are worth recording. He says:

Capitular Masonry seems to be harder to understand than Ancient Craft Masonry, and by many is looked upon as a necessary evil, a stepping stone to the so-called "higher degrees." The candidate takes these degrees in two or three meetings, and does not understand "what it is all about." Matters of purely local interest were given attention.

The Grand Convention of the Holy Order of High Priesthood met July 14, 1921, and after hearing the address of the M. E. President, M. E. Jesse Converse, and transacting other routine business, elected, admitted, anointed and set apart to the Holy Order six eligible Companions.

Grand Secretary Samuel Carson, for the committee, submits his second report on Correspondence.

It is well done and makes entertaining reading.

Alabama 1920 is under review, and has full treatment. He finds much to commend in the report of the committee of five on Masonry and Americanization.

CONCLUSION.

The dominant note is education. All the Grand Bodies reviewed are paying marked attention to this all important subject. It is well, and if kept up, must do more than any other one thing for the future prosperity and safety of the Republic.

Fraternally submitted,

LAWRENCE H. LEE,
Committee.
